

The Omaha Daily

VOL. IX.

OMAHA, NEBRASKA, SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1880.

NO. 306

Established 1871.

MORNING EDITION.

Price Five Cents

POLITICAL POINTS.

One of Tilden's Managers in Conference With Boss Kelly.

Gen. Arthur to be Serenaded and Banqueted by De-lighted Republicans.

Iowa's Greenback Candidate For Auditor Found a De-faulter in $18,000.

The Greenback Socialists Finally Agree on a Ticket.

Grant On Washburn's Al- leged Treachery.

The Greenback Ticket.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

Chicago, June 11, 4 p. m.—The greenback party conven- tion, after a tumult all night session, nomi- nated James B. Weaver for president and B. M. Chambers, of Texas, vice- president.

National Convention.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

New York, June 12—1 a. m.—Col. Len Harris, a democratic poli- tician of Cincinnati who has charge of the arrangements for the democratic national convention at Cincinnati, was in this city yesterday. He says that the most elaborate preparations were being made to render music hall, in which the convention will meet, com- fortable and atractive to the dele- gates. The arrangements for the dele- gates were made for the purpose of being made as comfortable as possible. The main hall would accommodate over 3,000 spectators, not including the 800 delegates and 1,000 reporters. The hall would be handily seated for the dele- gates. No one would be admitted without a ticket.

Col. Harris did not worry. Grant was not nominated, as he considered his army man for the democracy to defeat. He thought the democrats should take up Thurman to defeat Garfield. Harris said that he was for him as well as other voters, and he did not think Tilden would be nominated on the first ballot. Indeed, he did not think Tilden would be in the running at Cincinnati as his friends were pleased to prophecy. He thinks the convention will be likely to retain the time-honored two-man ticket of Grant and Thurman did not secure the nomination the Ohio delegation would be divided between Payne and Jewett.

MYSTERIOUS CONFERENCE.

Mayor Prince, of Boston, was de- ceived with Compton yesterday. Be- fore any one could divine his inten- tion he had laid himself down on the street, and in an instant he was left of his head. It was a shred of a bullet that hung from the nap of his neck, the wheels having passed over his head, flattening out his skull and leaving a disgusting mass of hair, bones and gore on the sidewalk. The truck was loaded with more than five tons of salt. The witness by hundreds of people. The unfortunate was identified as Samuel Ford, a sailor from Phila- delphia.

NO FRAUDULENT VOTING.

Rumor has it that Special Super- visor of elections, John F. Davenport, is beginning to make preparations for a national convention, and a great friend of Tilden.

GRANT'S WEALTH.

It may be added that Grant, while not so poor as many friends have re- ported, is not rolling in millions as represented by his enemies, derives a com- fortable income of about $50,000 a year from his houses and stocks, and he returns to Galena to-day, and in a short time will carry out his contemplated tour to the Rocky mountains. Honoring the Next Vice President.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

St. Louis, June 12, 1 a. m.—Gen. Chester A. Arthur arrived at the Grand Central depot shortly after 7 o'clock last evening from Chicago. A large delegation of republican politi- cians were on hand and tendered the general their hearty congratulations on his good fortune. Arthur will be accompanied at his residence this evening, and early next week a banquet will be given him at the Union League club.

A Greenback Candidate's Bad Arith- metic.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 12, 1 a. m.—The city council, at a recent ses- sion, appointed W. M. Kelly, a local greenback speaker, as an expert to ex- amine the books of ex-City Treasurer Walker, formerly chairman of the greenback state convention and now a candidate for state auditor on the greenback ticket. The report of the expert, just made public, shows a de- ficiency in cash of the treasury of $17,752.63.

ARMY ORDERS.

Leave of absence for one month, with permission to apply for an ex- tension of three months, is granted Second Lieutenant Geo. T. T. Patten- son, R. Q. M., Fourteenth Infantry, (Post Douglas, U. T.).

The commanding officer Fort D. A.

WASHINGTON.

Garfield's Old Army Com- rades Preparing to Re- ceive Him.

Conkling Predicts a Grand Vic- tory for the Ticket in New York.

The Sundry Civil Bill Loaded With Countless Jobs.

First Gun of the Campaign Fired in the House.

