Yesterday morning the last sad services over the remains of Mrs. John Swift were held at St. Philomena's cathedral. Solemn high mass was celebrated at 10 a. m., and Father English delivered an eloquent address, iu the course of which he paid tribute to the many virtnes of the deceased, and administered words of con solation to her afflicted friends.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. F. McDonagh, Daniel Sullivan, Patrick Whalen, Chas, McDonald, Thomas Kennedy, Thomas McShane, M. Redington, and Fred. Dellone.

The deceased was sixty-eight years old, a native of county Galway, Irelaud, and has been a resident of this country for nearly thirty years and of Omaha for the greater part of that time. She leaves three sons, Michael and Thomas Swift, in this city, and Patrick, now residing in Nevada.

The remains were followed to the ANCIENT DOCUMENTS.

A Link in the History of the Maha Indians. With the permission of the chief the Omahas, who is at present in this city, and through the kindness of Judge Savage, we were shown yester day some interesting documents which have been held by the tribe for several generations, and are yet in an excellent condition. One is dated July 27th, 1806, and s from James Wilkinson, "commander-in-chief of the army of the United States, Governor of the Territory of Louisiana, and Superintendent of Indian Affairs." This was three years after the purchase of the Territory of -One Daniel Curry, a laboring Louisiana by the United States from man swore out a warrant yesterday Napoleon Bonaparie, then first conagainst Joseph Carter, a neighbor, for sul of France.
