OMAHA TO CINCINNATI.

Chicago, Financially and Commercially-The Difference between a Grain Speculating and a Manufacturing Centre - Cincinnati Prosperous-How her Hills are Graded-On to Dayton.

(From the Sacramento Record.) CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.

EDITOR OMAHA BEE: Taking the C. B. & Q. train for Chicago at Omaha, we found ourselves in one of those magnificent palace cars, attended by the most accommodating conductors, and after getting fairly under way, we were invited into the dining-car, where a splendid supper was waiting-a convenience found on very Arriving in Chicago on the next day, we took our "hash" at the Palmer House, where nothing was wanting to make us happy and com-

In looking over Chicago and chat ting with some of her enterprising business men, we could not help but notice the depressed condition of affairs. Financially, Chicago is in a very bad condition and must be in a worse one, when her December loans and interest on loans made two vears ago become due.

Much valuable property that was damaged by the late fire, remains in the same condition, and seems to be a monument to the owner to beware and make haste very slow. The trade of Chicago is gradually being brought within narrower limits by the energy of such places as Milwaukee, Burlington, St. Paul, Kansas City and Omaha.

Leaving Chicago, we took the Kankakee route to Cincinnati at 7 8:45 next morning. This place, like Pittsburg, is truly a smoky city, and where the sun hardly ever gets up till 10 o'clock a. m. The numerous menufactories of Cincinnati will keep her financial condition good, and furnish amplications to their mark, and furnish amplications to their mark. and furnish employment to thousands of people regardless of poor hippodrome, and his varied performances were calculated to draw large crowds of visitors. The tent covered some five acres of ground, being large enough to furnish a good race track, which was a principle feature of the show. There were horse races, elephant races, camel races, deer races, buffalo races, Indian races and a scone of scalping and many other such scenes, too famittar to a western man. Cincinnati is growing rapidly, and instead of cutting down her hills, as Omaha does, she takes the street cars over the hill by means of a stationary engine and inclined plane. The Ohio river is very low now, and at best, is not used much for boats, as in times past, Rail-roads will supercede all river transportation in time, and the rivers will hardly be used as highways. The lower, or river front of this city denotes the decline of river business Some of her largest hotels, that were supported by river men, are empty now, and others are barely able to run, while the up-town hotels are all doing well and full. Business men here complain of hard times and scarcity of money. To-morrow, we take the train for Dayton, Ohio, and the crusade district, and you may hear again from > MILWAUKEE, October 29. Considerable excitement was caused here to-day by the announcement that Senator Matt H. Carpenter was lying at the point of death at Kenosha. It appears that last Sat-urday night, after speaking in that town, he was taken seriously ill, from the effects of a scrofulous boil on the back of his neck. Yesterday the boil was lanced, but rapidly became much worse, until it was thought his illness would terminate fatally, when Mrs. Carpenter and his law partner, N. S. Murphy, were sent for. They left here for Kenosha, and found the senator much improved. He was brought to his home in this eity last night. It is probable that he will recover, but not likely that he will be able to go upon the stump again before election.

WASHINGTON, October 29. The President has issued the folowing proclamation: By the President of the United States of America-A Proclamasons that it is time to pause in our daily vocations and offer thanks to Almighty God for the mercies and abundance of the year, which is drawing to a close; the blessings of a free government continue to be vouchsafed; the earth has responded to the labor of the husbandman, the land has been free from pestilence, internal order is maintained and peace with other powers has prevailed. It is fitting that at stated periods we should cease from our accustomed pursuits and the turmoil of our daily lives, and unite in thankfulness for the blessings of the east and cultivation of kindly feelngs towards each other, now therefore recognizing these considerations I, U. S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend to all citizens to assemble in their respec-tive places of worship on Thursday, the 26th day of November next, and express their thanks for mercy and favor of the Al-mighty God, and laying aside all political contentions, and all segular occupations, and to observe such as a day of thanksgiving and praise.
