Let there be no delay in registering for the republican primaries. The registrars will be in session Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. The American Union messenger boys are out in a handsome and attractive uniform.

Those who are really honest in their professions of regard for pure politics will register at once. For Lands, Lots, Houses and Farms, look over Bemis' new column on last page. Bargains. For Rent—Store building, 174 Farnham street, bet. 11th and 12th. Apply to Jno. A. Creighton.

Remember that to vote in the primaries you must be registered and two days remain for that act. Lots, Farms, Houses and Lands. Look over Bemis' new column of bargains on last page. Drs. Dismore and Gifford, Homeopathic Physicians and Surgeons, Williams Block, cor. 15th and D street, office. Three cases of drunk reported to Judge Hawes Tuesday morning. Two were let off and the other one paid $3 and costs.

The State Journal comes to us today enlarged in form and greatly improved in appearance. Our congratulations are modestly tendered. The case of John B. Finch against The Lincoln Democrat will be called for trial at the fall term, the demurrer of the defendant being over ruled by Judge Pound.

Chas. H. Williams, who was arrested on the charge of burglarizing the Metropolitan hotel, was discharged from custody Monday on account of a failure to prosecute. Last night Mr. Lytle was up as usual until the family retired, which was quite early, and this morning he arose a little after six o'clock, and again taking the gun, started off for a walk. He was last seen alive by Miss A. Sullivan, at 6:20, and was soon after missed by the family. This being his third unexpected and mysterious absence from his family, they were considerably alarmed, and his son John M. Lytle, Jr., went to search for him, following the path he had taken before. He passed the house referred to above, entered the woods and was returning unsuccessful in his search, when the object of that search was revealed to him, but in a condition that more than realized his worst fears. The body was lying due east and west upon the ground, the arms were crossed upon the breast, and the gun, the fatal instrument of death, lay across his breast from the right side. One barrel was empty, and the hammer standing back ready to fire. A charge of No. 8 shot had been sent through the head and had done its work upon the forehead and fatal effect. Upon the discovery of the body the horrified son hastened to notify the coroner, and to do so without alarming his mother he took a roundabout way to the city. Coroner Jacobs being absent his duties devolved upon Sheriff Guy, who sent for the remains and had them conveyed to the undertaker's rooms, where they arrived about 10 o'clock. Here a jury was impaneled consisting of Henry Grebe (foreman), C. S. Goodrich, Joe Teahon, Frank Hanson, Peter Gosw and Capt. Tyler, and at 11 o'clock an inquest was held, the family of the deceased and those who had witnessed the finding of the body alone testifying. While the former were inclined to think the fatal occurrence accidental, such was evidently not the opinion of the jury, who, in accordance with the facts above given, found "that the deceased came to his death by a shot fired by his own hand, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity."

The remains were confined and will be taken to-morrow morning east to Pittsburg, for interment, with place they will be accompanied by Mr. Johnson. We believe the family consists of the bereaved wife, a son nineteen years of age, John M. Lytle, Jr., and the step-son, Mr. Johnson.

The public are notified not to give credit on my account to my wife, Edith Shirock, as I will not pay any debts contracted by her. F. T. SHIROCK. August 17th, 1880. Clocks to suit everybody, at Edholm & Erickson's, opposite the Postoffice. Nice Fresh Pines, 75 cents per bushel; apples, 30 cents per pack, and sweet flavored watermelons, at low figures, quarantined to be ripe. Eagle Mills Flour only $3.35 per 100 pounds. Give this splendid Winter Wheat Flour a trial and you will use no other. WILLS M. YARZ.

Headquarters for Joe Schiller's Milwaukee beer at Merchants' Exchange, N. E. Cor. 16th and Dodge. Read the following: Mr. John M. Lytle of Pittsburg, Penn., Takes His Own Life. While Laboring Under a Temporary Aberration of Mind. The Remains Taken East for Interment. A sad case of suicide occurred yesterday, the victim being Mr. J. M. Lytle, step-father of Mr. Ed. Johnson, of the firm of R. C. Steele and Johnson, of this city. Mr. Lytle came to this city about three weeks ago, accompanied by Mrs. Lytle, with the expectation of purchasing a farm and permanently locating in the vicinity. His former home was near Pittsburg, Pa. He was a man of about forty-six years of age, happily in all his domestic relations and with apparently no cause for wanting to rid himself of life. He was in fact heard repeatedly to express his abhorrence for one who would take his own life, which had been given him by his Maker, who alone had the right to take life away.

