THE INDEPENDENT MOVE-MENT.

A Grand Fizzle!

A convention of "what-is-its' was held at the Court House Saturdayatternoon to elect delegates to a State Convention for the purpose of organizing a third or Independent

There were about fifteen persons present, including the reporters of the morning papers. Among the "notables" were Harrison Johnson, and Allen Root. The laboring men and mechanics were conspicuous for their absence, and the Republicans were represented by only two members of that party. Mr. Root was elected president and -Cutter secretary.

Mr. Root made an eloquent speech against the grinding monopolies and truusted that this convention was but the index of the ground swel.. His remarks were enthusiastically cheered by the mob with a marked silence.

A number of long-winded resolutions, ready made for the occasion, were read and adopted. On account of the transparent thinness of the congregation, no delegates were elected to the State Convention. The meeting adjourned till next Saturday, in order to give time to drum up recruits.

WERE THEY MARRIED?

How a Hotel Runner Put up a Job on an Verdant Iowa Couple.

A practical joke was played by a Ninth street hotel runner upon a verdant Iowa couple, who recently came over the river to be married in Omaha. The runner first noticed the loving pair on the transfer train, and learning from their actions and from some remarks which he overheard, he concluded they were on matrimony bent. He accordingly determined to catch them for his hotel, and have the marriage cerenony performed there. He introduced himself, and asked them if they were going to stop in Omaha, and upon their answering that they were, he advised them to "putup" at thehouse he represented, which he could recommend very highly, as he boarded there himself. "Well," said the young man,"we want to get married, and if we can | Let us try once any way. get a preacher to do the job there we'll stop at that house." "Oh, that's easy enough done. am well acquainted with a min ister, whom I'll go and see abou

the matter." That settled it. They went to th house, had a square meal, and too a stroll and a street car ride aroun the city. They returned for supper and about seven o'clock, they sen for the friend-the runner-who they had met on the train, and aske him if he had procured the mini ter, No, he hadn't; but would d riage license for them, and that the must furnish him with their ful names, ages, place of residence parents' names, etc., and a five do lar bill to pay for the necessary do ument. The anxious couple con plied with the demand, little sus pecting the swindling joke that wa being played upon them.

The runner then goes out and ol taining a blank marriage certificat and a license, fills out the latte and in a short time returns with "bummer pal" of his, who had fo merly been a justice of the peac He had been informed of the ro he was to play, and had according ly donned a seedy black suit and white cravat for the occasion. H was ushered into the presence of th matrimonial candidates in the pa lor by the runner, who introduce "minister" as the Rev. M

Smith The marriage ceremony was pe formed by the "minister" in the presence of several witnesses, all of whom were cognizant of the joke. After the couple were thus made one, the minister took the accustomed liberty of kissing the bride, and adding a blessing upon the newly married pair of long life and happiness. The minister then withdrew, after being rewarded with a ten dollar greenback.

The runner and his "pal" met afterwards and divided the spoils, eack taking $7,50.

ulation then, and as it now is. The committee went off half-cocked, as it always did, and I claim did not duly consider the matter of representation. You know, yourself, that is the case, and that I strenuously opposed an adjournment till a fair and equitable apportionment could be had. As it is, Kearney, Greeley, and Dundy counties are left out entirely; and the representation in several instances is unjust. But the party owes this state of affairs to the same unscrupulous gang who have controlled it so long, and, although it cannot now be helped, yet, if the counties will elect men as delegates with stamina enough to stand up and fight the thing out, MONEY TO LOAN-At Dr. Isaac Edwards, jy28d6te we can bust them in convention.
