

WASHINGTON.

The Prospect of Adjournment Vanishing in the Dim Distance.

Democrats Determined to Freeze Out the Filibusters.

Decorative Ceremonies Successful in Every Way.

The Christians Determined to Expose Their Immoralities in Court.

A Dull Day at the Capital.

PROSPECTIVE ADJOURNMENT.

CHICAGO, May 29-4 p. m.—The Journal's Washington special says: The day for adjournment is gradually receding. Wallace says congress cannot adjourn before the 15th of June, and that no adjournment will take place until the house agrees to his deputy marshals and supervisors bills; but if the republicans are made to understand that congress will adjourn until these bills are passed they may resign from filibustering and allow them to pass by the date mentioned, but if they do resort to filibustering in their opposition to these bills, the democrats will at that out, if it takes until next December, as they are determined that the republicans shall not hold the whole machinery at the next presidential election in their hand.

Mr. Hurd says congress cannot possibly adjourn before the first of July.

The assistant postmaster-general, it is said, contemplates resigning his position upon the adjournment of congress.

Yesterday a deal was recorded to him of Hallet Kilburn house for a consideration of $45,000.

The departments are all closed to-day by being decoration day.

DECOARATION CEREMONIES.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 10 p. m.—It is now said that the republicans will adjourn until the 15th of June, and that the democrats will adjourn until the 1st of July.

THE ROBBERY OF CONGRESS.

Mr. Hurd says congress cannot possibly adjourn before the first of July.

The assistant postmaster-general, it is said, contemplates resigning his position upon the adjournment of congress.

Yesterday a deal was recorded to him of Hallet Kilburn house for a consideration of $45,000.

The departments are all closed to-day by being decoration day.

DECOARATION CEREMONIES.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 10 p. m.—It is now said that the republicans will adjourn until the 15th of June, and that the democrats will adjourn until the 1st of July.

THE ROBBERY OF CONGRESS.

Mr. Hurd says congress cannot possibly adjourn before the first of July.

The assistant postmaster-general, it is said, contemplates resigning his position upon the adjournment of congress.

Yesterday a deal was recorded to him of Hallet Kilburn house for a consideration of $45,000.

The departments are all closed to-day by being decoration day.

DECOARATION CEREMONIES.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 10 p. m.—It is now said that the republicans will adjourn until the 15th of June, and that the democrats will adjourn until the 1st of July.

THE ROBBERY OF CONGRESS.

Mr. Hurd says congress cannot possibly adjourn before the first of July.

The assistant postmaster-general, it is said, contemplates resigning his position upon the adjournment of congress.

Yesterday a deal was recorded to him of Hallet Kilburn house for a consideration of $45,000.

The departments are all closed to-day by being decoration day.

DECOARATION CEREMONIES.

to fight with gloves in a few days for $200 a side.

Scrapped by Congress.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LOUISVILLE, May 30, 10 p. m.—The shooting tournament to begin Saturday is attracting all the crack shots of the country; it will last six days—four matches a day, for purses of $500 on Friday and Saturday, and no purse smaller than $150.

CLOSE QUARTERS.

A Large Party of Miners, at North Park, Wyoming, Surrounded by Hostile Savages.

United States Troops Marching to the Rescue.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LARAMIE CITY, W. T., May 30.—10 p. m.—The latest information from North Park is that all the Indians are there. The white men, women and children at Waldron's camp, numbered about thirty, returned to Pinckham's, the night of the 27th, where they are now fortified. Nothing is known of Carr or Dow, and they have undoubtedly been killed. The men at Pinckham's camp are poorly armed and great fears are entertained for their safety. There are 700 miners and prospectors in the North Park, and the Indians will probably kill a great many before they can get together in sufficient numbers to oppose them. No one feared the Indians, and the soldiers who have gone in have but few arms.

FOREIGN EVENTS.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

HARVEST PROSPECTS IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 30.—10 p. m.—The harvest prospects are good throughout the country.

RUFFIANS PUNISHED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 30.—10 p. m.—Of three Mussulmans who attempted to kill and rob a British subject, one has been sentenced to death and the others to fifteen years penal servitude.

THE KING OF GREECE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, May 30.—10 p. m.—The king of Greece is in this city in his young king of Greece. This is his third visit here. He leaves for London next week, thence he will visit Vienna, Berlin, and St. Petersburg to try and better the solution of the Turco-Hellenic question.

FOUR FRENCH AERONAUTS

are preparing to cross from France to England in a balloon. The attempt has been frequently made, but has never been successful. A scientific commission appointed by the French government will preside at the departure from Boulogne.

BOUGHT IN THE PROVINCES

is beginning to create alarm in this city. A woman was a welcome fall of rain Saturday.

VICTORIA'S BIRTHDAY.

LONDON, May 30.—10 p. m.—The sixtieth anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria was celebrated Saturday in the usual manner. The queen's birthday, which occurs on the 24th, is customarily celebrated on the Saturday following.

THE SPOUTAN SAYS.