In April last, however, a change was noticed in the condition of the deceased. On one occasion he went with his wife to Pittsburg, and going out for a walk did not return for two days, during which time his family was in great anxiety for his safety. On his return he said in reply to questions as to where he had been he said he did not know; he had been wandering around the streets, and when he came to he found himself at a hotel near the depot, in bed. After this affair it was noticed by his family that his mind seemed somewhat impaired, or rather that he was "childish." It was on this account that it was determined to come out west, it being hoped that the quiet routine of country life and the pure air of this western country would benefit him. About two weeks ago Mr. Ed. Johnson, his step-son, took him out to look at a farm and took his gun, a double barrel breach-loading shotgun, shooting it off a few times on the way. On returning home the gun was not immediately cleaned and when Mr. Johnson went to clean it a few days later he found it had taken the charge that deceased had taken the gun and gone for a walk. He was much frightened and followed him to the new house near Reese's woods, but not finding him returned alone. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon the deceased returned and said he had been sick with the cramps in the woods. Last night Mr. Lytle was up as usual until the family retired, which was quite early, and this morning he arose a little after six o'clock, and again taking the gun, started off for a walk. He was last seen alive by Miss A. Sullivan, at 6:20, and was soon after missed by the family. AUDACIOUS IMPOSTORS.

How the U. P. Emisarios are Getting Signers to that Bogus Protest. Thurston's Man Friday. During the past few days our business men and all classes of citizens have been beset by a swarm of U. P. emisarios, some of whom wear the livery of The Omaha Republican, beseeching signatures to a protest against registration.

We have already shown how signatures to that document were procured by the bosses at the U. P. headquarters. A number of persons from this city and from the country have called at this office to-day and report that the most shameless imposture has been practiced in this country, through the instrumentality of Thurston's man Friday, Hanson. A day or two ago a Scandinavian ex-portal carrier, called at Her's distillery and induced a number of workmen of his nationality to sign by representing that they would not be entitled to vote at the primaries unless they signed that document. He was detected in the fraud before he left the premises, and some of them had their names taken off.

In the second ward a number of Bohemians were bamboozled into signing the same paper on assurance that they were being registered as republican voters. Mr. John Bloom, of Millard, who came in to-day, reports that the notorious beat Elias Ritschel had been industriously circulating the protest among the German farmers of that district, and pretending to act as registrar. A farmer in another precinct, who was circulating that protest, came in to-day, and when asked who asked him to carry it around, said Mr. Frank Hanson.

"Did you know who Mr. Frank Hanson is?" "Well, I know him. Don't know exactly what his business is." "Well he is a Union Pacific spy—detective, if you want to draw it mild—Thurston's man Friday." The young man felt rather cheap at having been playing catpaw for the U. P.

A large number of colored people are said to have signed the paper and it is safe to say that not one of the number ever read it. We understand that both in the country and in town, the bogus protest is being signed precipitately by all classes, republicans, democrats and greenbackers, and yet the impudent impostors will have the cheek, probably, to present this paper as a voluntary demonstration against registration to the next convention.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. C. W. Mead and children left for Chicago last night. Miss Jennie McKoon returned from the west on Sunday. Miss Annie Dunham has returned home from Burlington. N. C. Treat, traveling agent of the C. & B. Q., went west yesterday. Mr. E. B. Chandler has returned from a long absence in New Mexico. John M. Adjusted to 17th inst. JOSEPH R. MANCHESTER, County Clerk. The Fremont Prisoner Was Not Alexander Mc-Gregor, of Iowa. A Flat Contradiction of One of the Bender's Lies. During the late Bender excitement, Mr. George W. Kendall, of this city, who formerly resided in McGregor, Iowa, and who at the time of the horrible atrocities committed in Kansas was frequently called to Labette county on business, wrote to Mr. R. Hubbard, postmaster at McGregor, concerning the identity of these prisoners with the founders of that town. It will be remembered that among other claims put forth by the singular couple was one that the old man was one of the founders of McGregor, and that it was named after him. The reply made another falsehood of the many told and adds to the mystery of their arrest and confessions. Mr. Hubbard says: "In the family of McGregor, after whom this city was named, were three sons, named respectively, Alexander, James, Jr., and Duncan. The first named was the first resident here. In very early times he lived with his family in Prairie du Chien, Wis., on the opposite side of the river, and he owned and operated a ferry across the river at that place. He was one of the first to build and reside on this side of the river. Alexander died in this city August 12, 1858. His widow and son George still reside on the old homestead in this city, and another son named Gardner is married and resides in this county. Alexander's brother James came here later and made this his home for many years. He also had a pecuniary interest in this city. He died about 1858. Duncan, the other brother, has always made New York his home. I gave some credence to the statement of these would-be-Benders until they asserted that the old man was the founder of this town, but since then I have lost confidence in them. These Benders ought to be hung for their unmitigated lies. When he states that he was married and resided in this town, he commits flat burglary as was ever perpetrated on the name of a very worthy and highly respected family. So great a liar as your prisoner seems to be, should be strung up in general principles. Tilden would pronounce him a 'fraud.' Mr. Kendall is convinced that while this part of their story was false, the prisoners were really the genuine Benders, and that the reason they were not identified was that the ruin of the butchers of Cherryvale meant the ruin of two-thirds of the population of that vicinity, who were more or less bound up with the fate of the fiends and feared a confession from them before they could be executed."

