

'Tis commonly reported that W. C. Knight has secured the degree of D. D. since returning from the West. At any rate his mail is directed to Rev. W. C. Knight.

Miss Glen Talbot was taken seriously ill with congestive chills last Sunday night. By her speedy and fortunate recovery she greatly relieves a host of friends.

Mockett, in delivering a lecture in the Soph. history class the other day, remarked in a burst of eloquence "Tiberius grew solemncholy." The melancholy class grew for a moment quite hilarious.

New locks and springs have been supplied for the three outside doors, and now they will shut themselves. These appurtenances are to be charged to those students who have thus, by their carelessness, made it necessary to incur this additional expense.

Union Debater, refuting an argument against womans' suffrage: Because women vote is no reason they should go to war, further more, if it were, they would be excusable on account of their diligent labors with the infant-ry at home." Riot—debater killed.

The Freshman class have elected the following officers for the Winter term:

President, Myra Clark; Vice President, Ethel Marsland; Secretary, W. W. Robertson; Treasurer, I. C. Gambee; Historian, C. S. Lobingier.

Theft of gloves and mittens from the pockets of over-coats hanging on the hooks in the hall have been of frequent occurrence lately. That any student could be guilty of such depravity seems, and is impossible. It would hardly be healthy for the offender if caught in the act.

Spelde knows a good thing when he sees it, and no amount of money or jewels could induce him to leave Larkins' boarding club. The other boarders are jealous enough to assassinate him because the waiter favored him with something out of the usual bill of fare one evening last week.

Palladian officers for the following term are, President, W. C. Knight; Vice President, Miss Miller; Secretary, O. VanPelt Stout; Cor. Secretary, Miss Wolf; Musical Sec., Miss Aughey; Critic, C. S. Lobingier; Treasurer, J. R. Schofield; Historian, Frank Manley; S'g't. at Arms, J. G. Smith.

The wind storm of the 4th inst. raised the chapel roof after the most approved fashion. Slates could be seen flying in every direction and were afterwards found scattered very promiscuously over the campus. One took a bee-line for a window on the second floor, and succeeded in demolishing it. The chapel seems doomed.

There is a time when language will not do justice to our thoughts—so at least says a Junior, who, having delivered, as he supposed a very eloquent lecture to his class and had taken his seat, after a few moments of death like silence, was asked when he would give his lecture and was told that his preliminary remarks were very fair.

The Sophs. met in solemn session and elected the following officers for next term: President, Miss Lantz; Vice President, Miss Baker; Secretary Miss Leighton; Treasurer, J. Barrett; Historian, Miss Aughey. Barrett is in good company.

Later. Further developments have disclosed, that four of the above Sophs got together and elected themselves. The following is the corrected list: President, O. B. Polk; Vice Pres.; Miss Cox; Secretary, Squire Mockett; Historian; Miss Barrett; Treasurer Miss Talbot.

DIRECT POINTERS.

Go to Ewings for sealskin caps.

Attend the Lincoln Business College.

Go to Kelly's for fine work in photography.

Skating is the popular amusement at present.

Full line of silk mufflers and nobby silk handkerchiefs at Ewings.

The concert at the Methodist church Friday evening next will be the entertainment of the season, for students. Go.

The political candidate's motto—Let's soap to win.

Kelly always does well by the students. Give him a call.

You will always find Kelly on hand to do good work.

Manley keeps a full line of confectionary goods, give him a call.

Prof. Nicholson hopes to occupy the new laboratory by the latter part of next term.

Students will receive best of attention at Manley's.

Bargains at T. Ewing's in Winter goods, don't fail to look at them.

Dennis, the hatter, keeps a full line of gents furnishing goods also of neckwear &c.

Mr. Fletcher the gentlemanly and popular business manager of the HESPERIAN is well up in the ranks of amateur journalists.—Ex.

Best Stetson and Dunlap hats at Dennis.

Manley has the cream of the candy trade.

Fine clothing Emporium.

Special prices to students at T. Ewing & Co's.

W. R. Dennis should be your hatter and furnisher.

H. W. Brown keeps a full assortment of students books.

You will always find a large stock of hats at W. R. Dennis

Go to F. Hurlbut to get soiled suits cleaned and colored.

Fine clothing at T. Ewing & Co's.

Cadet suits, gloves and caps at T. Ewing & Co's.

The radiators in the chapel have been bronzed, adding much to the cheerful appearance of the room.

An invoice of library books has just been received. There are two hundred of them.

The band has invested $3.00 in a gallon of wonderful metal polish. The instruments cannot be looked at with the naked eye hereafter.

Sam Westerfield is at his old stand and will make special rates to students.

Go to the Howard House for day board. Best dollar a day house in the city. You will receive prompt attention and also warm meals here.

The Lincoln Business College took first premium at Nebraska state fair for best business course. Best course in book-keeping and largest and best collection of penmanship. It is first class in all these departments.

A brass quintette club has been organized, consisting of Messrs. Jones, O'Shea, Knight, Eagleston and Schofield. These gentlemen have established reputations as musicians and are not lacking in brass.

It is said that our friend C. H. Cowing is on the high-way to ruin because of a severe loss of gold he sustained a short time since, while fooling with chemicals in the laboratory. We would advise that hereafter he fool with less volatile articles and thus his teeth may be exposed without danger.