ACCORDING to Sperry, Omaha is blessed with a Three Cent Postmaster.

SPERRY'S testimony published in our local columns makes a very rich and racy piece of postal-riding history.

THE missionary labors of Brigham's Mormon Apostles seem to have produced the desired effect on the Utah Indians.

No wonder there was such a rush for postal clerkships while Pattee was running his Omaha lottery.

When a monte dealer is shot at Omaha he gets an obituary, in which he is spoken of as an honorable business man.

When a burglar is shot in St. Louis, they take up a collection to immortalize him with a monument.

A GENERAL CONVENTION of life insurance agents is to be held in Virginia next month, and now if a tribe of Indians could only be induced to attend and scalp every one of them what a happy country this would be to live in.

THE BEE objects to this proposed atrocity unless after that twenty thousand dollar libel suit is tried.

ST. LOUIS, July 28. The Democrat has a special from Fort Union, New Mexico, which says a band of fifty Kiowas and Comanche Indians killed five men near the mouth of Ute Creek, 20 miles south of Fort Bascomb, on the 21 instant, but contains no particulars.

CINCINNATI, July 28. The river men are hopeful that the river will soon fall, in which case much of the coal that was sunk in the recent storm can be raised again. It is hoped that the loss will not exceed $25,000, but should a rise occur it will be over one hundred thousand dollars.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. The Alaska sailed for China and Japan to-day, with 346 passengers and 27,000 treasure. A party fitted out by the government go to Peking to observe the transit of Venus, sailed on the steamer.

A dispatch from Arizona states that heavy storms are prevailing there. The Gila Colorado is very high. Troops are pushing the outlaw Chaitane and party closely. It is believed he will soon be captured.

PITTSBURG, July 28. In the Temperanceville district a large number of people are viewing the ruins. The bodies of Mrs. Brittain and Ida McVay were recovered about noon, and a body has been found floating at the ferry landing which is supposed to be that of one of the sufferers.

Thousands of people are visiting the scenes of the great disaster here. In Butcher's Run district, a company of national guards are stationed to protect property and prevent interference of sight seekers with the workers in search for bodies which were thrown into the river.

At one o'clock to-day the funerals of the following victims took place, the burial service being conducted by St. Vincent, St. Peter and St. Patrick's churches.

The bodies of Joseph and Louise Schaefer and four children, Huber and wife, Fox and wife, are to be buried in the Uniondale cemetery, where a lot which will hold twenty has been secured by the citizens' committee.

Excavations are going on for four children. At the head of Butcher's Run five bodies have been taken out, but none of them have as yet been identified.

During the storm of Sunday evening the Presbyterian Church at Wilkinsburg was struck by lightning, and the congregation did not become aware of the fact until after service, when it was discovered that the roof was in ruins.

A meeting of the Citizens' Relief Committee is now being held at Municipal Hall (2 o'clock p. m.) General J. K. Moorehead, president. Speeches are now being made by Major Fleming, of Allegheny, and others, and subscriptions are now being taken, which will no doubt amount to a large sum.

M. Stein, of Philadelphia, has authorized the committee to draw on him for one hundred dollars. From Charter's Valley a further report has been received from Laughlin's Run. The body of Mrs. Wm. Cleat was found.

One thousand dollars was raised at a relief meeting in half an hour, this morning. One thousand dollars was raised among the county officers for the relief fund.

This evening several bodies are reported found in Wood's run. How much loss of life is not yet ascertained.

The following is an additional list of those recovered from Butcher's Run; Jacob Meibler and wife, Conrad Genzler and wife, Jacob Schraffner and wife, and four children, Mrs. Henry Lingard and her children, Archibald Arnold, Wm. Hubbard, John Shavings and child.

Men and teams are busy restoring order and making repairs. Wm. Duff, his wife and child, and a lady visitor named Mrs. Bigby, had a very narrow escape. They heard the roar of the thunder and fled to the hills. They hardly crossed the threshold when the house was completely lifted up and borne down the stream with the crashing wretches of other buildings.

The following is the latest recapitulation of the bodies found up to this time: Upper Allegheny district, 32; Wood's Run, 8; Temperanceville, 9; Charter's Creek, 11; total found, 60. The number reported missing is still very large. From the best information which we can obtain the total loss of life will reach 150.

