Bass had two cartridges shot from his belt, and is believed to be wounded in the face. The Murphys and confederates were arrested and put in the Sherman jail. Sheriff Everhart and posse are in close pursuit of Bass and party."

The board had been able to pay all interests when due, and to continue, by borrowing only $3,000, which amount was now paid for the money for it was in the treasury. There is still to be collected from the year of 1877 about $19,000. The board will have money enough to pay all bills to the end of the school year and a small balance to commence the school with in September.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening. President Clark presented his annual report, from which the following is an extract:

The board had been able to pay all interests when due, and to continue, by borrowing only $3,000, which amount was now paid for the money for it was in the treasury. There is still to be collected from the year of 1877 about $19,000. The board will have money enough to pay all bills to the end of the school year and a small balance to commence the school with in September.

On Monday the Board of Education of 1877-8 adjourned sine die.

The new Board then organized. Mr. G. T. Wilkins being elected temporary president, and T. J. Staley secretary.

Meers, H. G. Clark, H. Kennedy, and W. J. Brothoff were appointed committee on credentials. They reported the following as entitled to seats:

First Ward—G. T. Wilkins, Chas. Conroy.

Second Ward—H. G. Clark, Geo. C. Bonner.

Third Ward—J. J. Points, Simon Bloom.

Fourth Ward—Howard Kennedy, W. J. Brothoff.

Fifth Ward—Thos. H. Daily.

Sixth Ward—W. W. Marsh, T. J. Staley.

After the new Board had been sworn in by Judge Anderson, they proceeded to the election of officers, the following being the result:

President—H. G. Clark.

Vice President—Howard Kennedy.

Secretary—T. J. Staley.

The President and Vice President acknowledged in appropriate remarks the dignity conferred upon them.

Howard Kennedy moved, and the motion was seconded, that $75 be appropriated for the expenses of the High School commencement exercises. The appropriation was passed by the following vote:

Ayes—Bloom, Bonner, Brothoff, Clark, Kennedy, Points and Staley. Nays—Conroy, Dalley, Marsh, Wilkins.

A communication was read from Mr. O'Malley stating that he had removed from the Fifth ward and therefore tendered his resignation.

On motion a recess was taken to allow the president time to prepare the names of his committee, which he desired to present at this meeting. The board was then called to order and the committees read as follows.
