

THE DAILY BEE.

B. ROSEWATER EDITOR.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Our Correspondents we will always please to receive from all persons connected with our country, either in the shape of news, information, or correspondence, on any subject whatever, of general interest to the people of our state. Any information connected with politics, or relating to funds, &c., &c., will be gladly received. All such communications must be as full as possible, and they must all be sent by mail, on one of the State roads. In each, meet in each, and every community any communication of what interests us. This is not intended for publication, but for our own satisfaction and at good time.

Editor.

A correspondence follows for information—whether friends or enemies, and whether in the state or communities to the N.Y., and such like, are made simple, as well as clearly understood. We are desirous of collecting all kinds of literary material, so we will not undertake to preserve it, but we will do so in case where it is of great value to us. For example, large documents which shortly may be addressed to the Editor.

"The legislature shall pass laws to correct abuses and prevent against discrimination and extortion in all charges of express, telegraph and railroad companies in this state and enforce such laws by adequate penalties to the extent, if necessary, for that purpose, of forfeiture of their property and franchises." NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:
JAMES A. GARFIELD, of Ohio.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
CHAS. A. ARTHUR, of New York.

GENERAL Garrison's progress yesterday from his home to Buffalo, en route to New York, was one continuous creation.

GLADSTONE is reported as better, but the annual banquets given by the Lord Mayor to the ministry has been indefinitely postponed until after his recovery.

SENATOR WITHERS, of Virginia, has been elected to the Presidency of Blackwood college. Mr. Withers is an ardent red-shitter, and it is understood that this is not the first time he has gone black-burning.

The exodus from Canada to the United States during the last year has been remarkable. At the point of Fort Smith, U.S. census reports that 17,000 Kromicks crossed over to the United States shore during the last twelve months.

Some of the disgruntled repeaters in this city who are indignant that their cause is gone, and that their county committee should not have been changed till this fall. They evidently forgot that famous report made by Charley Banks, chairman, about the Indian campaign fund. If the middle committee had been perpetuated, the republican party in Douglas county would have disbanded.

The New Orleans Picayune learns with surprise that a $300,000 edition will be to created in New Orleans, and wonders why it wasn't placed on the banks of the Mississippi, in a cotton growing country. The expansion is easy. Capital seeks investment where the laws are best used, and where she lives and property of the laborers employed will be safe. Capital and labor alike steer clear of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

The Afghan situation is, to say the least, very alarming. The newcomer by his actions is exciting grave suspicion of his loyalty to the British, who seated him on the throne at Cabul. General Primrose is imprisoned within the walls of Cabul. The hill tribes are constantly receiving reinforcements, and are pushing on to join the victorious Ayoub. Full particulars of the recent disastrous battle prove that the British defeat was owing almost as much to superior generalship on the part of Ayoub as to superior numbers.

Liberator papers in various states are making calculations of the effects of the census returns on the new apportionment of representatives. The present number of members of the house is 233, elected on a basis of 151,425 to the congressional district. Any great increase in the house of representatives would make that body too large and unwieldy. The general impression is that the new apportionment will be made on a basis of 160,000, who, excepting in the western states, will not materially increase the representation.

Mr. Forster's Irish Compensation Bill was rejected 3-4-5, evening in the House of Lords, by the decisive vote of 281 against 32. There has been little prospect of its passage since its introduction into the House of Commons. It was radical in some of its features, and weak in others. It provided for a premium on rent striking, while the counties to which some of its operations were restricted were by no means the most in need of such assistance. The bill was opposed on the one hand by the landlord element and on the other by a number of the most influential of the Irish reformers. Both sides claimed, perhaps truly, that as a measure of relief it would prove a failure, and both sides, while admitting the necessity of some reform, failed to find in the compensation bill, any adequate solution of the problem. Although the bill has failed to pass the upper house, its introduction by the ministry and its passage by the commons has given the Irish people an assurance of the earnest endeavors of Mr. Gladstone and his party, to meet the pressing demands of an oppressed country, and this persistence of the former in forcing it to a vote, despite the entreaties of many of his friends and the threats of his enemies, is a proof of that un-daubed integrity which characterizes the man and which refuses to see obstacles in the pursuit of what he believes to be justice and right.

Editor.

What is the meaning of this word "reconciliation"? Why is "the south" not "reconciled"? Is "the south" to be forgotten? Is "the south" to play a part in the reconstruction of the disunion of congress? The ratio may be increased or diminished by a new appointment.