We understand that the jockey, Archer, will not ride again for at least two months, and he may not ride until the Goodwood meeting, which commences on Tuesday the 27th of July.

THE DOOMED DARKEY.

The Court of Inquiry Convicts Whittaker of Self-Mutilation.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WEST POINT, May 30.—10 p. m.—The court held a close session Friday evening, and continued it Saturday morning. At the final adjournment the court sent to General Schofield the findings, which cover 30 pages of foolscap. After giving a long and minute account of the case, the court pronounced a verdict of guilty, and sentenced Whittaker to be confined in the penitentiary for a term of five years, and to be kept in solitary confinement for the first six months of that term.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

NEW YORK, May 30, 10 p. m.—The Graphic editorially says: "As the democratic party may elect their candidate at the approaching presidential election, it behooves every good citizen, irrespective of party, to wish the democrats should select the best possible man as their standard bearer. We suggest that they take into consideration the name and character of Dr. Norrin Green, as candidate at Chianini. He is a very able and close headed man and can readily grasp great ideas and questions, even when presented to him in the crudest form. His recent excellent and his management of the Western Union telegraph company, has demonstrated his administrative abilities. With Dr. Green as their candidate the democrats would make a splendid canvass.

ELECTRIC BRIEFS.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

It is announced that Lord Lorne and Princess Louise have engaged rooms for July at Coney Island.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LOUISVILLE, May 30, 10 p. m.—The shooting tournament to begin Saturday is attracting all the crack shots of the country; it will last six days—four matches a day, for purses of $500 on Friday and Saturday, and no purse smaller than $150.

CLOSE QUARTERS.

A Large Party of Miners, at North Park, Wyoming, Surrounded by Hostile Savages.

United States Troops Marching to the Rescue.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LARAMIE CITY, W. T., May 30.—10 p. m.—The latest information from North Park is that all the Indians are there. The white men, women and children at Waldron's camp, numbered about thirty, returned to Pinckham's, the night of the 27th, where they are now fortified. Nothing is known of Carr or Dow, and they have undoubtedly been killed. The men at Pinckham's camp are poorly armed and great fears are entertained for their safety. There are 700 miners and prospectors in the North Park, and the Indians will probably kill a great many before they can get together in sufficient numbers to oppose them. No one feared the Indians, and the soldiers who have gone in have but few arms.

FOREIGN EVENTS.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

HARVEST PROSPECTS IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 30.—10 p. m.—The harvest prospects are good throughout the country.

RUFFIANS PUNISHED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 30.—10 p. m.—Of three Mussulmans who attempted to kill and rob a British subject, one has been sentenced to death and the others to fifteen years penal servitude.

THE KING OF GREECE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, May 30.—10 p. m.—The king of Greece is in this city in his young king of Greece. This is his third visit here. He leaves for London next week, thence he will visit Vienna, Berlin, and St. Petersburg to try and better the solution of the Turco-Hellenic question.

FOUR FRENCH AERONAUTS

are preparing to cross from France to England in a balloon. The attempt has been frequently made, but has never been successful. A scientific commission appointed by the French government will preside at the departure from Boulogne.

BOUGHT IN THE PROVINCES

is beginning to create alarm in this city. A woman was a welcome fall of rain Saturday.

VICTORIA'S BIRTHDAY.

LONDON, May 30.—10 p. m.—The sixtieth anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria was celebrated Saturday in the usual manner. The queen's birthday, which occurs on the 24th, is customarily celebrated on the Saturday following.

THE SPOUTAN SAYS.

We understand that the jockey, Archer, will not ride again for at least two months, and he may not ride until the Goodwood meeting, which commences on Tuesday the 27th of July.

THE DOOMED DARKEY.

The Court of Inquiry Convicts Whittaker of Self-Mutilation.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WEST POINT, May 30.—10 p. m.—The court held a close session Friday evening, and continued it Saturday morning. At the final adjournment the court sent to General Schofield the findings, which cover 30 pages of foolscap. After giving a long and minute account of the case, the court pronounced a verdict of guilty, and sentenced Whittaker to be confined in the penitentiary for a term of five years, and to be kept in solitary confinement for the first six months of that term.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

HAIL TO THE THIEVES.

Who Have Robbed Republicans of Their Rightful Representatives to Chicago.

The Tricky Trio and Third Termers Steeped in Profound Agitation.

The Fate of the Tanner Settled Beyond the Possibility of a Doubt.

And Gabriel's Horn Would Prove Unequal to the Task of Resurrection.

Rigid Enforcement of Unit Rule The Only Salvation.

The National Committee Resolve That Delegates Shall Vote as They Please.

Sherman Lingers on the Ragged Edge, Gathering Stragglers and Compromisers.

The Ardent Followers of Blaine Coming in by the Train Loads.

Numerous New Headquarters Started in Various Parts of the City.

Senator Blaine Will Manipulate His Forces at Long Range.

Cunning Cameron Playing Possum with the Anti-Grantites.

