HEDICK'S OPERA HOUSE.

Senator Hitchcock has come back to wrestle with the postal agency and the applicants for the postmaster-ship.

BILLY LUMB and Councilman Lucas represented the mechanical toilers of Omaha in the Independent Mass Convention.

By the aid of the Omaha Herald, the immortal sixteen Independents were able to muster twenty votes in that Mass Convention.

Doctor Johnson's native modesty prevented his acceptance of a nomination to represent Douglas county at the Independent State Convention.

ALLEN ROOT's discourse on the rock rooted principles of the Koop movement was received with much enthusiasm by the twenty irresponsibles who met in solemn convocation at the court-house to-day.

SENATOR HARLAN, sitting from North Platte in his paper, the Washington Chronicle, is very severe in his condemnation of the Omaha Herald transfer.

If the parties in interest do not soon bring this disgraceful annoyance to travelers and freighters to an end they will presently be compelled to suffer vast pecuniary losses.

Mr. Sage, chairman of the Beecher investigating committee, and other members of the committee state authoritatively that all rumors of compromise which circulated yesterday are absurd.

The London Economist of July 25th, has a paper on the harvest of 1874, and its probable consequences.

The Golden Age, commenting on the Beecher scandal, says: "Tilton has at last found what has been evident to the public from the beginning."

At the Dallas County Republican Convention, held at Dallas, Texas, a full-blooded negro, aged twenty-two years, was nominated for circuit clerk.

The new Free Press of this city reports that the Duke de Cazet, French minister of foreign affairs, has complained to the British government that Germany is seeking a quarrel with France.
