THE WEATHER.

Heavy Snow Storm on the Line of the Union Pacific in the Black Hills—Snow at Kearney This Morning — Telegraph Wires Down—Heavy Rain at Omaha.

For the last three or four days there has been raging in the Black Hills, along the line of the Union Pacific railway, the worst snow storm that has occurred since the memorable blockade of the winter of 1871-72.

On Tuesday night the East bound Union Pacific passenger train was snow bound at Granite Canon, and did not arrive at Omaha till Thursday morning at ten o'clock, eighteen hours late. Trains are all moving now, however, although some of them are behind time. The passenger train due here yesterday at 3:45 p. m. was three hours late.

The storm has continued with unabated vigor, and late yesterday afternoon turned into rain, from North Platte eastward, and still later it changed into sleet, which caused the telegraph wires between North Platte and Cheyenne to go down about half past seven in the evening. The sleet has been moving eastward yesterday and the probability is that the telegraph wires will be badly used up.

It was snowing at Kearney yesterday morning.

Thursday eve about half past seven o'clock it began raining and it has continued to pour down heavily and steadily ever since.

"The Chinaman and the African in the United States."

To the Editor of the Bee.

I notice in the Herald of a recent date an article under the caption, "The Chinaman and the African in the United States." The article in question betrays on the part of its author a degree of absurdity and disregard for truth that renders it perhaps the most remarkable of all the journalistic fizzles that have emanated from the pen of Dr. Miller. There is not an idea advanced in the whole article that has not become superannuated; not a proposition or declaration contained in it that is not a prima facie absurdity, with a possible exception. The Dr. seems to have just arisen from a slumber of as great length as that of Rip Van Winkle. It is unnecessary, Mr. Editor, for me to attempt to answer in detail the nonsense contained in the article alluded to; it may be well for me to answer in a general way some of the assertions made therein.

First—Then let me say to the wiseacre of the Herald that "the bottom (principle)" upon which he wishes this government to settle is really no bottom at all, it dropped out at the death of slavery. Save this shibboleth "the preservation of free government in this country depends, first upon the intelligence of the people."

Second—Upon their capacity to become assimilated with the race that founded it. Immediately after this he says, in substance, that the negro is incapable by nature of ever attaining a high degree of intelligence, and then God has made it physically impossible for him to ever become assimilated with the Caucasian. It is hardly worth while to answer either of these two last assertions. I believe that intelligence is a very desirable and necessary qualification in a people to perpetuate free government (the balderdash about "assimilation" now as well be ignored), but in order to have a good government is not honesty as necessary a characteristic in a people as intelligence? Certainly. But political honesty in Dr. Miller is among the things that were—not; hence he finds no occasion to speak of it in this connection.

But the man who says that the negro is incapable of making equal progress with the white in the acquisition of intelligence, and especially in view of the extraordinary advance of this class of the populace within the past few years, since the avenues of education have been opened to them, must be regarded as a hopeless, prejudiced nincompoop, or an unscrupulous misrepresentor of the truth. Let such a gump go to one of these public schools, and he will learn, if he is capable of learning anything, that colored children attending that school move with equal facility and thoroughness from lower to higher grades of study, with their white classmates.

The Dr. says that the nation was drunk at the time of the ratification of the 14th and 15th amendments, and is drunk now; but as soon as it sobers up these amendments must be annulled. Instead of the nation being drunk, it appears that he has been drunk for nearly ten years, and is just recovering sufficiently from his stupidity to take in the situation. He says the negro is a pernicious element in this government. There is no element within the limits of the United States government that is of such pernicious and dangerous character to it as that of which he is the mouth piece in Nebraska, and of which S. J. Tilden was the presidential candidate in the late campaign. Unhappy the country that shall give birth to many of such ilk as Tilden, Miller and Cronin. CYRUS D. BELL.

Will Mr. Jenkinson, the newly elected City Councilman, see that J. Green fixes his sidewalk on the corner of Ninth and Harney streets, just as his neighbors were obliged to do? W. A. It

MERCENARY MOSES.

A Base Deceiver—A Young Man Robs His Intended Bride, and Then Deserts Her.

Moses Follansbee is the name of a genteel looking young man who has been working in a Fremont hotel for the past six months, along with a rather neat and pretty and confiding girl, whose affections he succeeded in winning. Not long ago he obtained her consent of marriage. The time for the happy event was fixed for Thursday, and Omaha was selected as the place, and to Omaha they came two or three days ago. The license was obtained and other arrangements were perfected.

Thursday morning the girl gave her Moses the sum of twenty dollars, with which to go out and make some purchases for her. Several hours passed away, and no Moses returned to her. As each hour rolled by, she became uneasy and anxious, and at last the suspicion dawned upon her that Moses had been either foully dealt with and robbed of the money, or that he had absconded with it himself.

She then went to the City Marshal and informed him of the facts in the case and of her suspicion. The Marshal obtained the fellow's photograph, and hastened to the Union Pacific depot, where he learned that Moses had crossed the river, and thither the Marshal followed him, and upon his arrival at Spoon Lake he ascertained that Moses had started for Philadelphia.

