

THE DAILY BEE.

R. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Our Correspondents will always be pleased to hear from you on all matters connected with news, country politics, and on any subject of local interest.

Idaho, like England, proposes a new line of policy, and in the parliamentary election just concluded the ministerial party has been defeated by five majorities.

PARNELL'S scheme for division of the lands of Ireland has been selected by the home rule members of parliament as the policy to be pursued during the coming session.

The general assembly of the Presbyterian church, which convened at Madison, Wis., on Thursday, promises to be a very interesting session from the fact that a vital question will come up for discussion during its meeting.

PERSONALITIES. The king of Siam will not attend the Chicago convention. Is there another blot on his crown?

Mr. Tilden is attempting to gain control of the police department of the city of New York, hoping by this means to disaffect members of the Tammany wing.

BRISACRE is a remarkable man, but of all the many notable events in his life none are more striking than his refusal of the offer of the enterprising American journalist promising $30,000 marks for a weekly contribution for a year.

Under administration, the question concerning a million dollars in subsidies to American built vessels carrying mails. The plan might be a good one.

O'NEILL'S MONUMENT.

Far More Enduring and Beneficial than Sculptured Brass or Marble.

The Colony Started by the Late Iamened General, Survives the Trials of Infancy.

And Grows Rapidly to Strong and Prosperous Manhood.

A Trip Through Holt County; O'Neill City and its Pioneers.

Correspondence of The Bee. O'NEILL, Holt County, May 16. Holt is one of the very largest organized counties in the state, being equivalent to an area of forty-eight miles square and almost an exact square in form.
