

Campus Canards.

Themes.

No snow.

No cold weather.

Three fires last week.

Forsythe is impenitent.

None but seniors marry.

Breech has got the mitten.

Good weather for duck hunting.

Latest styles in hats at T. Ewing & Co's.

Cadet suits and caps at T. Ewing & Co's.

Commandant Townly has gone to New York.

Celluloid collars and cuffs at T. Ewing & Co's.

Special bargains for students at T. Ewing & Co.

Elegant Patterns in Neckwear at T. Ewing & Co's.

See the advertisement of St. Claire Hall, on 1st. page.

No societies last Friday evening on account of Turkey.

It is s(h)eldom that you hear of a med on a wolf track.

Large assortment of collars, cuffs and neckwear at T. Ewing & Co's.

The best judges of artistic work go to Kelley & Co for Photos. No. 1026 O st.

Best style, best goods, at lowest prices at T. Ewing & Co's Clothing Emporium.

All the newest styles and patterns of clothing and gent's furnishing goods at T. Ewing & Co's.

Don Clark has been obliged to go home for his health. He says he will bring it along next time.

Warner says that he wouldn't care a cent about flunking in class, if he only succeeded as an actor.

Dave Forsythe is the laziest man that ever ate pie with a fork, and Miss Keys will bear us out in that statement.

Ben Johnson has been appointed drum major of the band. This is a fitting tribute to his great musical ability.

Remember Students you can get fine work, and better inducements, in the "Fotograf" line, at Kelley & Co. 1026 O. St.

Nearly fifty students improved the opportunity of Thanksgiving to utilize half fare tickets to their respective homes.

Room to rent, with use of Piano. Good chance for a couple wishing to study music. Boarding if desired. Apply at 1159 R. St.

When a certain young man took his lady home (corner of T and 18th) and had fainted he was hears to exclaim "pass—more camphor."

The janitor's chimney has had a tin addition put on it lately, so that it looks more like an inverted plug hat than any thing human.

At one of the boarding houses of the city they prepare their onions so strong that one can feel the breaths of the eaters twenty feet away.

Students it will pay you to examine the pictures made by Kelley & Co. before sitting elsewhere. Have you seen

Drill will continue until the holidays.

More pretty water pipes, on the front side of the building this time.

Buy your boots and shoes of O. W. Webster, O st Acad. emy of Music.

Call and see the new fall suits at T. Ewing & Co's Clothing Emporium.

Ask Johnson how it feels to break a window pane out of the STUDENT office.

Students! behold the new ad of W. H. Prescott's, where you buy holiday goods.

We would call attention to the new ad of Geo. W. Fawell in another column.

If there is anything original in this issue, do not be alarmed. The editors have been away.

The delicious perfume arising from one or two new stoves makes the air odorous on the second floor.

The meds are becoming so skillful in Anatomy that they claim to be able to dissect a fifty year old ghost.

If another coat of paint were put over the medical ad. on the roof it would be less promiscuous so to speak.

It grinds the soul of a student to be awakened from a peaceful slumber to go an see an old barn burn down.

The janitor has a pair of mittens in his possession that the owner can have by calling for them and paying damages.

Ask any one that lives on east U street about the trials and tribulations caused by Will E. Johnson and S. D. Killen.

The boys have already used up three base balls and kicked two foot balls out of existence. We still have some energy left.

Our opera house addition is booming. Likewise the street cars. This is a live town even without student energy and sign painters.

They say Allen is about to enter the ministry. Spends most of his time in solitary meditation; looks sanctimonious, and wears a long coat.

It is not safe to call a professor a liar. At least so one of the sanctum occupants discovered lately. "For further particulars enquire within."

Our livery men are getting in a large stock of $5 per hour cutters. Students look well to your pocket-books and keep your bank-books nigh.

If we are not destined to have the the steam heating apparatus this winter, it is fortunate that the Bureau has sent us comparatively warm weather.

Ice skating is rather slow this year, but the way the boys roll around in the roller skating rink is a caution even to their last year's experiences.

They say that the total weight of the University has increased 2,000 pounds since Thanksgiving. Those who went home must have had big turkies.

The rumor is afloat that Warner has fallen from grace. Frequents minstrel shows and theaters. Combs his hair in the middle, and wears a "dude" cap.

Additional hymn books are to be procured for chapel. The alto and profundo basso of the choir will then be provided with two books instead of one, as at present. Not a bad scheme.