Sunset Cox Persists in Haas- ing Speeches of Garfield Road For Examples.

To Show That if Republicans Vote Against the Marshal Bill They Are His Enemies.

Ben Hill Says He Was Always a Union Man.

GARFIELD'S COMRADES PREPARING A RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

Chicago, June 11—4 p. m.—The Journal's Washington special says: Garfield's old army comrades are mak- ing arrangements for a reception should Garfield conclude to come to Washington next week.

CONKLING'S OPINION.

Senator Conkling, since his return here, is reported to have said that the possible candidate for Grant, the best possible candidate that could have been selected, and he predicts a republican majority in New York in November of fifty thousand over the united democracy, but he doubted whether the democracy would be united.

THE SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

passed by the senate yesterday, reached the house this morning. There are about 100 amendments, which increase the amount appropriated by the house by $2,000,000. Many members think the bill a disgrace and calculated to hurt the democratic party. The amendments were non-concurred in, and the bill and amendments were referred to a conference committee.

THE MARSHAL'S BILL.

Immediately after the reading of the journal, the house proceeded to debate the marshal's bill, two hours being al- lowed to the republican and one hour to the democratic side. It is under- stood that when the debate shall have been exhausted a vote will be taken, the republicans having given assuran- ces, with two or three individual ex- ceptions, that they will not filibuster.

ON DECK AGAIN.

WASHINGTON, June 12, 1 a. m.—The senate yesterday rejected the Ohio convention were in their seats yester- day. Senator Conkling looked as though he had recovered from the fatigue of his labors. He was intro- duced to the new senator from Georgia, Mr. Brown, and re- ceived him with his usual grace. Sen- ator Logan was smiling, as if pleased with the result of the convention. Senator Hamlin sent a good portion of the morning hour in conversation with Senator Blaine. Logan remained in his committee room. Plumb and Kellogg moved about and related their experiences at the convention, and told what they thought of the ticket.

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 12—1 a. m.—A bill to authorize the states of Ohio, Indiana, etc., to commence and prosecute suits against the United States in the supreme court for claims on ac- count of the sales of public lands, was passed.

The chair announced the following members from the senate of the joint session provided by the Yorktown monument bill: Johnston, Rollins, Davis, Anthony, Kernan, Radolph, Eaton, Wallace, White, Ransom, Butler, and Hill, of Georgia.

The regular order was taken up, being the Kellogg-Spofford resolution.

Senator Hill, of Georgia, said that he proposed to reply to the remarks made by Hampton and Guller and other senators on the democratic side. He was not surprised, he said, at the republicans' advocacy of Kellogg, for they believed that the Packard legis- lature was the true one, but he was surprised at the position taken by Hampton and Butler. Hill then went on to speak of the suspicious character of the Packard legislature.

Senator Butler interrupted him with the remark that the senator's argument overlooked the previous ac- tion of the senate and would have been sound three years ago, but now it is just three years old.

Senator Butler said that all duties he owed to his seat as senator had been, and that he would not require war to make a Union man. In con- cluding Hill said he had hopes that he had done with this case.

Senator Butler said that if Senator Hill had been introduced in voting to admit him to his seat by personal feeling, he absolved him then and there for all such claim. He did not wish to hold his seat by any such claim. The senate has committed him as being in a dilemma, but this is unnecessary, as his position had al- ways been known, but it is likely that the senator next month will be on the opposite side of this question. It is always pleasant to hear, as we almost do when the senator speaks, that he is always a Union man, but for about four years in the history of the country we didn't hear so much of it. The senator thought it prudent to suppress it for a time.

Senator Hampton also replied and

WASHINGTON.

Garfield's Old Army Com- rades Preparing to Re- ceive Him.

Conkling Predicts a Grand Vic- tory for the Ticket in New York.

The Sundry Civil Bill Loaded With Countless Jobs.

First Gun of the Campaign Fired in the House.

Sunset Cox Persists in Haas- ing Speeches of Garfield Road For Examples.

To Show That if Republicans Vote Against the Marshal Bill They Are His Enemies.

Ben Hill Says He Was Always a Union Man.

