University of Nebraska,
 LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.

The University of the State was opened last September under favorable conditions, and thus far has been prosperous and successful.

PROFESSORS.
 The Faculty, at present, is composed of five Professors, skilled in their several departments of instruction. To these there will be added two more at the opening of the next College year.

ADMISSION.
 Students of both sexes are admitted to the University, on passing examination in the common English branches, if entering the Latin School; or in studies of advanced classes, if claiming an advanced standing.

TUITION.
 Tuition in all departments is FREE. There is an entrance fee of $5. Books are furnished at cost.

APPARATUS, Etc.
 The Institution is liberally supplied with Apparatus, Cabinet, Library, and all useful facilities for illustrating the subjects taught. The Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus is especially large and valuable.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.
 It is proposed by the Regents to open the Agricultural College at the earliest time practicable—probably at the opening of the next College year.

BOARDING.
 Boarding is obtained at reasonable rates in private families, or by renting rooms the expense may be reduced to $2 or $3 per week. At present boarding in families is from $4 to $5 per week.

CALENDAR.
 The Spring Term will begin Thursday, April 4, 1872.
 The Fall Term will begin the second Thursday of September next.

Correspondence is solicited by the Chancellor from those intending to enter College.

The health of our State and the facilities offered in the University, should be strong inducements for those seeking health and advantages for education.
