Modoc Jim became very ferocious during the closing partomimescene at Pattee's opera house, and finally declared that neither the President or any other councilman could make a squatter of him.

COLONEL NOTEWARE positively denies the soft impeachment. He says he never inspected the contents of Mrs. Webber's bustle. This leaves the entire responsibility with Tennant.

THE guardians of our penitentiary are altogether too clumsy in these days. Why did they not induce somebody to fire the Insane Asylum to illuminate Webber's path, and moreover, give him a decent chance to make his escape without creating vexatious suspicion?

VIEWED from the solid basis that underlies the Grange organization the practical effect of the movement upon the political dest'nies of Nebraska is by no means marked with anything that smacks of genuine grange reform. For instance, the cardinal doctrine of grangers is opposition to middlemen, lawyers, and professional politicians.

And yet the Saunders county Grangers have elected Perky, a lawyer, to the State Senate, while the Grangers of Nemaha have sent Church Howe, a professional politician, to represent them in the lower house of the legislature. These remarks are nothing disrespectful to either of these gentlemen. Both of them will doubtless make creditable public servants. But we merely desire to point a moral to this tale by showing the glaring inconsistency of Grange politics.

The committee on credentials reported all the districts represented except three. One hundred representatives are in attendance. The Grand officers presented their reports, which were referred to appropriate committees.

The Secretary's report sets forth that there are two hundred and sixty-five lodges in the State, with a membership of 13,430.

The Treasurer's report shows a balance in the hands of the Grand Lodge of $5,000. It was decided to decrease the Grand Lodge by appointing one representative to each one hundred and fifty members of

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. A telegram was received at the Post Office Department yesterday from the postmaster at Chicago, inquiring when the stamped envelopes ordered by him on the 1st instant will be delivered, and informing the department that the merchants of Chicago were impatient at the delay in filling the orders. office department to induce Congres at the next spssion to legislate for the relief of such postmasters as were entitled to a retroactive re-adjustment under section 81, act of June, 1872. The Secretary of the Treasury has just heard an argument made by Judge Sherman, Colonel Phillips and J. G. Wild, reviewing the de-cision made by Judge Frazer, of the cotton daims division of the Treasury Dapartment, as to the reconstruction of the works contrary to instructions in the act of May, 1872. The Secretary of the Treasury still holds his opinion in reserve, but his decision is watched with some interest, as it involves several millions of dollars in the settlement of a large number of cotton claims.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. At a special of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, resolutions were adopted and speeches made strongly favoring the proposed amendments to the State Constitution, increasing the power of the mayor, providing for a board of taxpayers to have absolute control over the levy and disbursements of taxes, proposing the sale of State canals, and prohibiting the State from

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 21. The capital movers got together again this evening, at the Galt House, when the removal of the capital was debated at length. Resolutions to Congress to consider the matter were adopted, after which the body adjourned, to meet on call of the Executive Committee. The Ku Klux sentenced by Judge Ballard yesterday were David Cox and Nat Henry Triplet. As stated the latter was prosecuting witness. CINCINNATI, Oct 21. A special dispatch to the Gazette from Fort Wayne, Indiana, says, considerable uneasiness exists there consequence of the unusual drought and heavy bush and prairie fires in that vicinity. At times the city is filled with almost blinding smoke and falling ashes, which after sundown settle down upon the city so densely as to render breathing and seeing difficult. Considerable damage is reported among farmers, but no authentic statements can be MEMPHIS, October 21. A letter just received from Fort Smith, Arkansas, says the United States Marshal had just arrived from the Creek nation, where he went to arrest a desperado named Redmouth. The party came upon him in a deep ravine, when he opened fire upon them, which the posse returned. The next morning the posse found a woman, one of Redmouth's wives, completely rid-dled with the bullets which they fired, the secundrel having put her in front as a breastwork. Red-mouth escaped.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21. An important meeting of the national executive committee of the Union League of America was held yesterday in this city. The meet-ing was fully attended. 000, and the total loss to the institution $40,000. The directors this morning offered a reward of $5,090 for the apprehension and conviction of the thieves. The bank will resume business at once. The loss the bank has sustained will not impair its capital, but will absorb the surolus. The police are satisfied that six men were concerned in the robbery, and have found traces of two suspicious men. OSWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 21.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans was held in this city last evening, at which many speech es were made by Hon. G. B. Sloan. Hon. D. G. Foot, Hon. Cheney Ames and the Hepublican nominee for Congress, W. H. Baker. The best feeling prevailed. A fire broke out here early this morning, in the livery stable of G. A. Drury, which was destroyed, together with five horses. Thomas Martin's wagon shop and a dwelling house adjoining were destroyed. Loss $14,000. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21. The conference committee of Democrats and Republicans reconvened last night, to choose a successor to Bonsano, umpire of the advisory board. The Republicans required the adoption of a policy giving assurances that the guarantee of the Democrats, of a cessation of violence and intimidation, would be faithfully observed. The Demo-crats refused this, unless two places on the returning board were given them immediately. A general dis-agreement resulted, and the conefr-ence, at near midnight, adjourned sine die, without action. The Democrats threaten an immediate appeal. An indignation meeting is proposed for Friday night. The White Leaguers have been called to assemble to-morrow night. NEW YORK, Oct. 21. A Tribune special from New Or-leans says the following is a partial list of citizens arrested at Coushatta: Major Stephenson, Captain Abney, J. M. McIllmore, Hugh Jones, Walter Clark, Brettlee, George Haw-thorne, Dr. Brown, Prude, Hyams, Pirk, Lebright, Samuel Leisse and others, whose names are not reported. It is very difficult to obtain trustworthy information of the cause or manner of arrests. The white people throughout Red River parish are much alarmed, as it is given out that warrants have been issued for the arrest of three hundred persons. Many timid ones have fled, dreading incarceration at New Orleans while awaiting trial. ment.
