Arrested on Suspicion. Yesterday the police arrested at the depot a fashionably attired man, giving the name of Dr. Frank Purdy, supposed to be a man wanted in Iowa for operating in confidence games. He was lodged in jail to await further developments. Several towns in Iowa were telegraphed, but no answers were received of sufficient importance to warrant his being held. He was released in the evening.

Bernstein Wields a Bludgeon With Disastrous Effect Upon One Rosenthal.

Assailant Released His Bond for $1000.

Yesterday's edition contained a brief mention of a trial being held at the District court in which one Schiller was charged with stealing a quantity of laces, etc., from one Samuel Resenthal. The result of the trisl was the acquitting of Schiller. This case seems to have been but the baginning of a general disturbance in the lower strata of our Jewish population. A scene occurred in the court room during the trial. A Hebrew tailor of this town seized a witness by the collar and gave him a thorough shaking up for referring to his wife in improper terms. The trouble culminated about 9 o'clock last night by one Rosenthal being struck on the head and laid out in an insensible condition by a club in the hands of some person while he was apples, at Tizard's. talking to a friend on Douglas street opposite the Metropolitan hotel. He was carried to a drug store in the State of neighborhood, and from thence con- Wednesday. veyed in a carriage to the room of a friend on Dodge street, where a physician attended him.

Deputy Marshal Westerdahl accompanied by a reporter of the BEE found the wounded man laying on the floor of the drug-store. He was unable to answer any questions, but a bystander, an Israelite, also, volunteered the information that he had seen the deed committed by one Bernstein, a notion merchant living on Douglas, between Tenth and Eleventh streets. Bernstein was found in a room back of his store, entertaining company, among whom was a well-known attorney of this town. When told that he was wanted, his first question was, "Where is your warrant l" but upon being advised by his legal visitor he accompanied the deputy marshal to the police

Judge Hawes visited the wounded man, who having recovered sufficiently to talk, stated that Bernstein was his assailant. The dector pronounced the man not fatally wounded, and the prisoner was released on his bond for returns will show the population of the state to be over 500,000 as against 128,000 in 1870. This will give it four congressmen, which, the senator vouches, will be all republicans, but they will not take seats until the 48th congress. The state will show also that, while the state has increased rendered the grounds nearly as light over 300 per cent in population in four years, the city of Omaha has only 1,600 more residents than at the last census-proving that the great major-

The Helena (Montana) Herald says Among the many welcome items contained in the announcement of our delegate as fruits of the last session of congress none is more welcome than that concerning the upper Missouri river, and that work is to begin at once at Half breed rapids, the chief ouranticipations that the surveys made this spring make a favorable showing, and were so reported. It sometimes happens that superficial surveys made by those anxious for a favorable result do not stand the test of more accurate working surveys made by experienced and disjuterested engineers. The work has been pronounced feasible by government engineers, and is to be begun at once. Once begun it will be carried to completion, and the river from the falls to the Three Forks will become a highway of commerce.

Within two years at farthest we may expect to see steamboats plying their Mrs. Maggie Miller. regular trips in connection with others below the falls, landing their freights within twelve miles of Helena.
