

THE OMAHA BEE

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Whereas, The Republican party, by its course for the past three years...

Whereas, It is a well known fact that the country may not suffer injury...

That we believe that banking under a well-guarded national system...

That we favor the re-appointment of State representatives...

THE LOUISIANA REBELLION.

The political troubles which, during two years past have converted Louisiana into a second Cuba...

The seizure of these arms was made a pretext for an incendiary proclamation...

In a few hours fifty men fell victims to these murderous conspirators...

Is not this bloody outbreak a striking evidence of the slumbering spirit of disloyalty...

Does this not prove conclusively that the mission of the Republican party is not yet finished?

Does not this deplorable spectacle in the barricaded streets of New Orleans furnish conclusive proof...

Whatever Governor Kellogg's failings may be, he certainly was fully justified in protecting the people of New Orleans...

MAINE. Maine has spoken once more through the ballot box...

THE SOUTH CAROLINA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION, after ten days of a protracted and acrimonious struggle...

THE report of Mr. Whitman, on the feasibility and probable expenses of a reliable system of water works for Omaha is published elsewhere...

THE returns from Maine have caused a sudden decline in Democratic stocks.

HAS the Omaha Herald heard from Jimmy Blaine, all the way from Maine? Jimmy goes back to Congress re-endorsed by a respectable majority of over three thousand.

AS usual, the Herald proclaims the candidates of the Democracy as the best sort of men ever nominated on any ticket.

PEOPLE who take a deep interest in the reminiscences of the rebellion will doubtless be gratified to learn that the female beggary worn by Jeff Davis...

The County School Superintendent.

SARATOGA PRECINCT, Sept. 15.

EDITOR BEE: We write in reference to a matter which is now occupying a great deal of the attention of the teachers outside of the city and in the country...

The fall dresses are to be made a little shorter in front.

Plain and elegant will be the rule for winter suits.

Heavy ribbed black silks will be very fashionable next winter.

House dresses of silk are to be in scallops or in battlements...

Beautiful suits of black velvet are imported for the winter.

Long shawls of black cashmere, trimmed with lace and rows of beads down the back...

Waisis of evening dresses are to be trimmed with insertions of lace...

THE white tulle veil mania rages among the ladies at Long Branch, particularly among those who ride when the evening trains arrive.

A Yaukee poet thus breaks forth: "Oh! the snore, the beautiful snore, fill the chamber from ceiling to floor!"
