-The horse and buggy, reported to have been stolen from J. W. Bye, while visiting in Saratoga precinct the other evening, have been recovered. The outfit was found next morning, safe and sound, in a cellar not far from the place where the horse had been left untied.

-Manager Irish, to secure the Adelaide Phillips Opera Troupe, first obtained a sufficient subscription for seats. He is now delivering the tickets for reserved seats to the subscribers, and the seats that are left will be put up for sale at Eberhart's.

-The members of the Congregational Church have raised by voluntary subscription within the last three months, the sum of $2,100, the amount of indebtedness due on the church property. The payment of this amount was made yesterday, and leaves the property clear of all incumbrances. Good enough.

- Furbish's Fifth Avenue Theatre Combination gave better tween 11th and 12th streets. satisfaction than any other theatrical troupe that has ever visited this city. -The annual fall hunt of the Omaha Sportsmen's Club takes place to-day. Many of the more ambitious members left to-day for the hunting grounds. Accordto a resolution passed at a recent meeting, the game is to be sold and the proceeds ionated to the grasshopper sufferers.

-A anonte man exhibited too much friendship for a drunken man, who had considerable money, at the Tivoli Garden Sunday night. One of the employes of the place made the rascal clear out, and taking the man over to the Wyoming Hotel, put him safely to bed.

-The first meeting of the season of the Saratoga Literary and Debating Society will take place at the Saratoga school house on Wednesday evening. This society became quite popular last winter, and attracted quite a number of the city folks to its sessions.

-A soldier at the Barracks, servant to Col. Coppinger, accidentally shot himself Saturday night. A revolver, which he carried in his pantaloons pocket, went off, sending the bullet down the whole length of one of his legs, which was quite badly plowed up. The ball was extracted by Dr. Page.

-Quite a number of Council Bluffites came over the river in buggies Saturday afternoon to attend the matinee, and when they went to the ferryboat to return, they found the craft had broken some of her machinery and had been temporarily tied up for repairs. They came back up town, attended the theatre in the evening, and passed the remainder of the night at our firstclass hotels. They returned to Council Bluffs Sunday morning much pleased with their visit.

Poppleton has returned from Des Moines, where he argued the preliminary question of jurisdiction of the United States Circuit Court in the mandamus case to compel the Union Pacific to run its cars over into Iowa. The decision is to be rendered to-day.

Rev. Dr. Pressing, a prominent Methodist minister of Pittsburg, preached Sunday morning and evening at the First M. E. Church. He is an eloquent speaker, and his discourses attracted marked attention from his hearers. He left this morning for the Pacific coast, accompanied by his daughter, for whose health he intends remaining west for some time.

Conrad Meyer, indicted for arson, entered the plea of not guilty. Charles Brennan, indicted for shooting at James Appleby in July last, was tried and convicted. The jury recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. Sentenced to two years imprisonment in the penitentiary. James Henderson, indicted for burglary in breaking into C. Wilson's house, tried and convicted.

An Intemperate Woman. The sad effects of intemperance were illustrated by a case we overheard at the Probate Court yesterday morning. A middle-aged man named Cumberland came into the court room, and with tears in his eyes, stated how his wife was addicted to drink, and how he and his children had to suffer in consequence. So strong was her appetite for liquor that she was almost always entirely or partially under its baneful influence, allowing her eldest child, a girl of fifteen, to do all the housework, and attend to the five remaining children.

To obtain liquor she would anything she could lay her hands on, and would even purchase groceries on her husband's credit, and then sell them for half what they were worth, and turn the proceeds into whiskey. Last Friday she disappeared, in company with the youngest child, and the father wanted an officer to go with bim to obtain possession of the child. When woman falls sne takes a fearful tumble, and in the language of the poet, the man who has joined his fate to a female drunkard, may well exclaim:

"Of all and words of tongue or pen, The suddest of all are, 'The old woman's drunk again.'"

uate of the New York City institute for the blind. Wednesday ever ing Grace Greenwood and Sarah Fisher Ames will give readings in costume at the the auspices of the Omaha Library Association. The Plunkett Constellation will play at the Academy of Music Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Sacarday afternoon. The Lutheran church concert takes place Friday evening.

James G. Clark, the lyric poet and balladist, will give one of his charming concerts at the First M. E. church next Saturday evening. The Adelaide Phillips opera troupe will sing here November 3rd and 4th. The operas are "Barber of Seville" and "Il Trovatore." Prof. Pepper, the celebrated scientific lecturer who is creating a sensation everywhere, will give three entertainments, November 9th, 10th and 11th. He illustrates his lectures with scientific apparatus, his supply of which is very extensive, weighing over three tons.

The Plunkett Combination.

This well-known troupe will play season of three nights and a matinee at the Academy of Music, beginning Thursday evening with Saratoga." The Iowa State Register, published at Des Moines, has the following complimentary notice of this company:

"Saratoga" was presented at the Opera House last evening in excellent style by the troupe of which the head is the veteran Plunkett. The old man bears his gathered days gracefully and well, and has beueathed to his children no small egree of the dramatic skill that in former days, in his person, was wont "set the boxes in a roar," or charm the attendants on his acting by its naturalness and taste. The theory of transmitted talent is well exemplified by them.

The company is numerous, as the character of the play requires, and among all of its people none last evening approached failure. They make a strong combination, and under the excellent management that they have cannot fail of success. Evidently the manager knows their strength; if he did not he would he does,

WHY IS IT? That through all the dull season just passed, when other dry goods stores were empty and clerks asleep, Bushman's dry goods store has always been as crowded as ever? Why is it that old merchants are complaining bitterly, and are moving away? Because Bushman sells goods as cheap in OMAHA AS THEY ARE SOLD IN NEW ORK CITY AT RETAIL. Because Bushman's prices at retail in many goods are less than the usual wholesale prices. And last, but not least, because the people have found out for themselves that have found out for themselves that a child can buy as cheap and as safely as the most experienced buyer, and that is our aim to make our
