ALADDIN recovered his wonderful lamp and became a prince, through a ring, and now some of our politicians propose to get up a ring with which to make a Governor.

It would be well for the miners who are preparing at Sioux City for a trip to the Black Hills to secure immeasurable quantities of gold, to look out that they are not Sioux-ed for damages.

ONE of the best illustrations of the inflation theories will be found on the second page, in our extracts from Harper's Weekly, and we advise every one to read it, as it is short, humorous, but still to the point, and an actual deduction from practical experience.

It is rumored that a number of politicians have gone to Lincoln from this city for the purpose of influencing the delegates in their choice of District Attorney, against Mr. W. J. Connell. While we do not wish to be understood as advocating any particular candidate, we will say in justice to the present incumbent, that the animus exhibited against him by these parties emanates from their indignation for knowingly violating the criminal law.

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 2. Jacob Dengle and Adam Eckman quarreled about a girl, of whom both were married, at the German picnic at Pleasant Park on Monday night. Dengle and Eckman fought to the edge of a precipice, when Dengle hurled Eckman over the bluff down a height of one hundred and fifty feet. Eckman is dying. Dengle was arrested.

He is lively and in good result and the backers of time offer to bet $100 to $500 that he will fail.

NEW YORK, September 2. A Times' special from Columbus, Ohio, says that the plan of the State government taking action to provide competing railroad lines that will cheapen the transport of the United States, will insist on the strictest economy in the disbursement of public revenue; will ask that the revenue be derived from taxes on tobacco, spirits and beer and imported goods, and demand their rigid enforcement; will declare in favor of paying the national debt in coin; will favor the resumption of specie payment and also will favor the free national banking system.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2. Dr. Hinderman, Superintendent of the mints, leaves here in about six weeks on his yearly visit to the different mints in the United States. The statement published some time since that the special agent of the internal revenue department had searched out a large number of frauds in San Francisco, turns out to be untrue. The special agent only found a few slight irregularities among small dealers in tobacco, and consisting of failures to keep their books posted.

The Attorney-General left here tonight for Long Beach to consult with the President on several important questions, among others, the alleged outrages in the South. If the President concludes to take immediate action in the matter, general will return to Washington at once, in order to carry out the orders of the President. Should the President conclude to delay action, the Attorney-General will take occasion to visit his parents, in the State of New York, to be absent four or five days. The Secretary of the Interior has ordered a large number of all the circumstances connected with the alleged attempt of Indian Agent Roberts to extort blackmail for the release of a party of his friends, and the agent has sent a general denial of all charges made against him.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2. The following dispatches were received by the attorney general to-day: To Hon. George H. Williams, Attorney General: I telegraphed you last night regarding the Concha affair. It is worse even than at first reported. The six white men killed were all of good character—planners and business men; but five of them were northern Republicans. (Signed) W. P. KELLOGG, Governor.

The following is the dispatch referred to above, as having been sent to the president: NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31. Hon. George H. Williams, Attorney General, Washington: The statement telegraphed you last night regarding the outrage at Red River parish has been fully confirmed. Further information has been received that the parish officers and others who surrendered to the white league, were being taken to Shreveport by a number of white men; while en route there they were shot in cold blood. Among the murdered men were Helder J. Twitchell, who came south in a Vermont regiment during the war, and acted as a planter in Red River parish; Egbert, sheriff; Dewell, supervisor; Holland and Shewells lawyers. There were six white Republicans, all but two northern men, and several colored men, murdered in this affair. Red River is near the Texas line, and is among the strongest Republican parishes in the State. Bands of armed men are scouring several of the Republican parishes in that portion of the State, driving out Republicans and intimidating colored men. Registration commenced to-day, and an openly avowed policy of exterminating Republicans was inaugurated. (Signed) W. P. KELLOGG, Cincinnati.
