

The Alumni.

W. H. Snell, '73, accompanied by his wife, attended Commencement. He is practising law at Fairbury.

J. Stuart Dales, '73, is Secretary of the Board of Regents. He also serves the City of Lincoln in the capacity of Police Judge.

W. M. Stevenson, '74, is engaged in agricultural pursuits, near Unadilla. He attended Commencement exercises.

U. H. Malick, '74, looks after the health of the denizens of Bloomington and vicinity.

Frank P. Hurd, '74, is near Sterling, surrounded by cackling herds and lowing hens and all the other appendages of a first class farm.

Clarence W. Raodes, '76, who has been studying law in New York City is expected in Lincoln every day.

Miss Alice Frost, '76, has been teaching during the past year in Beatrice. She is now at home resting from her labors.

H. W. Culbertson, '76, is at the head of the agricultural department of the University. Mr. Culbertson has been connected with the University since his graduation.

G. E. Howard, '76, received the degree of Master of Arts this Commencement. Mr. Howard has been Acting-Professor of Logic and English Literature, for the last six months, in his Alma Mater.

W. A. McAllister, '77, is studying in Munich, Germany.

F. M. Lamberton, '77, is in Missouri. He is employed in a mercantile establishment there.

A. W. Field, '77, is Justice of the Peace in Lincoln. He has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court, and is engaged in his profession.

C. E. Brainard, '77, has been engaged in teaching the young ideas &c., since graduating.

H. H. Wilson, '78, now at the head of the Seward high school, will spend the summer in Lincoln reading law.

A. C. Platt '78, has also become a student of Blackstone.

E. P. Holmes, '78, has been admitted to practice in the District Court. He claims also the title of J. P.

W. P. Rhodes, '78, is in Denver Col. regaling his eyes with the spectacle of snow covered peaks, while we gaze fondly on a dish of ice cream.

Wayland Bailey, '78, is out on a surveying expedition, getting tanned, eating pork, beans and flapjacks.

Miss Florence Vaughn, '78, has been in Chicago, visiting friends.

Miss Mollie Carter, '78, is at home in Lincoln.

Personalia.

Will Garber attended Commencement.

C. E. Magoon will visit Minnesota this summer with his mother.

Miss Judkins will not return next fall. The Junior class loses a live member.

Mr. F. B. Hall and his sister Miss Katie G. were in the city during commencement exercises.

G. M. Sturdevant came up to see his brother receive his diploma and bouquets. George is one of the legal lights of Wahoo.

Cards are out for the wedding of Prof. Harrington Emerson and Miss Florence Brooks. Send the Local's cake to his Summer residence, Humboldt Neb.

Frank McCartney and sister and Charlie Walbridge came up from Nebraska City to attend Commencement. All their friends were glad to see them, and hope they will return to the University next term.