REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the city of Lincoln on Wednesday, the 21st day of September, 1872...

DELEGATES FOR COUNTIES.

Table listing delegates for various counties including Adams, Antelope, Boone, Butler, Cass, etc.

The counties are recommended to elect alternate delegates to act in case the delegates elected fail to attend the convention...

FROM present indications Judge Custer will be renominated by the Republicans of Nebraska by acclamation.

THIRTY scouts, commanded by Buffalo Bill, are to form a part of Col. M.H.'s expedition through the Sweetwater country.

GENERAL CUSTER has at last been heard from, and the reported battle with the Indians is flatly contradicted.

ACCORDING to the Beatrice Express the reported exodus of homesteaders from the grasshopper-ridden district in southwestern Nebraska is without foundation.

THE Lincoln Journal publishes the replies to the grasshopper circular of Governor Furnas. Twenty-five counties have already been heard from...

OLD Probabilities, Gen. Myers, of the Signal Bureau, has perfected arrangements with the different European meteorologists for a grand international system of reports.

IN referring to the appointment of Messrs. Parcel and Mount to the railway postal service, we inadvertently assumed that these appointments were upon recommendations of the Trades' Assembly.

IT is feared that Moonlight and some of his men have been killed by the Indians.

IS IT JUST?

Is it just to the Senator who has labored so faithfully for Omaha against the combined delegation from Iowa to be published as in sympathy with those stigmatized as public thieves...

As a rule we are not in the habit of noticing the assaults of parties who choose to do their fighting from behind the bush.

It is just, Mr. Democrat, that a Senator who has drawn about $30,000 and incidentals from the public purse for four years' service...

It is just that a well paid public servant should defy public opinion and public decency, by causing the removal of honest clerks for exposing a corrupt and dishonest postmaster?

It is a pleasure for one, who has confidence in the ability and faithfulness of Judge Crouse, to notice the favorable comments upon his conduct as a public servant...

It is decidedly unjust that he should expect immunity from criticism for his public acts. He cannot be considered a privileged character in this respect any more than President Grant, or Governor Furnas.

What does Democrat think of the Senator's declaration that he would stand by his Omaha postmaster no matter how corrupt his official conduct might be proved?

REFERRING to the results of Custer's Black Hills expedition the New York Tribune remarks: "Some light is thrown on the character of Northern Pacific railroad lands in Dakota by the letter of our correspondent with the Black Hills expedition."

It is a noticeable fact that the recent Democratic victories in the south have stimulated the war of races to an alarming extent.

THE KANSAS FRONTIER. More Depredations—Five Men Murdered—Colonel Moonlight Thought to be Killed—His Men Famished for Water.

The following rather startling news from the Indian country, we find in the Dodge City Messenger, received last night.

On Monday following, the Conductor found the fifth man who had been killed. The body was lying a little further west from where the others were found...

Two railroad bridges were set on fire last Monday, about forty miles west of this city, but only the one was seriously damaged...

IN referring to the appointment of Messrs. Parcel and Mount to the railway postal service, we inadvertently assumed that these appointments were upon recommendations of the Trades' Assembly.

IT is feared that Moonlight and some of his men have been killed by the Indians.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.

Frank Welch and Robert Furnas are now the most prominent candidates for the governorship.

It is said of A. S. Paddock, the Granger (?) candidate for United States Senator, that whilst thrashing his wheat he was unfortunate enough to get a piece of chaff in his eye.

An Independent State Convention is held at Lincoln on the 8th of September to nominate candidates for State officers.

The situation is critical. Party lines are losing shape, and the Republican party that needs to be reformed...
