THE NEW CATHEDRAL.

Ground Broken for the Edifice and Work to Begin Immediately.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the ground was broken for the new cathedral. A short prayer was said by Bishop Clarkson, after which he turned over the turf at the northwest corner with a spade. Dean Millspaugh and Canon Paterson and Rev. Mr. Meek followed, each digging out a spadeful of earth. Then the same ceremony was done by Chancellor Woodworth, and Mesers. Yates and Thrall of the building committee. Other citizens who were present then took a turn at the spade, until quite a long trench was dug. Thus begins a great work. The Republiban this morning states that it is probable that the laying of the corner-stone of the new cathedral will be postponed. We have it from the best authority that such is not the case, but that the corner stone will be laid on the 25th inst. at 7 p. m. This late hour is chosen so that the to attend.

Not a Duel. The report reached this office this o lice yesterday forenoon that a duel had ed up. been fought in Hanscom Park, about 6 o'clock this morning between two Germans. A reporter made several attempts to learn the facts in the case, or whether it were a false-alarm, but his investigations failed to find a confirmation of the report. It was said by a prominent German here that the report very likely had its origin in a little fracas between an actor of the German theatre and the editor of the Post, which occurred the other evening, in the corridor of the Turner Hall. It was thought by some that perhaps these gentleman had decided to meet on "the field of honsh," but as far as we could learn such is not the case. C. B. DeGroat & Co., Leading Hatters, 1316 Farnham st. s-m-w-f Involving an Omaha Painter.

For some time since our notice has een called to the actions of a man named Houck, a portrait painter, who is quite well known in some quarters of the city. These reports were of a very damaging character, and we held them until we might become satisfied of Houck's true character. He left this city about a month since, leaving debts unpaid and suspicions hanging over his head, which are not at all enviable. Mr. Brandt, of Turner Hall, claims that Houck tapped his money drawer, before his departure, of about $65, and that he also gave him an order of $20 on Mr. Joseph Creighton, claiming that the latter owed him some money. The order was presented in due course of time, and was dishonored, Mr. Creighton aying that he did not know Houck and had never owed him a cent This information was given to Houck, who concluded to jump the town, and did

He was also accused of crookedness in his dealings with a Sixteenth street photographer, having stolen divers things from the establishment, amounting in all to about $40. A reporter had a talk with this photographer, who stated that he hoped THE BEE would have nothing to say in regard to Mr. Houck, whom he considered a fine workman, and he offiered to replace all the articles which he hac stolen.

Mr. Brandt received two letters from Sioux City, last week, inquiring after the character of Houck, and who and what he was. This is the first intimation Mr. Brandt has had of Houck's whereabouts, but he says if Houck will keep out of Omaha he will not trouble him. In one of the letters it was said that Houck had been guilty of some misdemeanors in Sioux City that would surely get him into trouble, but just what they are, we are unab'e

By this time one of the two hieves, one man about six feet tall and the other a mere boy, had jumped out of a window and was making across the lot when he was captured on the fence by M. D. The thieves entered the house by lrawers, securing about $10 in money. First and Largest of the Season -The Oldest on the Road, and Larger and Better than Ever.

Van Amburg & Co.'s great Golden Menagerie has been consolidated with Frest's Roman Circus and Colosseum or the season of 1880, and will pitch its thirteen tents in Omaba Friday and Saturday, May 21st and 22d. This is the 60th consecutive year of the Van Amburg Menagerie - the oldest show organization in the world -which has always been recognized as the leading exhibition o wild animals, both in this country and Europe. As years have gone by the Van Amburg show has striven to keep pace with the time, and to-day it nasts of a greater vari-ty of beasts, birds and reptiles than any on the conpresent consolidation with Mr. Hyatt Frost's Roman Circus and Colesseum, places the combination in the very foregr und of all instiutions of a like character. A perow's paper will convince the most skeptical of the real merits of this gigantic aggregation. The monster how, as now organized, gives constant employment to 250 laborers and has a troupe of nearly 100 lady and gentlemen performers; among the latter no less than twelve equestriennes, and of the latter the only female hurdle rider in the world. It requires no prophet's ken to see that we are to have a superb show, and we predict crowded tents at both the afternoon and evening performances