GARFIELD'S COMRADES PREPARING A RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

Chicago, June 11—4 p. m.—The Journal's Washington special says: Garfield's old army comrades are mak- ing arrangements for a reception should Garfield conclude to come to Washington next week.

CONKLING'S OPINION.

Senator Conkling, since his return here, is reported to have said that the possible candidate for Grant, the best possible candidate that could have been selected, and he predicts a republican majority in New York in November of fifty thousand over the united democracy, but he doubted whether the democracy would be united.

THE SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

passed by the senate yesterday, reached the house this morning. There are about 100 amendments, which increase the amount appropriated by the house by $2,000,000. Many members think the bill a disgrace and calculated to hurt the democratic party. The amendments were non-concurred in, and the bill and amendments were referred to a conference committee.

THE MARSHAL'S BILL.

Immediately after the reading of the journal, the house proceeded to debate the marshal's bill, two hours being al- lowed to the republican and one hour to the democratic side. It is under- stood that when the debate shall have been exhausted a vote will be taken, the republicans having given assuran- ces, with two or three individual ex- ceptions, that they will not filibuster.

ON DECK AGAIN.

WASHINGTON, June 12, 1 a. m.—The senate yesterday rejected the Ohio convention were in their seats yester- day. Senator Conkling looked as though he had recovered from the fatigue of his labors. He was intro- duced to the new senator from Georgia, Mr. Brown, and re- ceived him with his usual grace. Sen- ator Logan was smiling, as if pleased with the result of the convention. Senator Hamlin sent a good portion of the morning hour in conversation with Senator Blaine. Logan remained in his committee room. Plumb and Kellogg moved about and related their experiences at the convention, and told what they thought of the ticket.

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 12—1 a. m.—A bill to authorize the states of Ohio, Indiana, etc., to commence and prosecute suits against the United States in the supreme court for claims on ac- count of the sales of public lands, was passed.

The chair announced the following members from the senate of the joint session provided by the Yorktown monument bill: Johnston, Rollins, Davis, Anthony, Kernan, Radolph, Eaton, Wallace, White, Ransom, Butler, and Hill, of Georgia.

The regular order was taken up, being the Kellogg-Spofford resolution.

Senator Hill, of Georgia, said that he proposed to reply to the remarks made by Hampton and Guller and other senators on the democratic side. He was not surprised, he said, at the republicans' advocacy of Kellogg, for they believed that the Packard legis- lature was the true one, but he was surprised at the position taken by Hampton and Butler. Hill then went on to speak of the suspicious character of the Packard legislature.

Senator Butler interrupted him with the remark that the senator's argument overlooked the previous ac- tion of the senate and would have been sound three years ago, but now it is just three years old.

Senator Butler said that all duties he owed to his seat as senator had been, and that he would not require war to make a Union man. In con- cluding Hill said he had hopes that he had done with this case.

Senator Butler said that if Senator Hill had been introduced in voting to admit him to his seat by personal feeling, he absolved him then and there for all such claim. He did not wish to hold his seat by any such claim. The senate has committed him as being in a dilemma, but this is unnecessary, as his position had al- ways been known, but it is likely that the senator next month will be on the opposite side of this question. It is always pleasant to hear, as we almost do when the senator speaks, that he is always a Union man, but for about four years in the history of the country we didn't hear so much of it. The senator thought it prudent to suppress it for a time.

Senator Hampton also replied and

WASHINGTON.

Garfield's Old Army Com- rades Preparing to Re- ceive Him.

Conkling Predicts a Grand Vic- tory for the Ticket in New York.

The Sundry Civil Bill Loaded With Countless Jobs.

First Gun of the Campaign Fired in the House.

Sunset Cox Persists in Haas- ing Speeches of Garfield Road For Examples.

To Show That if Republicans Vote Against the Marshal Bill They Are His Enemies.

Ben Hill Says He Was Always a Union Man.

GARFIELD'S COMRADES PREPARING A RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

Chicago, June 11—4 p. m.—The Journal's Washington special says: Garfield's old army comrades are mak- ing arrangements for a reception should Garfield conclude to come to Washington next week.

CONKLING'S OPINION.

Senator Conkling, since his return here, is reported to have said that the possible candidate for Grant, the best possible candidate that could have been selected, and he predicts a republican majority in New York in November of fifty thousand over the united democracy, but he doubted whether the democracy would be united.

