

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS AND ADVERTISERS.

Subscribers and Advertisers, whose paper at any time fails to reach them should promptly give notice of the fact to the Business Manager.

Students changing their address must give notice to the Business Manager, before any change can be made.

Local News.

New faces abound.

Join one of the societies.

Subscribe for the STUDENT.

Do you board at the Dormitory?

Read "The Royal Path of Life."

United state's bonds — The bonds of matrimony.

Every student should have a copy of "The Royal Path of Life."

Go to Fox & Struve's Book Store for your Text-books and Stationery.

"The Royal Path of Life" would be a nice present to a friend.

Students will find all their Text books at the Book Store of Fox & Struve.

"The Royal Path of Life" is worthy of a place in every home.

Fly time is over and students must find some other way in which to practise gestures.

The fact that the Fair was in progress during the first week of school made it difficult for students to find rooms.

Old student to new: "Will you drink Hydrogen-Oxide?" New s.: "No, I'm paying 2.25. Give me water."

Blank Books, Tablets and Stationery at the Book Store of Fox & Struve.

Poor out respectable young men can now safely walk with young ladies past ice cream saloons. The business is closed for the season.

You can't help being pleased with the Boots and Shoes that Albert H. Waitt will sell you, opposite the Post Office.

Did you see some students at the Fair with their faces and shirt bosoms speckled with soot? They had been taking a free ride behind the road engine.

Students, wanting any thing in the line of photographs, should not fail to call on Wheat & Drain on the north side of O St. between Tenth and Eleventh.

The Profs. are doing good work in interesting the people of various sections of the State. Three of them were out at one time last week.

Not to omit mention of the weather altogether we will just state that the dust has been very bad, and that a slight rain Tuesday was very acceptable.

The following excuse for a late was handed to a professor the other day, "Unavoidably detained; mules balked three minutes." The excuse was considered good.

A new line of Bergmann Zephyrs at the Little Store on Eleventh Street, and Corsets, Ruchings, Hosiery, Hoop Skirts, and a general stock of Notions at decided Bargains.

The Psychology class was made happy by a couple of lectures on Phrenology, which, requiring no preparation, gave them a rest from the arduous labor attendant on the studies of the Senior year.

We suggest that the authorities have an arch built over the chimney on the west side of the chapel. That black streak down the wall does not have a pleasant effect on a person of aesthetic tastes.

Please lay the blame of a hurriedly prepared local department this number upon the editors-in-chief. They wrote up their editorials during vacation and felt grieved because Ye Loca' didn't do the same. Consequently we have been hurried by the whole corps, from chiefs to devil.