

THE OMAHA BEE
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.
TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We do not desire any contributions whatever of a literary or poetical character, and we will not endeavor to secure, or to return the same, in any case whatever. Our Staff is sufficiently large to meet all supply and limited space in that direction.

REAL NAME OF WRITER, in full, must be in each and every case accompany any communication of what nature ever. This is not intended for publication, but for our own satisfaction and as evidence of the faith.

Our Correspondents we will always be pleased to hear from, on all matters connected with crops, country politics, and on any subject whatever of general interest to the people of our State. Any information connected with the election and relating thereto, accidents etc., will be gladly received. All such communications, however, must be brief as possible; and they must, in all cases, be written up on one side of the sheet only.

POLITICAL.

ALL NOMINATIONS of candidates for office—whether made by self or friends, and whether as no. less communications to be Editor, are (unless nominations are made) simply personal, and will be charged as advertising.

All communications should be addressed to E. HOSEWATER, Editor and Publisher, Drew-y 27.

NOTICE.

On and after October twenty-first, 1872, the city circulation of the DAILY BEE is assumed by Mr. Edwin Davis, to whose order all subscriptions not paid at the office will be payable, and by whom all receipts for subscriptions will be accounted.

E. HOSEWATER, Publisher.

The counties are entitled to elect a delegate to act in case the delegates fail to attend the convention; and the convention is entitled to exclude proxies for delegates who do not reside in the counties they propose to represent.

By order of the committee,

F. M. Johnson,
Chairman.

AND now it transpires that Treasurer Spinner and Secretary Bristow are not, and have never been, at odds.

Now that we are to have a Breve Congressman, the question naturally arises, who is to be exalted to this supernumerary contingency?

GEX SHERMAN has returned to Washington from his tour through Virginia, and is now making active preparations for the contemplated removal of army headquarters to St. Louis.

THE IDEA that the defection of any German Republican can alienate any considerable number of Germans from the Republican ranks, is very effectually exploded by Mr. Charles Banks, who briefly reviews the political situation in our local columns.

GOVERNOR GENERAL WELCH is beginning to muster his forces on the Upper Elkton preparatory to moving upon the Republican State Convention. Political scouts have been dispatched to the South Platte country to observe the movements of the enemy.

THE Pomeroy bribery case, which was set for trial on July 29th, has again been put off. Pomeroy's attorneys succeeded in obtaining a change of venue, and the case goes over until after election. "Old Subsidy" has evidently no anxiety to clear himself before the courts.

OLD PROBABILITIES is now puzzling his brain over the unforeseen storm that deluged Pittsburgh and Allegheny City last Saturday night. It appears the observer at the Pittsburgh signal station had noticed no indications of an approaching storm beyond a slight change in the barometer.

WHAT has become of the water works project? Some three weeks ago this subject was called up in the City Council, and one of our city officials was instructed to correspond with competent water work engineers with a view of procuring reliable information. The Bee would like to know what, if anything, has been done in this direction.