THE SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

passed by the senate yesterday, reached the house this morning. There are about 100 amendments, which increase the amount appropriated by the house by $2,000,000. Many members think the bill a disgrace and calculated to hurt the democratic party. The amendments were non-concurred in, and the bill and amendments were referred to a conference committee.

THE MARSHAL'S BILL.

Immediately after the reading of the journal, the house proceeded to debate the marshal's bill, two hours being al- lowed to the republican and one hour to the democratic side. It is under- stood that when the debate shall have been exhausted a vote will be taken, the republicans having given assuran- ces, with two or three individual ex- ceptions, that they will not filibuster.

ON DECK AGAIN.

WASHINGTON, June 12, 1 a. m.—The senate yesterday rejected the Ohio convention were in their seats yester- day. Senator Conkling looked as though he had recovered from the fatigue of his labors. He was intro- duced to the new senator from Georgia, Mr. Brown, and re- ceived him with his usual grace. Sen- ator Logan was smiling, as if pleased with the result of the convention. Senator Hamlin sent a good portion of the morning hour in conversation with Senator Blaine. Logan remained in his committee room. Plumb and Kellogg moved about and related their experiences at the convention, and told what they thought of the ticket.

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 12—1 a. m.—A bill to authorize the states of Ohio, Indiana, etc., to commence and prosecute suits against the United States in the supreme court for claims on ac- count of the sales of public lands, was passed.

The chair announced the following members from the senate of the joint session provided by the Yorktown monument bill: Johnston, Rollins, Davis, Anthony, Kernan, Radolph, Eaton, Wallace, White, Ransom, Butler, and Hill, of Georgia.

The regular order was taken up, being the Kellogg-Spofford resolution.

Senator Hill, of Georgia, said that he proposed to reply to the remarks made by Hampton and Guller and other senators on the democratic side. He was not surprised, he said, at the republicans' advocacy of Kellogg, for they believed that the Packard legis- lature was the true one, but he was surprised at the position taken by Hampton and Butler. Hill then went on to speak of the suspicious character of the Packard legislature.

Senator Butler interrupted him with the remark that the senator's argument overlooked the previous ac- tion of the senate and would have been sound three years ago, but now it is just three years old.

Senator Butler said that all duties he owed to his seat as senator had been, and that he would not require war to make a Union man. In con- cluding Hill said he had hopes that he had done with this case.

Senator Butler said that if Senator Hill had been introduced in voting to admit him to his seat by personal feeling, he absolved him then and there for all such claim. He did not wish to hold his seat by any such claim. The senate has committed him as being in a dilemma, but this is unnecessary, as his position had al- ways been known, but it is likely that the senator next month will be on the opposite side of this question. It is always pleasant to hear, as we almost do when the senator speaks, that he is always a Union man, but for about four years in the history of the country we didn't hear so much of it. The senator thought it prudent to suppress it for a time.

Senator Hampton also replied and

FOREIGN EVENTS.

Parnell to Speak on Irish Re- lief in House of Com- mons.

Marauding Band of Pirates Un- dermine and Blow up an Albanian Village.

Constitutional Government For Egypt.

American Rifleman to be Hon- ored in Ireland.

IRISH RELIEF AND PARLIAMENT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, June 12, 1 a. m.—The house of commons last night debated the Irish distress relief bill, and were adjourned on Friday, when Mr. Parnell will speak.

GAGGING FREE THOUGHT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, June 12, 1 a. m.—The sale of the book "Police i Comedy of the French railroad stations at the request of the German government.

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT FOR EGYPT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

ALEXANDRIA, June 12—1 a. m.—The khedive in addressing the council of ministers yesterday expressed his willingness to grant Egypt a constitution and a parliament, but thought that the majority of the people were not yet sufficiently educated for it.

AMERICAN RIFLEMAN TO BE HONORED IN IRELAND.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, June 12, 1 a. m.—On the arrival at Queenstown of the American rifle team, which sailed from New York on the 30th inst., they will be met by a reception committee from Dublin. On Monday they will be entertained by Sir John Arnot, Com- mandeur of the Royal Western yacht club of Ireland, and Tuesday will proceed to Dublin.

