OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.
TO CORRESPONDENTS.
We do not desire any contributions whatever of a literary or political character, and we will not undertake to preserve, or to return to authors, any such contributions. Our staff is sufficiently large to more than supply our limited space in that direction.
Read, NAME OF WRITER, in full, must in each case accompany any communication of what nature soever. This is not intended for publication, but for our own satisfaction and as proof of good faith.
OUR CORRESPONDENTS will always be pleased to hear from, on all matters connected with crops, country politics, and on any subject whatever of general interest to the people of our State. Any information concerning the election and relating to floods, accidents, etc., will be gladly received. All such communications should be addressed to the Editor, and will be charged as advertisements.
All communications should be addressed to E. ROSEWATER, Editor and Publisher, Drawer 721.

GEN. SHERMAN AND THE INDIANS.
General Sherman has again given free expression of his views touching the Indian question. While he does not regard the present Indian troubles as of a very serious character, he is more than ever convinced that the irrepressible conflict between the white man and the red race must continue until the latter is exterminated.
As long as Indians remain upon earth, says General Sherman, there will be trouble between them and the whites. Whether the Indian is governed by the bible or the bayonet there will never be perfect peace between them. Although the army is decimated and scattered over a vast territory the General believes that superior transportation facilities will enable the Government to check any determined warlike action on the part of the Indians in a very short time. The most serious difficulty in dealing with the Indians, according to Sherman is to be met in the combination among the various bands and tribes who often makes it difficult, if not impossible to distinguish the guilty parties. While the Indian policy exerts a certain influence upon the agents, none in reality believe in that policy, and all admit its effect would be to cripple and defeat the best policy of the Government. This policy, from General Sherman's standpoint, places the Government before the Indian in the attitude of supplication, lacking for peace and indicates its lack of confidence in itself in case of war.
General Sherman has, however, failed to intimate what in his opinion, should be the Indian policy of the Government. The abolition of the Indian Bureau, and the transfer of the Indians under the control of the War Department, would doubtless remove many difficulties encountered by the present management. Such a change would, however, tend to transfer the seat of corruption from the civil to the military service.
Army officers, acting as Indian Superintendents, would hardly be able to resist the advances of corrupt contractors, and the only way to purify the Indian management is to abolish the whole contract system. If the Commissary and Quartermaster Departments were charged with the furnishing of blankets, clothing and provisions to the Indian tribes, the chief source of irregularity would at once be removed. Until that is done, all efforts to reform the Indian business will prove abortive.