Arrangements for the Rival Mass Meetings.

Anti-Grant Grant Delegates Consolidating.

Lively Times in the Lobbies.

THE TIMES FIGURES.

CHICAGO, May 29.—4 p. m.—Estimate of rival candidates for the Republican national nomination is published in the Times this morning. The totals of this table show that, with the unit rule in force, and the third term delegations from Chicago and Louisiana, the first ballot will give Grant 394 and Blaine 210. With the unit rule ignored and temporary organization in the hands of the anti-third-termers, it is estimated that the vote will be: Grant, 303; Blaine, 284, and Sherman, 96.

STRADELLERS.

Blaine men have been trying to induce Governor Foster and Senator Grifflid to deliver speeches at the anti-Grant meeting to be held on Monday evening, but without success. Foster, who is here, refused, and Grifflid will double make the same answer when he arrives. They are for Sherman and do not wish to show particular hostility to the Grantites.

FRESH ARRIVALS.

The evening trains yesterday brought another strong contingent of political workers to the city. John W. Finnell, of Kentucky, was among the late arrivals. He said the Kentucky delegation was almost solidly for Grant.

EX-GOVERNOR JOHN D. LEWIS, of New York, thought that the deserters in delegation of his state would not number more than six. In his opinion Grant will have a majority of from 15 to 20 on the first ballot.

Among other prominent arrivals last evening were Congressman Frye, of Maine, Gen. Ben Spooner, of Indiana.

THE UNIT RULE.

The anti-Grant members of the national republican committee had a caucus last night, at which they discussed the proposition to oppose Cameron from the chairmanship of the national committee. The report that Pierpont, Arthur, Eugene Clark, and Chandler held a conference Sunday afternoon and agreed to name a Blaine man for temporary chairman was denied. Horace Porter refused to be interviewed, but Grant was certain to be nominated on the first ballot, and laughed at the idea of any compromise with Blaine, and did not think Blaine would dare to attempt to depose Cameron. Gen. Porter has been in close conference with Conkling, Arthur and other Grant leaders.

DELEGATES COMING.

H. W. Scott, member of the national committee and delegate from Utah, also the balance of the Utah delegation, will reach Chicago to-day. The California and Nevada delegations will reach Chicago to-morrow.

THE BLAINE STRAIN.

The latest arrivals this morning at the Sherman headquarters at the Grand Pacific Hotel, were a number of delegates from the east arrived this morning at nine o'clock. The train consisted of five coaches, containing about 250 delegates, and was accompanied by the Sherman train.

A Martyr.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—4 p. m.—Kearney's role of a martyr has been successful. Last night he was escorted from his home by a brass band and a crowd of hoodlums to the sand lots, where he delivered one of his old speeches.

POLITICS AND PIETY.

How Sabbath was Observed in Chicago.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

CHICAGO, May 30, 10 p. m.—Senator Garfield, of Ohio, arrived this morning, and put in an appearance at the Ohio headquarters.

The heat of political argument reached the fighting point at the Grand Pacific yesterday afternoon, and the deeply interested and excited party giving the lie to another's declaration that Grant could carry Illinois every time, and was knocked down by the discretion. Both were strangers.

Hon. Rose C. Conkling, Senator Jones, Postmaster or James, John H. Burdette and a large portion of the New York delegation arrived yesterday evening by special train.

H. O. Carter, a special delegate from Mississippi, was interrogated as to the prospect of a caucus for the state. He said that if Grant was nominated he would receive his solid vote.

From the moment of his first appearance in the Palmer House this morning, Dr. Douglass, United States Marshal from Washington, has attracted a large number of the public attention, his commanding presence, dark face with bright eyes; kindly smile and flowing snow white hair, making him a prominent figure. Said Mr. Douglass, "I am here to support Grant, and when nominated is just as certain of election. There is not the slightest question about it. I do not expect to be elected on my own personal convictions alone, but from thorough acquaintance and knowledge of the general feeling and leaning of the country. You will find I am a confirmed Grant man." The following members of the national republican committee who have put in an appearance at headquarters are, Harrison Howard, Detroit, Mich.; Frye, Portland, Me.; Averill, Buchanan, Cabot, Chandler, Halsey, Colburn, Egan, Brettre, Clayton, Gorham, Crenk, Pinckham, Filley, Platt, Keogh, Cameron and Cooper, twenty-two out of the forty-six. All except two or three of the executive committee are here.

A cruise among the hotels packed with delegates to-night shows the temper of the night. The heat of the Grantites appear calm and talk very confidently of over 400 votes on the first ballot. Blaine's friends are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead of Blaine. This appears to be Sherman's policy. The Ohio men stand firm for him just as they did for Hayes at the last election. The New York men are not so confident, but they are of the strength of their favorite. The Sherman men are quiet and hopeful. Sherman stock appears to be raising, but at the expense of what other candidate they will support. The first ballot yesterday was that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot, and it is felt he cannot win, a majority of the anti-Grant men will support Sherman and put him away ahead