PIRATES UNDERMINE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

VIENNA, June 12—1 a. m.—The pirates are ravaging the central vil- lages in Asia Minor. The colony of the agency at Bologn, in Albania, was undermined and blown up, and sev- eral officials wounded.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Money and Stock.

NEW YORK, June 11.

MONEY—Market at 3 1/2 per cent.

GOVERNMENTS—BULL.

STOCKS.

NEW YORK, June 11.

Wheat—Active and lower; offerings large; 94@94 1/2 for June; 93@94 1/2 for July; 92@93 1/2 for August; 89@90 for September; 87@88 for October; 85@86 for November; 83@84 for December.

FOREIGN EVENTS.

Parnell to Speak on Irish Re- lief in House of Com- mons.

Marauding Band of Pirates Un- dermine and Blow up an Albanian Village.

Constitutional Government For Egypt.

American Rifleman to be Hon- ored in Ireland.

IRISH RELIEF AND PARLIAMENT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, June 12, 1 a. m.—The house of commons last night debated the Irish distress relief bill, and were adjourned on Friday, when Mr. Parnell will speak.

GAGGING FREE THOUGHT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, June 12, 1 a. m.—The sale of the book "Police i Comedy of the French railroad stations at the request of the German government.

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT FOR EGYPT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

ALEXANDRIA, June 12—1 a. m.—The khedive in addressing the council of ministers yesterday expressed his willingness to grant Egypt a constitution and a parliament, but thought that the majority of the people were not yet sufficiently educated for it.

AMERICAN RIFLEMAN TO BE HONORED IN IRELAND.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, June 12, 1 a. m.—On the arrival at Queenstown of the American rifle team, which sailed from New York on the 30th inst., they will be met by a reception committee from Dublin. On Monday they will be entertained by Sir John Arnot, Com- mandeur of the Royal Western yacht club of Ireland, and Tuesday will proceed to Dublin.

PIRATES UNDERMINE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

VIENNA, June 12—1 a. m.—The pirates are ravaging the central vil- lages in Asia Minor. The colony of the agency at Bologn, in Albania, was undermined and blown up, and sev- eral officials wounded.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Money and Stock.

NEW YORK, June 11.

MONEY—Market at 3 1/2 per cent.

GOVERNMENTS—BULL.

STOCKS.

NEW YORK, June 11.

Wheat—Active and lower; offerings large; 94@94 1/2 for June; 93@94 1/2 for July; 92@93 1/2 for August; 89@90 for September; 87@88 for October; 85@86 for November; 83@84 for December.

FOREIGN EVENTS.

Parnell to Speak on Irish Re- lief in House of Com- mons.

Marauding Band of Pirates Un- dermine and Blow up an Albanian Village.

Constitutional Government For Egypt.

American Rifleman to be Hon- ored in Ireland.

IRISH RELIEF AND PARLIAMENT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, June 12, 1 a. m.—The house of commons last night debated the Irish distress relief bill, and were adjourned on Friday, when Mr. Parnell will speak.

GAGGING FREE THOUGHT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, June 12, 1 a. m.—The sale of the book "Police i Comedy of the French railroad stations at the request of the German government.

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT FOR EGYPT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

ALEXANDRIA, June 12—1 a. m.—The khedive in addressing the council of ministers yesterday expressed his willingness to grant Egypt a constitution and a parliament, but thought that the majority of the people were not yet sufficiently educated for it.

AMERICAN RIFLEMAN TO BE HONORED IN IRELAND.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

LONDON, June 12, 1 a. m.—On the arrival at Queenstown of the American rifle team, which sailed from New York on the 30th inst., they will be met by a reception committee from Dublin. On Monday they will be entertained by Sir John Arnot, Com- mandeur of the Royal Western yacht club of Ireland, and Tuesday will proceed to Dublin.

PIRATES UNDERMINE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

VIENNA, June 12—1 a. m.—The pirates are ravaging the central vil- lages in Asia Minor. The colony of the agency at Bologn, in Albania, was undermined and blown up, and sev- eral officials wounded.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Money and Stock.

NEW YORK, June 11.

MONEY—Market at 3 1/2 per cent.

GOVERNMENTS—BULL.

STOCKS.