

Campus Canards.

"Dulce est desipere in loco." —Horace Book IV., Ode XII.

Straw hats.
 Who is Mr. Chalk?
 Have you registered for drill?
 Kansas dust is exodusting Northward.
 Latest style in hats at T. Ewing & Co's.
 What hard work it is to get to prayer meeting.
 Special rates to Students for Remenyi Concert.
 Wipe your feet on the mats not on the matting!!!
 Elegant Patterns in Neckwear at T. Ewing & Co's
 What has become of the Students Lecturing Association?
 Special bargains for students at T. Ewing & Co's Emporium.
 The overshoe thief is getting into practice for the spring rains.
 The London Times says, "Remenyi is absolutely unsurpassable."
 With three stoves we can keep the chapel warm in this kind of weather.
 The June classes are beginning to pucker up their brows for their work.
 Buy your Boots and Shoes of O. W. Webster, O st. Academy of Music.
 Best style, best goods, at lowest prices at T. Ewing & Co's Clothing House.
 Call and see the new spring suits at T. Ewing & Co's Clothing Emporium.
 If you wish to know the price of oranges or orange peels ask Charlie Allen.
 The Janitor and his corps of gardeners are putting the campus in fine condition.
 The best judges of artistic work go to Kelley & Co for Photos. No. 1026 O street.
 Chas. Grable an old time student, has been spending a few days with E. O. Lewis.
 We are pleased to welcome Curtis Smith and Tunis Jackson again into our midst.
 Miss Clara Caldwell intends to plant the intellectual seed in Johnson County this term.
 How is your grade of last term? "Good, way up." "Let me see it." "I hav'nt it with me."
 Only one resignation in the STUDENT board this semester. So far so good. Who will come next?
 All the newest styles and patterns of clothing and gent's furnishing goods at T. Ewing & Co's.
 Tutor N. C. Little went duck hunting during vacation and bagged five. O, U ta(ik)! Hush!!
 Students, it will pay you to get your Photos made at Kelley & Co's. University panels gratis.
 Some of the more sportive and forgetful appropriate the newly matted halls as a sort of skating rink.
 S. W. Auten, who has been "pruning the young nurseries" the past four months, is again in our midst.
 Curtis Smith has completed his labors as teacher of a school in Fillmore county and is again in his classes.

Remenyi, the greatest living violinist, supported by a fine company of solo artists, will appear on the 25th.

Some of the students that have been passing entrance examinations, think the history questions rather "stout."

Is it not curious that two of our most important commodities, cheese and chalk, are both derived from milk?

All the latest novelties in hosiery, collars, cuffs and gents' furnishing goods at T. Ewing & Co's Emporium

The class in elementary Botany is the largest in the University. How the flowers will be trampled down this summer!

The flower beds have been arranged in tiptop style. We have no idea as to what kind of flowers have been planted but shall soon see.

The STUDENT ASSOCIATION held an election on the 10th which resulted in the election of C. G. McMillan for associate editor, vice Frost resigned.

Base is becoming our college game. By actual trial it is computed that twice as much St. Jacobs Oil is needed in playing it as in foot-ball. Hence the change.

Another resignation in the editorial corps. Mr. A. L. Frost. We are sorry that he has severed himself from us, as he did his work well and gave general satisfaction.

The vandals who are bent on defacing property on Society nights will bear in mind that they are watched and when caught it will not go very pleasantly with them.

At the recent city election in Lincoln the temperance ticket carried by a large majority. This shows clearly that the saloons are not yet the ruling forces at the Capital

The most awful sound that can be audited by a College. Editor is the Devil's shriek for copy. Juniors alone can resist it and sometimes even they get in their copy on time.

They say that Freshie boys are obliged on account of the surpassing numbers of the divine sex to take them to the class-meetings by relays. N.B.—the Sophs. dont have to do that.

Why don't the Faculty appoint a Sergeant-at-arms to rake the students into chapel. The advantages of the quiet matting seems to be too much for the consciences of many Students.

The students on the third floor need not be frightened by the terrible sounds which mystically emanate from the Chapel during the fourth hour. 'Tis only the beginners in Elocution.

J. J. Halligan, in addition to keeping up his studies in the University, is beginning to inquire into the fathomless depths of legal lore. He is reading in the office of Brown & Ryan.

The STUDENT Sanctum was honored by a visit from Misses Tuttle and Doolittle one day last week. Our Devil is now busy decorating the office for the reception of the next lady visitor.

Beginning class in Elocution: Give us, O give us a man——." Teacher: "Well go on, who sings at his work." "I don't care whether he sings at his work or not, just give us a man," she said.

At last we are happy to announce to our readers that we intend to procure the services of a proof reader, by whose aid, perhaps, there will be fewer typographical errors in our columns than under the present regime.