We copy the following notice from the New York Herald:

A. C. ANTIPAS, A SERVANT AND AN APOSTLE of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

And Josia Christian, his brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, and all the children of light with them.

Unto all the kings of the earth, and to all the emperors and princes, and presidents and governors, and potentates and rulers.

And to all their ministers and counselors, and law-makers and judges:

And unto every nation and kindred, and tongue and people.

Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of his judgement is come, and worship Him that has made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of water.

Be wise, now, therefore, O, ye kings; be instructed ye judges of the earth.

Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and ye perish by the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little.

Blessed are all they that put their trust in Him.

Written in the name of God and of His Son Jesus Christ: the King of kings, the Lord of Lords, and the Judge of judges, on the 23rd day of this 8th month, in the year of His grace and salvation, 1877.

Poor Antipas, he's got it bad.

TABLEAU.

SCENE—A woman within a room bending over a wash-tub with her back to the open door. In the door, a little boy. Outside, a goat watching said boy.

II. Little boy points his finger at goat. Goat takes it as an insult, shuts his eyes and makes a flying leap for little boy in the doorway. Little boy steps aside.

III. Chaos. Soap-suds, crinoline, and a succession of shrieks fill the room. Little boy disappears around the corner.

IV. Goat emerges from the door at a rapid pace, with the hair all off his back, and a wild look in his eyes. Retires behind the barn to meditate.

No company received at that house for a week.

When a young man from Harvard is asked if he will always love her thus, he does not answer, "Will a duck swim?" Science has taken the place of poetry, and he replies: "Will evolution from the unconditioned working in protoplasm by accretion and absorption produce the organic cell?" Then he inquires languidly if there are any cold beans about the house.

One of the Seniors who is greatly in need of more of the filthy lucre, thought to touch the heart of his sire by sending him a gushing letter. The parent doubtless has great faith in the ability of his boy. Here is the letter. "Pater cani have somemore stampsent tome? Ego spentthe lastcent."

It was very muddy weather when President Hayes visited Rhode Island, and when he went away he carried about three-forths of the state on his boots, and had to sit down in Connecticut and let his feet hang over the line while the despoiled inhabitants scraped off their estates.—Ex.

An exchange tells about a Senior somewhere, who excuses himself for studying Sunday, on the ground that if the Lord justifies the man for helping the ass from the pit on the Sabbath day, much more will he justify the ass for trying to help himself out.
