

Below we give the program for the vocal drill in the chapel on Thursday evening. The class has had only five lessons, but it is surprising what progress has already been made. The exercise consists of rounds, two and four part songs in different keys and a variety of vocal studies. The program for Thursday will be varied in such a manner as to interest any not members of the class, and with the object of showing the results of five lessons, and give an idea of the Tonic Sol-fa System. All lovers of music are invited, and we are sure they will feel well paid for their visit. Remember the date and time. Thursday, at 7 p. m.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE MORMON.

Not to prevaricate.
I. e. to lie,
I'm going to marry eight,
Marry or die—
Unless they are obstinate.
(Girls sometimes are,
And do procrastinate
To long by far.)

A billy goat,
A field Elysian,
A servant girl,
A well Artesian.
A water trough,
A thirsty throat.
A stooping girl,
A runuing goat.
A billy goat,
A field Elysian.
A servant girl,
A trough Artesian.

The upper hall,
No light at all;
Two students still
On window sill.
A dainty Miss,
A bold Cadet;
A little kiss—
A lighted jet!
A janitor,
With scowling face;
A little scream,—
"Let's leave the place."

—Our Machine.

The Cadets make a fine appearance on drill, 'cause they wear boots and shoes, bought at O. W. Webster's.