The following is a careful estimate made by the reporters who have visited the scene of the late devastation, of the loss of life in Butcher's Run district. So far as is known, the following is a complete list of the Allegheny dead, exclusive of Wood's Run. The names have been duplicated from the former report: J. Metz and wife, Mr. Frederick and child, Mr. Schnappe and wife, and four children, Conrad Genzler and wife, Geister and wife, Hubert and wife and child, J. F. Tucks, B. Tucks, J. Tucks, G. and S. THE EAST.

The National Board of Underwriters Condemns the Chicago Fire Department. Samuel Wilkinson Says That Tilton is the Champion Liar of America.

NEW YORK, July 28. The report of the committee appointed by the National Board of Fire of the Underwriters to investigate the condition of the Chicago fire department was to be given to the press. It contains severely the present management and operation of the department, which is almost entirely in the hands of politicians, and is supervised solely by one, namely, the Chief Marshal, who, being under party influence, is powerless. The men are demoralized and know no discipline. The committee recommended the entire reorganization of the fire department, with a board of commissioners like that of New York.

BROOKLYN, July 28. No further developments have been made to the business before the committee, further than that the committee have decided to call Mr. Moulton as the next witness, asking him in their invitation to produce all documents in his possession that relate in any way to the case.

Mr. Moulton was called to Narragansett yesterday, to the bedside of his dying wife. He is looked for in Brooklyn to-day, and as the committee meet again this evening, his acceptance of the invitation will be made known.

Tilton does not expect Moulton to testify before the committee as now formed, and if Moulton does not answer the call to testify, Mr. Beecher's testimony will be taken without further delay.

The committee are growing weary with much work and late hours and wish for the end. Mrs. Tilton read the published interview with Stanton, this evening, and threw up her hands in despair at the friends with whom she was staying, "How false it is!" She began to read the cross-examination of Mr. Tilton, as presented to-day, and remarked to some persons there that she was no more afraid of anything he can say or write. She is cheerful, and is looking forward hopefully to the completion of the testimony of Mr. Samuel Wilkinson secretary of the Northern R. R. Co., before the investigating committee.

Tilton first went to him with several sheets of letters bearing the seals of which he threatened to publish unless Mr. Beecher did justice to his character. He was dismissed from the editorship of the Independent and Union and said in his waning fortunes Mr. Beecher had been indifferent to him. In publishing the cross-examination, Mr. Tilton says that he did not say that Mr. Beecher had not been friendly and Mr. Wilkinson does not say under oath.

Mr. Tilton said in this conversation to-day, Mr. Wilkinson replied as follows: "I read every word of the published testimony. It is true every word of it, and will testify to it under oath in a court of justice. When Tilton denies my statement of his conversation with me he lies. Indeed he is the champion liar of America. No man since the days of Baron Munchausen has lied as he lies to-day. In conversation with a friend this evening it was remarked to Mr. Tilton that the indefinite answers he had given to General Tracy in the published reports of his cross-examination respecting dates were commented upon somewhat unfavorably, as tending to weaken the force of his statement. To this he replied that he never had a memory for dates. If he was asked in a court of justice the ages of his children he did not think he could answer. The only dates he could remember were the 4th of July and the 22d of February. Although he had tried scores of times to remember the date, he repeat the Lord's prayer correctly."

MADRID, July 28. Forty-one Carlists, most of them ecclesiastics or members of the nobility, have been arrested at Barcelona, by way of a reproof against the inhuman conduct of the Carlists.

LONDON, July 28. The committee of the Agricultural Laborers' Union have adopted a resolution declaring that "as we are not justified in appealing to the public for support for the locked-out laborers in the eastern counties during harvest, therefore we offer them the alternative of immigration, or depending on their own resources." The journals here say that war between Russia and China is inevitable in consequence of designs by the latter upon Kashgar.

PARIS, July 28. At the session of the Assembly on Monday the benches of the Left were well filled, most of the absent members having returned. The Committee on Parliamentary Limitation made a report on the resolutions for a dissolution, recommending that the Assembly proceed to constitute a government, or dissolve. After intense excitement, the debate was adjourned until Wednesday. It is thought that the consideration of the budget will occupy the Assembly until August 10th, about which time the House will adjourn until November 10th. The interval will be shorter than was expected, because the Conservatives fear that a long recess will incline the Left Centre to support the dissolution. Parties in favor of the dissolution are confident of success after recess, and believe their opponents will have a majority on Wednesday, when the resolutions come to a vote.
