NEW YORK, July 30.

The Captain of the brig Eathan reported to the office of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company to-day, that he had discovered the wreck of the Guatemala.

BROOKLYN, July 30.

The Argus says: "When Tilton found his wife had left her home he immediately had an agreement of separation executed between them on the basis that each believed the other to be in error, but that the future of neither should be unhappyly clouded, nor the happiness of their children sacrificed."

NEW YORK, July 30.

It is feared that a most great danger threatens Allegheny City. Dutchman's run is choked up to a distance of some two miles with the contents of the destroyed slaughter houses.

ST. LOUIS, July 30.

The Republican has a special from Newton, Kansas, saying that Captain Hannahan's company of militia returned to Fort Dodge, Tuesday, and that they killed nine Canadian Indians on the Canadian river, upon whose bodies a number of white scalps were found.

CHICAGO, July 30.

A Tribune special says the Republican convention of the eighth Congressional district at Fairbury, Illinois, to-day nominated Hon. G. L. Fort for re-election. The principles enunciated by the State convention at Springfield, July 17th, were endorsed.
