Prices are very low in France and English wheat is still being reshipped from there.

LONG BRANCH, August 26. The races were well attended and the weather fine. The first three-quarter mile dash was won by Westminster; Quits second, time 1:17 1/2.

MEMPHIS, August 26. The Appeal's Humboldt special says the excitement in Bibson is subsiding and no further trouble is anticipated, though various rumors are flying through the country. A negro named Ben Ballard has confessed complicity in a plot to assassinate a number of whites, which creates great excitement.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26. At Shasta to-day, John E. Baker, aged twenty-six, and Charles Roach, aged eighteen, were hanged, the former for the murder of Geo. Kline, mail rider, in December last, and the latter for the murder of Mrs. Rader in January. On the scaffold Roach said he had no statement to make. Baker said that he had repented of all his sins and hoped for forgiveness. Each exhibited great firmness, and neither made any confession.

NASHVILLE, August 26. The negroes at Pickettsville, Gibson county, six miles from Humboldt, last Saturday and Sunday, threatened to riot on account of some supposed wrong done them, and manifested a strong desire to kill two or three citizens and fire and sack the town. Yesterday six men were arrested and taken up to Trenton and placed in jail for safe-keeping. About one o'clock this morning between 75 and 100 masked men entered the town, rode up to the jail and compelled the sheriff to deliver up the key. They took twenty negroes from the jail. Four were killed and two mortally wounded at the edge of town. They then rode off with the other ten and are supposed to have killed them. Nothing has been heard from them since they left. There is great excitement among the negroes there.

TOPEKA, August 26. The Republican State Convention met here to-day and effected a permanent organization. The committee on resolutions reported a platform which was adopted. After a lengthy preamble, reciting the record of the Republican party to the present time, it reaffirms the policy of the party as stated in the conventions of 1868 and 1872.

In relation to finance, it favors the election of officers who will make free national banking laws based on specie resumption at such a time as consistent with the industrial interests of the country. Refers to public service generally; reduction of the public debt in a way not to burden the country's industries and a careful system of taxation so tending to reduce the public debt and to reduce the expenditures; compends investigations into official corruption, and demands railroad corporations to be subjected to the same corporate regulations as to legislation that shall forbid extortion and secure cheap transportation.

He favors the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the control of the War Department, commands the repeal of the back-pay law, and favors the amendments to the constitution prohibiting Congress setting its own compensation; protests against the third term for the United States; disapproves further grants of public lands to railroad and other corporations. At the session which was held in the evening, Governor Thomas A. Osborn was nominated on the 2d ballot. The convention is still in session and will not conclude its labors till to-morrow.

LANSING, August 26. The Republican State Convention here to-day was well attended. The following are the nominations: For Governor, W. J. Bogley; Lieutenant Governor, H. H. Hoyt; Secretary of State, Ely D. Holden; Grand Rapids, State Treasurer, W. B. McFall; Auditor General, Ralph Ely; of Grant county; Commissioner of State Land Office, L. A. Clapp; re-nominated; Superintendent of Public Instruction, D. B. Briggs, re-nominated.

The preamble and resolutions adopted set forth that in view of the record of the Republican party which invites scrutiny, which has been faithful to the interests of the government from the first, which has legislated wisely and successfully and brought the credit of the government to a high standard, there seems no reason for surrendering the reins of power to a party whose last public service was to drag the country into civil war, to disgrace the financial credit and leave the government on the brink of dissolution. Fully appreciating the financial difficulties through which the country has passed, they regard the differences of opinion in their constituencies as inevitable, but they endorse as wise and timely the measure finally agreed upon by Congress, believe in conflicting and opposing theories; while recognizing in greenbacks and national bank notes a circulating medium superior to any paper currency existing in the United States, they demand that to all financial legislation Congress keep in view specie payment, to the end, that at the earliest practicable day the government promises to pay may be restored to coin; they believe banking under a well guarded national system should be free; they denounce repudiation in every form or degree; the claims of the colored people of the south should not be forgotten; they should have the elective franchise as their reward during the civil war, and as a means of freedom to themselves, and the national government cannot shrink from giving them this without incurring the execrations of all mankind; they appeal to the government to protect these people in their human and political rights, and their persons and property.

A minority resolution that a return to a gold basis should be speedily made is laid down in President Grant's veto message on the currency bill, was received.

