MIDNIGHT.

GENERAL VALENTINE says he could have been nominated as Secretary of State if his father had parted his name in the middle with a "z."

NOTWITHSTANDING the brilliant Omaha Bourbon pronounced the Republican platform as a meaningless medley the stupid editor of the Chicago Tribune declares that the Republican Convention in Nebraska adopted a currency resolution which, if it is correctly reported, is quite as respectable as any that has been seen in the light of the East.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6. Registration among the colored people has been reopened during the past week, and the colored leaders to-day command the course of Gov. Kellogg in his present determination that there shall be a fair registration and election.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 6. The Appeal's Trenton correspondent says: "Governor Brown has been re-elected, and the colored people are to be sent to justice parties who recently murdered negro prisoners. It is asserted that the ten negroes taken from the jail had escaped. Though no trace of their bodies have been found the report lacks confirmation.

BALTIMORE, September 6. On Saturday afternoon the great portion of the business section of the town of Frederick, Maryland was destroyed by fire. Engines were summoned from Cumberland, but the supply of water was so small that they could do but little to check the flames, which burned until they reached the outskirts of the town. Total loss, nearly $15,000.
