

Mr. F. E. Brown received a short visit from his father last week.

Several students recently listened to the silvery tones of St. John.

Miss Graham and Miss Gund spent Washington's birthday in Wilber.

The P. G. D. C. will give a special program Friday eve March 7th.

Quite a number in the university intend going to Omaha to hear Patti.

But three plates were required to take THE HESPERIAN board's picture.

Miss Bella Cross '93, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Victoria.

Professor Brace has lately received three mirrors for his experiments in light.

Since McCroskey has changed to the scientific course he has begun to Brace up.

On account of sickness, Professor Hunt was unable to meet his classes on Monday last.

Misses Lelia Dew and Ida Russell, from Tecumseh, attended charter day exercises.

If you hunt diligently you will find an Illinois cake in Rockold and McCroskey's room.

The picture of ex-President J. H. Fairfield of Oberlin, is a new feature in the faculty room.

Ex-Regent Hull has been appointed chief of division in the auditor's office at Washington.

Hyge was told after German class that his record for promptness is worse than Jackson's.

The corn boxed up by Messrs Smith and Troyer at the time of the exhibit, is nearing Vienna.

J. T. Westerman, a student here last fall, is now in Seattle in the employ of the Northern Pacific.

Miss Esther Leighner, who was in the university last year, is attending the Lincoln business college.

Miss Lowman, after visiting her cousin, Miss Schwab, returned to her home in McCook on the 23rd.

Misses Gray and Howard spent Saturday and Sunday, February 15 and 16, at their home in Fremont.

'Tis sad but still 'tis true that the German lesson always suffers when there is an examination in history.

The freshman history class has finished "Early Rome" and have now taken up "Rome and Carthage."

The room is large, cases are many, drawers are numerous, but where are the specimens in the new museum.

Tuesday last the executive committee of the board of regents transacted business connected with steam fitting.

The black, soft, silken adornments of Quaintance and Cushman are no more. Calamities never come singly.

Floyd Seybolt guided his friend Mr. King through our buildings last week. Seybolt is now rushing real estate.

At present the University has thirty teachers, fourteen of whom are professors, and four hundred and sixty students.

Miss Knight, from Chicago, is visiting the university for the purpose of arousing more interest in the Y. W. C. A. work.

A. F. Woods has constructed a klinostat, the object of which is to overcome the influence of gravity on growth of seed.

The ministers of Omaha and Council Bluffs have made arrangements with Professor Hunt to receive instructions in oratory.

Mr. L. O. Shrader was obliged to discontinue his university work, in order to take charge of his father's farm near Logan Nebraska.

Miss Maybeth Hurd so well known in the University two years ago, is now in the art department of the New England conservatory.

Several of the girls of the prep Latin class meet today at the home of Miss Bain to translate the first seventeen chapters of Caesar.

Two volumes of the North American fungi have recently been added to the herbarium, which now contains 2,700 species of this set.

C. A. Beach, an old time Uni. boy now affixes his notarial seal to legal documents. He is located at 145 south Eleventh Street up stairs.

The Universities of Wisconsin and Nebraska, for the first time in the history of either, will not have senior orations next commencement.

P. L. Hibbard and his sister were surprised recently by a visit from an uncle whom they had never seen, Miles Bryan of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

The other day a man with a large hammer and a strong arm adjourned Professor Edgren's French class by pounding vigorously on the radiator.

The delegates to the state convention of the N. C. O. A. will be E. Farmer, chairman; H. C. Peterson, F. A. Rockhold, H. A. Reese, Geo. Sheldon.

Janitor Fritz wanted to know how much it would take to annihilate THE HESPERIAN editors, and learned that twelve dollars would cover the damages.

Soph boy: "I see the first prep girls have formed a literary club for the study of juvenile literature." First prep girl: "Yes we are reading the Sophomorian."

Wednesday, the 19th, a pleasing variation in the program of the stock breeders association was made by Miss Scott, when she sang one of her delightful solos.

Two coincidences: G. W. Gerwig our literary in '88 and T. F. A. Williams holding the position at present, wrote their first articles on Chamisso's "Peter Schlemihl."

Mr. Stephens, a former student of the Northwestern university was in Lincoln reporting the prohibition meeting. He inspected our buildings while in the capital city.

Rev. Henry Wallace, editor of an agricultural paper in Des Moines, made an address on clover in the stock breeder's association. He also presided in chapel on the 19th.

Is the Crete orator going to do up the University? Decidedly no. Is the Crete foot ball team going to walk over us? From the present interest taken here in the game, yes.

Earnest Gerrard, formerly of '93, not being able to return to school at the beginning of the term on account of sickness is now studying Latin and German at the Columbus high school.

On the evening of February 14th when Messrs Sawyer, Teft, and Dinges were notified that the Lieutenant wanted to see them in his private office, the boys thought he had a lecture in store for them, but they were mistaken, for he only requested them to go out in North Lincoln a couple of miles with the Quarter Master after the old target. The boys say walking is fine out in that part of town.