

THE PATFINDER.

Its Path Traced No Further Than Lake Michigan.

Grave Apprehensions of the Fate of Wise and Burr.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Oct. 1.

The passengers in the "Pathfinder," Prof. Wise's trans-continental-bound balloon, which left Lindell Park at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, are still unheard from, and the probabilities now seem to be that they have met an accidental fate as that which overtook Prof. Wadsworth and Greenwood, the former journalist, who disappeared two years ago after Chicago for a race car and of whose nothing was ever found or known after, save a decomposed and mangled body blown over by the waves on the Michigan shore and recognized as the remains of poor Greenwood, and some fragments of balloon netting and ropes.

All that were left to tell the tale of a perilous voyage that ended in death and disaster to the two men who ventured their lives in the mid-air ship that was wrecked on the lake or in the pines. The victims of the latest aeronautic adventure, if they should turn out to be living, will be the first to be strongly indicated they are, as Prof. John W. Wise, and Mr. Geo. Burr. The manner of their departure from terms firms was explained at length in Monday morning's Globe-Democrat, and the leakage of the netting; the character of the balloon material; the small quantity of the gas; the peril of the ascent in the morning; the character of the air; the airship made its initial spring; the conjectures of the multitude who witnessed the ascent as to the probable result of the trip, and the furtive escape of the aeronaut.

The affray near Castle Bar, Ireland, Thursday, in which two men are reported killed, is believed to be an agrarian outrage. It is reported four men fired on the Marquis of Sligo's agent and that fire was returned. Accounts from Sligo state that the Marquis of Sligo and his agent have received letters threatening death unless the rent is reduced.

Pierce fighting in Louisiana. New Orleans special to the Globe-Democrat.

The fiercest fight within the Democratic party ever known is now going on between the supporters of Wiltz and Ogden, the two candidates for the gubernatorial nomination by the State convention which meets at Baton Rouge on October 6. Each faction is striving to carry the primary election on the 3d, and the contest is being used to that end. Wiltz is the representative of the local ring which controls all offices and carry all elections.

Ogden is best known as the leader of the White League on the 14th of September, 1874, when the Kellogg government was overthrown, and he is now a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination.

When Nicholls was installed into the executive chair. The bitterness between the factions is something unparaleled in Louisiana history. Already a number of street fights have occurred, during which pistols were fired and knives used, but without success in injuring any one. Late on Sunday night a man named Pat Tracy, and a strong Ogden man, was waylaid and cruelly beaten by a mob supposed to be acting in the interest of Wiltz. The result of the commotion has become alarmed and the gravest fears are entertained of an outbreak before the primaries come off.

WASHINGTON.

The Republican Postmaster at Blackview, (S. C.) Again Assaulted.

White League Democrats Draw Their Knives and Threaten to Out His Heart Out.

Ex-Senator Vickers, of Maryland, Lying at the Point of Death.

Vanderbilt and Flood the Largest Single Bondholders in the Country.

Quarterly Interest Amounts to the Sum of $50,000.

National Banks Mysteriously Reducing Their Capital.

"You Damn Black Nigger."

WASHINGTON, October 2—4 p. m.—In a letter to the National Republican, Postmaster Nix, of Blackview, S. C., says that three days subsequent to his attempted assassination he was again attacked by a small party of white Democrats in a store, where he had gone to make some purchases. These persons, with knives drawn, cursed and threatened him, saying, "You, a d—n nigger, have got to stand it." By the assistance of the proprietor of the store, Nix succeeded in getting away without being injured.

EX-SENATOR VICKERS, of Maryland, is lying at the point of death at Chestertown, Md., from an attack of heart disease.

SLAUGHTER BONDHOLDERS. Special Dispatch to the Bee.

WASHINGTON, October 3, 9 a. m.—Among the checks sent out from the treasury in the payment of quarterly interest on the 4 per cent loan, was one of $50,000 to the order of Wm. H. Vanderbilt, being the quarterly interest on $5,000,000 registered in his name. Mr. J. Flood, of San Francisco, has also $50,000 of registered stock of five per cent bonds, which have not yet been called. These gentlemen are the two largest single holders of registered stock.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE REPORT from the tax on the capital of banks and bankers, other than national and savings banks, has declined very much for some months. The Treasury officials think the banks deliberately evade the law. Certain wealthy New York firms, which have branch houses in Europe, are suspected of managing their affairs so as to charge all their capital to their foreign branches. In their returns to the internal revenue collector they state, therefore, that they have no capital and thus evade the law.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BLISS, of St. Louis, is here to ask the Department of Justice to sustain him in the vigorous prosecution of the officials of the National Bank of Missouri.

A Grand Industrial Parade. Special Dispatch to the Bee.

LEXINGTON, October 2, 4 p. m.—The Grand Industrial parade is a complete success. President Hayes and Sherman, escorted by the military, were at the head of the procession, which was reviewed by Mrs. Hayes from a platform in front of the post office. It was two hours and five minutes in passing that point.

Senator Conkling Very Sick. Special Dispatch to the Bee.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 3—6 a. m.—Senator Conkling has been very sick, although the fact has been kept from the public. He has been confined to his bed for the first time. It is doubtful if he will be able to take any part in the campaign.

The Erie Management. Special Dispatch to the Bee.

NEW YORK, October 3—6 a. m.—Something mysterious is going on in regard to Erie to-day. The Herald says the English reorganization trustees have arranged with Vanderbilt to elect his son Cornelius president, and Jewett will take a position with the Western Union Telegraph.

Memphis Revives. Special Dispatch to the Bee.

MEMPHIS, October 2—4 p. m.—One dead reported this morning. No new cases. Fever footprints are rapidly disappearing, and the city is assuming its wonted business activity. Refugees are coming in and resuming their various occupations.

Need of Popular Education in the South. Associated Press Dispatch.

BALTIMORE, October 2—In September, 1878, the National bank of Baltimore was robbed of two boxes, containing $35,000 in bank notes, belonging to the bank; the other contained bonds aggregating $28,000. The notes were taken over by the bank, and the bonds were sold to the public.

Friday last, a young man hunting in the woods near Woodbury, was two men searching for something buried. Tuesday last the same person was two men digging at the same place. At night the young man with several friends, went to the spot and by digging unearthed a tin box, which contained Col. Boone's bonds and a number of his private papers.

THE WAHOO FAIR.
