A chapter from Joel will be read before the Omaha postal corruption investigating committee, in a day or two.

JONES, Omaha's aboriginal postmaster, cannot comprehend why his silver-plated successor is not permitted to vindicate himself through his own paper.

The Councilman from the Fifth will rise and explain at Pattee's academy of fun how he came to vote with Doctor Johnson at the Koop Independent meeting Saturday.

It is now conceded by the most scientific naturalists, that an Omaha nose, artistically colored and preserved in its own alcohol, is well worth a place in any cabinet of natural curiosities.

According to the St. Louis Democrat the tooth-paste man, who was lately arrested in St. Louis and taken to Keokuk, is wanted in Omaha, and lots of other places. He will be well pasted when they are all through with him. His tooth paste dodge was tooth in.

LYNCHBURG, Va., August 11. Information of a bold jail breaking at Pottsylvania Court House in this State, has just been received here. The following are the particulars:

Yesterday at noon, while the jailer was carrying to the prisoners confined in the jail, their dinners, four of them, headed by the murderer, Joe Clark, made a desperate assault upon him, seizing and choking him.

In the struggle the jailer was thrown over the banisters, and down the stairway, bruising him considerably although not dangerously. The prisoners then succeeded in forcing open the back door, making good their escape. Immediate pursuit was given. William Smith, charged with forgery, who had escaped, was recaptured. Clark and others are still at large.

WASHINGTON, August 11. It is stated on the authority of a prominent postal official that the contractors for furnishing postal cards have never yet furnished a card equal in the quality of the paper to the requirements of the department. The department takes no means to enforce compliance with the contract, which is for four years with three to run; to allow the present contractors to furnish inferior cards is regarded as an injustice to other companies who bid for the contract.