JERSEY CITY, August 26. The case of Rev. John St. Glendinning continues to excite public interest. An affidavit has been made by the late Miss Pomroy's aunt to the effect that Glendinning called, before Miss Tomero's illness, at Clinton Place Infant Asylum to make arrangements for the reception of a lady there, and the matron had told her that Glendinning was the man. This is considered strong evidence against him.

WASHINGTON, August 26. The Chinese government some time ago notified the United States that an American naval officer was engaged with the Japan government against Formosa, which was considered an offense against China. In order to remove the cause of complaint the Navy Department has revoked the leave of absence heretofore granted to Lieut. Commander Cassin and he will therefore withdraw from the expedition, in which he was only a volunteer.

PITTSBURGH, August 26. The Democratic State Convention which meets here to-day are the small wire-workers who are working for Trunkley of Mercer county, and Ross of Bucks county. It is rumored that the Republican politicians are manifesting great anxiety regarding the judgeship, and are endeavoring to get some party body but a Philadelphia man taken up. The Philadelphia delegation, which is not harmonious, will hold a caucus this evening; they are arriving on every train and a large number are already here. Some of the most influential Democrats of the State are here, and great interest will be manifested in the proceedings of the Convention. It is thought that the action of the Convention will be harmonious. The main concern will be for supreme judge; prominent men were either Ludlow, or Dallas of Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, August 26. Yesterday morning Signor Pentadanto and Richard Smith made a balloon ascension from the island of the North Pacific, near the island of Cook and Wm. B. Ogden, as trustees, were used by one of the holders of its 7-30 mortgage bonds, to compel the road to enter on their part of the ground for the benefit of the bondholders. The plaintiff asks that they be restrained from issuing any more of such bonds, they having promised in 1873 to do so. The plaintiff claims that these new bonds are not a lien on the property; and finally he calls for the removal of Cooke and Ogden from the road. The case was made to-day on behalf of the defendants to remove the cause to the United States Circuit Court, on a bond of $5,000 being offered by Mr. Cass, president of the road. It was opposed by plaintiff's counsel, on the ground that this was not a suit against the road or Mr. Cass, and there ought to be no sureties. The case will be argued to-morrow and must go to the United States Circuit Court.

SAIT LAKE, Aug. 26. The answer of Brigham Young to the complaint of the State of Utah, filed this evening, in substance is as follows: The defendant, Brigham Young, denies that on the 6th day of April, 1868, or at any other time, he was married to the plaintiff, or since that time said plaintiff has been, or is now the wife of defendant, alleging that plaintiff is the wife of one Walker, who has never been divorced from; and further alleging that he, the defendant, on the 10th day of January, 1854, in the State of Ohio, was married to one Mary Ann, who is now living, and has ever since been, and is now his lawful wife. But defendant says that he and said complainant, even in April, 1868, was members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints—and that it was a doctrine and belief of said church that members thereof might rightfully enter into a civil marriage, and defendant admits that on the 6th day of April, 1868, at Salt Lake City, in accordance with the doctrine and custom of said church a ceremony was performed on the part of himself and defendant in what is known as plural or celestial marriage, and that plaintiff then well knew that said first wife of the defendant was living and undivorced, but the defendant denies that he and plaintiff were married in any other manner than so set forth. The defendant further alleges that the plaintiff at the time of said plural marriage was informed, and she well knew, that by reason of said marriage in the manner described, she could not have any need nor to expect the society of the defendant in the ordinary relation between husband and wife. The defendant denies all charges of neglect, unkindness, cruelty, or that he ever gave any cause for fear of bodily harm; but declares, on the contrary, that he provided her with ample means, and has visited her at different times, and has been frequently as defendant's duty would admit. The defendant also declares that during the last four years he was informed, or aware, of the plaintiff's marriage with one John James, and still has a very large family, now consisting of sixty-three persons, all of whom are dependent upon him for support. The entire answer occupies fourteen pages of printed matter, and is signed by Williams, Young, Sneeks, Hempstead and Kirkpatrick, attorneys for defendant, and sworn to by Brigham Young, Joseph E. Niman, clerk of the third district court.

The answer altogether is an entire repudiation by Brigham Young of Ann Eliza as his wife, and of the laws of the country. Mrs. Ann Eliza Young says she will urge her divorce suit against Brigham to the bitter end, and should she fail in her suit, she will prosecute Brigham for bigamy. She has the papers of divorce from Dee, which were secured through the instrumentality of Young himself, and George Q. Cannon.

The command of the garrison at Camp Douglas will be turned over to Col. Smith on Thursday next. A grand banquet of the leading citizens will be given to General Morley, the retiring commander, Friday evening.