CONVICTION BEFORE TRIAL.
The republicans of Douglas county and all intelligent republicans in the state understand that the prime object of the men who own and control the Omaha Republican is to subserve the interests of the Union Pacific monopoly. That corporation controls the editors of that sheet as absolutely as it does the superintendents of its road. Jay Gould and his Nebraska managers care nothing for the republican party or the democratic party, but they have an interest in controlling men that represent us in the legislatures, whether state or national. Ever since Jay Gould came into control of the Union Pacific he has endeavored to run the machinery of parties in the state, through subordinates who made political a special business. Now it so happens that the republican party is largely in majority in Nebraska, hence the monopoly managers have operated mainly through that party. In Douglas county, where the parties are very nearly evenly balanced, the monopoly managers have for years manipulated the primaries and conventions of both parties. Our primary-leaders have been a stupid, one and disgraceful farce. Whole brigades of railroad railway employees have been prominently thrown into the various wards and voted regardless of their political faith. Gangs of repeaters, organized under the direction of monopoly-henchmen, bums and debases imported from Iowa, and gravel trains loaded with non-resident section hands have participated in our party primary elections and made our nominations. This state of affairs very naturally demoralized all parties. Scores of the best republicans, disgusted with the primary frauds, have bolted the party ticket at every general election and hundreds of democrats equally disgusted with the manipulations of their conventions and primaries, by the same agency, have refused to ratify the work of the U. P. bosses. The corrupt manipulation of primaries and conventions of both parties, made it hopeless for respectable Democrats and Republicans and generally resulted in our misrepresentation in the state and national legislature.

For the first time in many years, the Union Pacific monopoly has lost control of party machinery in Douglas county. The Republicans are now committed, to abate the primary election frauds, have established regulations that will ensure an honest, transparent expression of party sentiment. And this is why the monopoly organ has set up such a terrible howl. Like the assassins, at the outbreak of the war, who pronounced Lincoln a tyrant and usurper before he had ever taken his seat, and precipitated the war without an act, the monopoly henchmen, who have pronounced the entire system of republican regulations and measures to prevent double voting and ballot-box stuffing, a nefarious scheme to defraud the party. Without waiting to know who the voters will be, they pronounce them a host of villains and scoundrels who will falsify the records and who would violate their instructions for the purpose of disfranchising honest republicans. In the face of the fact that the registration list is to be published and posted so that everybody may copy it, the Republicans charge that men will be voted who do not appear on the register, and that the judges of election will refuse to let men vote who are registered. Republicans usually judge every voter to be a member of his party. With such a record, in which no flaw appears, Mr. Hamlin has earned the respect of all.

Senators Wade Hampton and Z. B. Vance spoke at a democratic ratification meeting in Staunton, Va., on the 22d inst., and announced that they will make several speeches in Ohio and Indiana. After the senator's term of office expires he will make his home in Ohio, where his wife has relatives living.

According to the Boston Herald, Mr. Davis' friends say that he will not run for the vice-presidency of Massachusetts this year, but will make matters lively in the Seventh District, where he will be the independent Greenback Labor-Reform Democratic candidate for Congress.

The venerable Senator Hamlin, who promises to retire as soon as his term expires, has been in public life as legislator, governor, congressman, vice-president and senator for 18 years. He is a quiet, simple person, a long period than that covered by the services of any of his present associates. With such a record, in which no flaw appears, Mr. Hamlin has earned the respect of all.

Lincoln.

That the Leidtke matter is a political question of some kind is quite evident, and, sprung just at the present moment, it breaks the state which the republican papers all over the state had tacitly agreed to—"the renomination of their present state officers, with the exception, perhaps, of Davis and Thompson." Of course, Leidtke is guilty now to the hilt, but the republican rule again upon the south branch, a slogan high enough to start a riot, some tears to the eyes of Massa."

Two races, one moral and the other economical, will help to make Garfield the next President of the United States.

The first is the awakened spirit of the north which revolts against putting the government in the hands of the South, a section in which tree growth and no frauds can be perpetrated without the constant threat of the South.

That is a sample of what the Repub-ican can call real and open primaries in Omaha. We don't wonder, however, that any effort to put a stop to the system meets with violent resistance. Republicans who want honest elections and a fair expression of party sentiment will not, however, be influenced by those howling henchmen who pretend to be a terrible hogger in the woodpile. The registration will be conducted by honorable men, No Republican who presents himself for registration will be disfranchised. This will be published. No ad�ice will be given to them after registration has closed. Every registered Republican will be allowed to vote at the primaries, but repeaters and Democrats will take away. The return certified to by the judges of election, accompanied by the bill of lading, poll lists and registry list, will be placed in the hands of the convention, and no frauds can be perpetrated without the constant threat of the South.

The second force springs from the popular nerves of the people, and commands business met to act upon the principle, "We'll have no more alone."

The case is so clear and the argument in a continuance of the republicans to the understanding of the aborigines and the south, that we believe the second force alone would determine the result of the next election. With both forces working constantly, irresistibly, in favor of the republican ticket, our faith grows stronger day by day that

Garfield and Arthur will carry every northern state.
