Washington, Sept. 8. Lieut. Col. Davidson's official report of his fights with the Indians of the Wachita Agencies has just reached army headquarters. The details are the same as have already been published. A letter from Pensacola says there are some yellow fever cases in town but none at the navy yard. At the quarantine grounds, three miles from Pensacola, the physicians and several hands aboard the vessel died of the fever.

CAMP ON RED RIVER, ) via FT. Dodge, Sept. 8. The command of General Miles met four or five hundred Cheyenne Indians twelve mites from Red River, Texas, the 30th of August. and after a sharp engagement last-ing five hours, drove them over 13 miles of high hills and almost impassible canons, with a loss of 25 to 30 killed and wounded. Our causalties, 3 badly wounded.

CHICAGO, September 8. General Sheridan received a dispatch from General Pope, commanding the department of the Missouri, to-night, with a report that Colonel Miles from camp on Red River, August 31, via Fort Dodge, of the 8th, of a battle with about 500 confederated and hostile Indians the day before. Col. Miles' command been in pursuit of these Indians for ten days, over a territory rough and almost impassable; before they could be brought to a stand the route was strewn with their stores which they had thrown away to accommodate their flight. The travellers from designing sharpers and cappers.

to accommodate their night. The troops fought splendidly, and the victory was complete. Some thirty Indians were killed, and many more were wounded, while the casualities to the troops were only three badly wounded. Col. Miles was, at the date of the dispatch, 193 miles from their base of supplies, and their supplies would be exhausted about the 15th, but Gen. Pope had ordered a supply train sent, which will reach him before

> WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. Thus far the threatened collision between the Mormons and the Gentiles of Toole county has been prevented, mainly through the instrumentality of United States officials. Yesterday afternoon the Tribune had received the following telegram from its regular correspondent at Toole City: United States Marshal Maxwell made a demand on a Mormon Bishop, Judge Rowberry, this morning, to vacate his office and turn it over to Judge Brown, but the Bishop refused, and the defunct County Court met and transacted some business and adjourned to meet Monday next. The buildings on each side of the Court House were filled with armed Mormons, with shot guns and pistols, and in the rear of the Court House armed men were also secreted. Everything, however, is now quiet, and Marshal

Maxwell is proceeding eautiously. Washington, Sept. 8. Senator Robertson, of South Carolina, differs with Patterson regarding the southern troubles. He considers them as insignificant, and says that they should be left to those engaged in them and not be brought before the public. The negroes are given to credulity and exaggeration, and on first representation believe that Ku Kluxers and White Leaguers are flooding the country.

Robertson is a radical Republican, and favors the civil rights bill. John O. Shackford, of Nashville, in a letter to the attorney general, draws a terrible picture of the political situation in that State. Many letters are received by the attorney general from parties in the south, of whom he never heard before, giving fearful accounts of affairs.
