
NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS AND ADVERTISERS.

Subscribers and Advertisers, whose paper at any time fails to reach them should promptly give notice of the fact to the Business Manager.

Students changing their address must give notice to the Business Manager, before any change can be made.

Local News.

Read "The Royal Path of Life."

The Constitution and Psychology classes reviewed last week.

It is time to draw cuts to see who will make fires the first week.

Go to Fox & Struve's Book Store for your Text-books and Stationery.

The new style Panel Pictures made only at Wheat & Ford's Gallery O St.

Franklin county was represented in the Republican convention by J. P. A. Black. He gave us a call on his way back.

The coming STUDENT election is coming near enough to the surface of College affairs to cause a slight ripple.

The little store on 11th St. displays the novelties in Ruches, Fine Laces, Corsets, Neck wear &c., at wonderfully low prices.

Reverend Dean of Exeter, a graduate of Amherst and scholarly gentleman, made the University a visit and listened to the recitations of the Senior class.

Every student should have a copy of "The Royal Path of Life."

Students will find all their Text books at the Book Store of Fox & Struve.

A croquet set has been provided for the Dormitory maidens and they may be seen at that mild exercise occasionally. Several stalwart young men also spend a large portion of their time there.

"The Royal Path of Life" would be a nice present to a friend.

The students have organized a choir to lead the singing in chapel. Miss Smith has been elected leader, and the singing goes off better than formerly.

Wheat & Ford say they will make a good liberal reduction on the price of Photos to students. Of course that's where we're all going.

"The Royal Path of Life" is worthy of a place in every home.

Chancellor Fairfield lectured Saturday evening at Brownville and preached on Sunday at the Presbyterian Church. He returned on Monday.

Ed Unangst the Bus. Man. of this concern, was on the sick list. Business cares connected with the complicated machinery of the concern, was probably the cause.

Prof. Aughey has been absent on several occasions since the beginning of the term on business connected with his work, Sketches of the Physical Geography and Geology of Nebraska.

Methodist Conference has been in session. Some forty or fifty of them visited the University and looked through it. Many of the students found acquaintances among the Reverend gentlemen.

The STUDENT acknowledges the receipt of a copy of Every Day Songs, a new work just published by R. W. Carleton & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Those wishing new in this line, we would refer to this work.

Miss Emma Richardson, formerly of Aurora Ill., succeeds Prof. Stadter. She has entered upon her work and already has a number of pupils both in painting and music.

Prof. Emerson is very seriously ill with a malignant type of fever. He has been unable to be present at the University for some time and it will perhaps be several weeks yet before he can return to his duties.