WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR. Agricultural, Horticultural and Industrial Exposition, Blair, Neb., Sept. 17.

EDITORIAL: The attendance at the annual fair at this place was very good, but some departments were lightly represented.

There were two samples of corn on the stalk, each measuring respectively eleven and twelve feet.

Display of water melons small, but very good, three of our variety were not very large.

Display of apples was unusually good, large, and of choice varieties, and varied in size.

Display of house plants by Mrs. M. Ballard was good, and very nicely arranged.

Display of butter was limited but good. Also photographs, but few, which represented good skill for the artist.

Display of jewelry, toys and fancy articles, by J. H. Post, only one set of furniture, sofa and chairs, of gray half cloth.

Display of cattle was very good, but could have been better in the County, if properly represented.

Display of draft horses, no fast stock on the ground; some good driving teams.
