

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

On Nebraska's Senator-Elect.

Senator Saunders. In addition to the general interest which Iowa may feel in Nebraska politics, on account of the fact that we are neighbors, the result of the recent Senatorial contest on the other side of the Missouri will attract a great deal of attention in this State.

It strikes us as decidedly out of taste for the organs of the lost cause to commend a man who commenced his Senatorial career by bribery and ended it by encouraging forgery, theft and perjury, as a model statesman, fit for the cabinet of President Hayes.

The defeat of Senator Logan cannot be re-elected. According to latest advices from Springfield a coalition has been formed between the Independents and Democrats, by which General Wm. Anderson is to become Senator Logan's successor.

Mr. Tom Kinnard's bill defining the duties and powers of the Commissioner of Public Lands and buildings of the State of Nebraska, will require careful overhauling.

An elaborate argument in favor of the repeal of the usury laws appeared in our last issue, which substantially reaffirms the theory that money, like every other saleable commodity, should be untrammelled by laws. Now, this theory may be very sound when applied to creditor States.

Speaker Nance is on the winning side again. He has been one of the staunchest supporters of Gov. Saunders ever since the Senatorial fight opened, and voted for him consistently from the first to the final triumph.

Intense excitement was created Thursday afternoon by a dispatch from Lincoln, announcing that W. E. Spickard had voted for Hittcock for United States Senator, in violation of his pledges and in defiance of the well-known wishes of nearly every voter in the county.

SAUNDERS, WHO HAS BEEN ELECTED, IS A MAN OF ABILITY AND A MAN OF INTEGRITY.

On Nebraska's Senator-Elect. Senator Hittcock failed to satisfy the people of Nebraska. His six years of service failed to commend him to the favor of his constituents. The attempt to re-elect him divided the party in the State.

It is the feeling of the people here that the man who has represented Massachusetts in the Senate since the organization of the government in 1789, Massachusetts can well spare him, for he is not a great man, but he is superior to Boutwell.

The following is the bill introduced by Mr. Neville, of the house, to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery in the State of Nebraska.

Eighteen cars of iron and steel were shipped from Clarinda last week. For the month of December the payroll for work on the new capital building at Des Moines was $18,778.18.
