EDITOR BEE:

Nine o'clock this morning was the hour set for the assembling of the Temperance Convention at the Opera House. At that hour we were on hand, but the temperance people were not.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

That was to be their war-cry, by Elder Dungan. They were in substance as follows: That neither party is competent to benefit the temperance cause, because of defective organization; that as conscientious men we can no longer support either party; and that we favor local option only when it means local prohibition.

A World's Fair on Wheels!

Nothing Like It! Ever Seen in Nebraska! COMPRISING UNDER A CITY OF TENTS! A Grand Menagerie of 500 Living Animals; a Museum of Rare Wonders; an Aquarium of Deep-Sea Amphibia, and the BEST CIRCUS TROUPE.

On the American Continent, comprising Fifty Great Performers, appearing in Two Separate and Distinct Rings, the Largest Show ever in Omaha; that is the Only Show that will visit this Section during the year.

MILLE DE GRANVILLE—The Lady with the Jaws of Iron, who will appear in her wonderful feats of strength, acrobatic lifting with water.

Remember that the Great International is the Largest Show ever in Omaha; that it is the Only Show that will visit this Section during the year.

HAVING A MENAGERIE, A COMPLETE MUSEUM, A BEAUTIFUL AQUARIUM, And a circus troupe of such numerical strength as to require

TWO SEPARATE AND DISTINCT RINGS.

In order to introduce all the Great Artists at one exhibition. Don't compare or confound "The International" with any of the Piggies shows advertised in this locality, for it is as high above such as the Eagle does above the hawk. It is an Institution of Wealth and Worth, traveling exclusively by its own conveyances, requiring to transport it over Seventy Wagons, Cages, Vans, Chariots and Carriages drawn by nearly 400 Horses, and employing in its various departments, 300 Men, Women and Children.

You have never looked upon its like before, so await the advent of the great unapproachable International, and save your money for something worth seeing.

TWO MILES OF GLITTER AND NOVELTY!

May be seen in the Grand Free Street, early on the morning of Exhibition, including Living Lions, Tigers, and Leopards, large in the streets: Elephants and Camels; Knights and Ladies on horseback; Revue of Circus and Pantomime; a Large Live of Magnificent Animals from the Golden Car of Erichthonius!

CONTAINING CHS. KAUFFMAN'S Centennial Band