The girl, while at the Police Court, was asked by Judge Anderson if Moses had robbed her of her virtue, and she evasively replied that she "didn't care a continental, if she could only get her money back." She also regretted the turn affairs had taken, because the oily tongued Moses had, for some reason, induced her to write to her folks that they were married, and she now hated to return home without a husband after all.

Besides the twenty dollars, Mose took with him five dollars belonging to another girl, and a gold ring which was the property of his intended bride.

Max Meyer & Co.

This house has grown steadily from a comparatively small concern to be one of the most extensive establishments in the West, and all within the past five years, owing to the pushing enterprise of the members to reach and grasp the trade of the trans-Missouri country. Their present commodious quarters in Creighton Hall building are inadequate to the demands of their business, and consequently they are now putting up a large and handsome two story brick building at the northeast corner of Farnham and Eleventh streets, which will be completed within the next three months.

Max Meyer & Co. have always made it a rule to handle the very best goods in the various lines that comprise their stock. Especially is this the case with their tobaccos and cigars, than which there are no better to be found in the market. Among their leading brands of smoking tobacco are Lone Jack, Valley Fair, Bob White, Durham, and Carte Blanche; while "Hard to Beat" leads in the chewing tobacco line, and "Gravely" in plug tobaccos. Their Imported and Key West cigars, and their own celebrated "Stubs," cannot be excelled. Their stock of domestic cigars is very large, and they keep constantly on hand a fine supply of cigarettes. Their stock of pipes comprises every variety of meerschaum and brier-root, and everything in the line of smoker's articles can be found in this establishment.

They make a specialty of guns, repeating rifles, and revolvers, and ammunition of every description; also pocket cutlery.

Their prices are as low as those of eastern dealers, as they buy direct from the manufacturers, and hence western merchants will save time and money by trading with them.

A GOOD MOVE.

The Davis Family of Florence Move Out of the Country—All's Well That Ends Well.

The Florence shooting scrape, which occurred some few weeks ago, has at last resulted satisfactorily to all parties interested.

Marshal Simpson, it will be remembered, shot and wounded Bill Davis, and was held for trial at the next term of the District Court in the sum of $500 bail, which he gave.

Two brothers of the wounded Davis then threatened vengeance on Simpson, and they were arrested, brought to Omaha, and placed under $500 bonds to keep the peace, and failing to give the same, they were sent to jail, where another brother was confined on a sentence of thirty days for beating a Mrs. Thomas, of Florence.

Thursday the Davis boys were brought before Judge Sedgwick on a writ of habeas corpus, at the instance of the prosecuting witness Simpson and the District Attorney, and His Honor discharged them. They returned to Florence, and then with the whole family, left the country for the country's good, their destination being Kansas. The funds for their transportation were raised by the people of Florence, who have long wanted to get rid of them, as they have been a terror and a nuisance to the community ever since they have resided there. This virtually ends the case against Marshal Simpson.

STEAMBOAT NEWS.

The steamer Black Hills will leave St. Louis May 1st for Benton.

The steamer Ashland left St. Louis Wednesday for Bismarck.

The Silver City, carrying 600 tons, started from St. Louis on Wednesday for Benton.

The Red Cloud left St. Louis yesterday for upper Missouri points.

The following boats are now en route from St. Louis for upper Missouri river points, and a large quantity of mail has been received by C. C. Housel & Co., for them: Osceola, Tidal Wave, Florence Meyer, J. E. Rankin, Arkansas, and Belle of St. Louis.

The following steamers have passed Omaha this season upward bound: J. M. Chambers, April 3; C. K. Peck, April 7; Denver, April 13; Fanchon, April 17; R. W. Duggan and Kate Kinney, April 19; Fannie Tatum, arrived April 20 and departed on the 24th.

The stern-wheeler Savannah will leave St. Louis in a day or two with barges for the Yellowstone.

The John G. Fletcher, bound for the Yellowstone, is expected here to-day.

The Gen. Custer, with 250 tons of freight, for Benton, is coming up the river.

Matrimonial.

One of those happy events that lend to life a halcyon joy of rainbow hue occurred Thursday at the residence of Joseph Redman, corner of Nineteenth and Izard streets, in the union of his daughter, Arminta Redman, to George Hume, Esq. The Rev. Mr. Lipe, of the Lutheran Church, was the officiating clergyman. A few intimate friends were invited to participate in the happy ceremony.

The bride is a native of Omaha, being born in this city, and was elegantly attired, adding grace to the charms of her personal presence.

Many valuable presents graced the bridal table—beautiful toilet mats from Mrs. Redman, mother of the bride's father; elegant mounted castor from Mr. S. K. Jackson; a fine silver butter dish from Mrs. S. K. Jackson; David and Richard Hume gave a beautiful ice pitcher and set of goblets; Mrs. Counchman presented a fine pickle castor; Messrs. Stanberry and Hortson, an elegant double nickle castor; Miss Kimball, a wax wreath and card receiver; Mrs. Harpster, a large and elegant vase; Mrs. Wm. Hume, a complete toilet set; Mrs. G. M. Wiley, a toilet set; Miss Bertha Hume, a silver cup, etc, with many other valuable presents from friends.

A magnificent supper was prepared, and the happy bridal party greatly enjoyed the festivity.

May peace and sunshine illuminate their future path, and the joyous wishes of all for their prosperity go with them in the new life they are now entering upon.