LOVES INQUIRY.
Do you remember, dear my love,
The morning when we first met,
When brighter than the stars above
Your eyes shone through their dewy raim,
And in the very glow of youth,
And held me, that I could not move?
Too fond to grieve, too sad to smile,
I yielded to their silent power,
And was it but a breathing while,
That I was through a peal of sound,
Lost in your face, an upturned flower,
Whose sweetness did my soul beguile?
And then I said, "Farewell, my love,
The hour has come, and we must part,
But through your long years we will meet,
And I will give you one dear night,
Lost in a dream, an upturned flower,
Down to the perfect joy of this."
—Kate Hillard, in Lippincott's Magazine.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.
The feminine assistants in the Harvard grammar schools have salaries of $800 per year.
The next term of the Peru Normal School begins September 30, 1884.
There were over 1,500 graduating pupils from the various high and grammar schools in Boston this year.
At Oberlin College the feminine students reach a high standing in the classes as do the young men, and endure hard study without loss of health.
Detroit is one of the cities in which feminine teachers in public schools receive smaller salaries than masculine teachers in the same grade and with no greater instructional capacity.
The Governor of Georgia has appointed a committee to form a plan for uniting the colleges of the State into one central university. It is feared, however, that the plan will fail, by reason of denominational influence.
The illiterate whites are four times more numerous in proportion to the population in the South than in the North. This is the estimate of the Detroit Tribune, which says, in connection with this fact, that in Alabama, for instance, with a white population of 521,384, there are 92,000 who over ten years old who cannot write.
The editor of the Macon Telegraph reports that the students in the colored university at Atlanta have proved that the negro can learn and even become proficient in the usual branches embraced in the usual curriculum of colleges, which is an unusual concession for a Southern school. The students in every pupil in this institution amounts to the aggregate to but seven hundred dollars per month.
The Baltimore Gazette suggests to college students that, instead of making literary excursions to make Commencement speeches next June, on the ground that most of the political Commencement orators are not superior to a second-rate editor in a fraternal newspaper, and are composed of such platitudes and stale wit that it would be a bore to their readers with them as articles.
The Hon. H. A. M. Henderson, of Kentucky, has been elected to the meeting, at Put-in-Bay.
The prime effort of modern feminine education consists in the ignoring of the great domestic arts of housekeeping and sewing, and his incidental duties constitute a great business. The woman who conducted it well, deserved as much credit as any man who succeeds in the mechanical arts, in trade, or in the learned professions.
At the adjudication of prizes at University College, London, the first prize in jurisprudence was awarded to a young lady who two years ago, at the same college, achieved a like success in political economy. The second place in the same class was attained by another young lady. Another obtained honors in political economy, and prizes were gained by three, and certificates by several, in the fine arts class.
The editor of the Chicago Teacher, a liberal Catholic, writes as follows: "The great body of Catholic pupils in this country are not enemies of the public schools. They furnish to the schools their full share of material support, and a proportion to share of children. The first need of a school is the building; and when school directors desire good attendance in behalf of the erection of a new school-house, they have only to enumerate the children of school age in a Catholic district. Moreover, the Catholic advocate of public school education is more zealous than any other, and more zealous for he knows the strength of the system, and the weak spots in the army of its priestly opponents. The results of the Catholic press and clergy upon our schools are a mere formality."
A correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean has been comparing the average salaries paid to teachers in various cities and States, with those of the army, the postoffice, and the Grangers' offices. He says: "In cities the highest average salaries paid were in New York, the average being $1,084, and the lowest in Bangor, Maine, $355. The postmaster salaries in nearly all the leading cities average over $200 more than those paid to the Superintendents of schools. The Secretary of the National Grange receives $5,500 per annum; the Treasurer $1,000; the lecturer $1,000. For the lowest salary paid to male clerks in Government employ is $1,200 per annum. Congressmen receive $9,000 for about six months' work. The average teachers' salaries paid by States are very low, as shown by the following table compiled from official sources:

RELIGIOUS.
This is said to be ministers' leap year. August, their vacation month, has five Sundays.
The Chicago Episcopians are talking about starting a camp-meeting.
The Protestants appear to be making headway in Mexico. Five years ago they had less than six churches there, and they now have 98.
Mrs. Van Cott is arithmetical. She lets her account book know what her revival meeting does. She claims to have "converted 1,735 souls."—Liberal Christian.
The starvation incomes of German clergymen are having the effect of diminishing the number of students of divinity in German universities.
It is said that Herr Herzog, the Old Catholic priest of Olen, will probably be the first of his denomination to be consecrated in the Old Catholic Church of Switzerland.
By the action of the late Jewish Convention at Cleveland Ohio, a Hebrew theological seminary is to become an accomplished fact in Cincinnati. Any Jewish Israelites will not then have to look to Europe for their rabbis.
Young Presbyterianism is to have a convention at Saratoga, in August, to devise ways and means to do good. They desire a meeting from the details of organization, systems and regulations, and invite all who desire to be ministered to, to rather than be served.
The union of the Unitarians and Universalists in all practical work has been consummated in Wisconsin, and henceforth the forces move forward in one body. The recent Convention of Universalists adopted a resolution inviting co-operation with the Unitarians, and a genial fellowship exists.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.
A Republican State Convention will be held at the city of Lincoln on Wednesday, the 21st day of September, 1884, at 10 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of having in nomination candidates for Congress, one candidate for member of Congress, one candidate for Governor, one candidate for State Treasurer, one candidate for Public Instruction, State Prison Inspector, and Attorney General, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it. The delegates from each Judicial District will nominate a person for District Attorney, for their respective Districts.
The following names are entitled to delegates upon the following basis:
Counties east of the sixth Principal Meridian shall be entitled to one delegate for each 1,000 inhabitants, according to the census taken during the year 1880. But each organized county shall be entitled to at least one delegate. Organized counties west of the 6th P. M. shall be entitled to one delegate each, and one additional delegate for each one thousand inhabitants, according to the census aforesaid, and one for each fraction over five hundred, as follows:

WHAT became of the $1,000 which P. O'Haves forwarded to Postmaster Yost during the campaign of 1872?
CANADA has just discovered another Credit Mobilier ring, which has its chiefs in the very Cabinet of the Governor General.
DOWN in Kansas it only takes an hour to convict a man who borrows a horse and forgets to return him, but it takes more than a year to convict a man who buys a legislature.
VICKSBURG is not ready to surrender yet. At least there is a very good prospect of a bloody battle between the factions who are seeking to obtain political control of that burg.
THE French assembly has at last agreed to a recess for a period of three months. This will afford the members an opportunity to consult with their constituency who we imagine will rejoice in seeing them back home.
DEMOCRATIC rule does not seem to have a tendency to decrease crime in Ohio. There are at present 1,033 convicts in the Ohio Penitentiary, a greater number than has been there since 1860, when there was 1,099 on the roll.
JOEL T. GRIFFIN was forced to resign his position as postmaster for the trifling offense of transporting corn and potatoes in U. S. mail sacks. And now his successor, who is publicly convicted of corrupt practices and disreputable frauds, expects Senator Hitchcock and other personal friends to save him from ignominious dismissal.
BACK pay Congressmen are having a lively time in Indiana. According to the St. Louis Globe Congressman Tynes who at one time had a splendid prospect for representing his district as long as he felt disposed, was beaten for re-nomination a few days ago. It will be found that the popular memory on this subject is quite lively. Even the Beecher scandal will not serve to eclipse it.

THE Arkansas Constitutional Convention, now in session at Little Rock, seems disposed to lop off all superfluous and ornamental state officials. On Thursday an article was introduced abolishing the offices of Lieutenant Governor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Superintendent of Public Works, Commissioners of Immigration and State Lands, and Superintendent of the Penitentiary, the Pulaski Chancery Court, Phillip's Criminal Court, and the four Associate Justices of the Supreme Court. If that article is adopted, the tax-payers of Arkansas will experience material relief.
NEBRASKA'S late unwelcome visitors, the nimble and voracious grasshoppers, have safely landed in Kansas. The Kansas City papers have intelligence from Western and Southwestern Kansas of the advent of the first army of grasshopper invasion, and the cry of distress from that region is very agonizing.
August and September Elections.
Quiet as everything seems in the political arena here, the time is at hand when the "opening guns" are to be heard from several Southern and Eastern States. Kentucky has a State election on Monday next, August 3, for the choice of a clerk of the Supreme Court. Only one candidate has been formally put in nomination—Thos. C. Jones, Democrat. He was a captain in the Confederate army, and is said to be ineligible under the Kentucky laws, having accepted a challenge under the solo-ducto. There are other county officers to be chosen. The election of Congressmen will not come off until November.
Tennessee is to elect county officers on Thursday next, August 6, Governor and Legislature are to be chosen in November.
The first really significant election occurs in North Carolina, when a Superintendent of Public Instruction is to be chosen, six of the twelve Circuit Judges, and eight members of Congress. The North Carolina election, therefore means business. It is the beginning of the battle between the Republicans and the Democrats for the control of the next Congress, and from this point onward the conflict will be sharply maintained until each of the thirty-seven States has borne its part in the contest. From North Carolina the Republicans expect no gain. They will be fortunate if they hold their own. In the present delegation there are three Republicans—from the first, second and fourth districts—and five Democrats. Mr. Cobb, in the first district, is the only Republican renominated. Messrs. Waddill, Ashe, Robbin, and Vance, in the second district, are members of the present House. The Republican candidate in the second district is a colored man, and no Democratic candidate has been named to oppose him. He has, however, two well-named colored competitors. In the sixth district, E. Constantine is a Granger candidate. In the eighth district, Mr. Durham is an Independent candidate, supported by the Republicans. The State and Congressional tickets are as follows:
REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
Thomas E. Farell. Stephen D. Pool.
FOR MEMBER OF CONGRESS.
1. Clinton L. Cobb. Jesse J. Yates.
2. John A. Hyman. Alfred M. Woodell.
3. James H. Haden. Joseph J. Davis.
4. Wm. F. Hendon. Thos. S. Ashe.
5. C. L. Cook. Thos. S. Ashe.
6. Peto Durham. Robert B. Vance.
VERMONT will lead off in September, electing State officers, Legislators, and members of Congress, on Tuesday, September 1. Maine will follow on Monday September 14, also electing State officers, Legislators, and members of Congress.
