

PERSONALIA.

—77. F. M. Lambertson is teaching near Norfolk.

—J. C. Noel, an old-time student, is running a store at Greenwood.

—Miss Lillie Davis left school about a month ago, to teach near Salem.

—The Bridenbaugh brothers are numbered among the victims of the measles.

—F. O. Morton was compelled to leave school before the term closed because of measles.

—J. P. A. Black, formerly of the University, is in the city. He is a member of a law firm in Bloomington.

—O. Q. Adams was among the first to fall a victim to the measles. He is nearly well again, we are glad to state.

—Misses Elma and Cora Hawley, Kate Gillette and May Williams are among the ladies who took in the measles.

—The STUDENT is always up with the times. Our foreman, S. P. Platt, had the measles just the same as any of the boys.

—Charley Walbridge had to keep up with the fashion, and accordingly broke out with the measles, and then "broke" for home.

—Albert Joyce called recently. He continues to work up the interests of the Omaha Bee, and is gaining a reputation as a business man and correspondent.

—A. U. Hancock, our retiring Editor-in-Chief, will not attend the University next term. He has accepted a proposition to teach near Wahoo during the winter.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

An old physician retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The recipe will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Address with stamp naming this paper, Dr. J. C. STONE, 44 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