SEEKING SALVATION. A Great Gathering of the Goddess to Hear the Gospel at Bennet. The Burning Words of Devout Deacons Sets Countess Souls on Fire. Satan's Occupation Gone. Correspondence of the Bee. The Bennett camp meeting is located on a branch of the B. & M. R., fifteen miles southeast from Lincoln. Thirty-eight tents are pitched on the ground. They are here from all parts of our state, and from Iowa. They seem all to have come just for one purpose, to serve God. Sinners have been deeply convinced and converted. Numbers have been saved through the cleansing blood of the lamb. The meetings are growing in interest each time we meet, and Rev. J. P. Roe, of Omaha, has just delivered one of the grandest sermons of the meeting. At times his audience were bathed in tears, then again they would be thrilled with joy as they listened to his burning words, and the shouts of "Amen," and "Glory to the Lamb," could be heard all over the ground. Many were led to seek Christ at this time, and still the fire burns more and more. May God increase it to a mighty flame in our prayer. Thirty ministers and five thousand people were present. THE SATURDAY DAY. At 5:30 a. m. a large audience of earnest men and women met in the large tent and poured out their desires to God and he speedily heard and answered their prayers. At 8 o'clock Elder H. T. Davis preached an excellent sermon on "Reached an excellent sermon on 'Reached sanctification,' which God blessed to many hearts, and many were persuaded to give themselves fully to Christ. It thrilled our heart with joy to hear the shouts of victory through the blood. At 1:30 a very interesting children's meeting was held. It melted the hearts of some of the old hardened ones to hear the children tell of the love of Jesus to them. At 3 p. m. Rev. Mather preached on the "Baptism of the Holy Ghost," for one hour, and it was a most precious description. He held the large audience in perfect awe, while describing the day of Pentecost; some wept, some shouted, while the baptism of the Holy Ghost seemed to fall on all the people. It can't be realized only by an eye-witness. At 6 p. m. there were three different meetings held on the ground at the same time, and God was wonderfully present to save. Rev. Wilson preached in the evening to a very attentive audience. Many came to the altar and were saved through the blood of the crucified One, and still the wave is rising. "Lord let it flow." Amen. L. Peace Commissioners. Gov. Nance has nominated M. L. Hayward, Esq., of Nebraska City, and Guy C. Barton, of North Platte, commissioners from Nebraska to the Centennial of Peace at New York in 1883, with M. K. Turner, of Columbus, and F. A. Harman, of Bloomington, as alternates. Real Estate Transfers. George E. Boggs and wife and Lew W. Hill to Charles and Andrew Harman, w. d. lot 2, block 2, Boggs & Hill's addition, city of Omaha—$200. Wm. F. Heiss, county treasurer, to T. R. Hendrix: d. n. j., sec. 31, T. 15, R. 10—$83.93. Samuel E. Rogers and wife to Patrick Lynch: w. d. lot 5, block 3, S. E. Ryger's addition, city of Omaha—$200.

ONLY THREE DAYS MORE.

And Registration of Republican Voters Will Close. A Duty Which Every Honest Republican Owe to Himself and the Country. Only three days more remain for the registration of republicans under regulations adopted by the county committee. The desperate effort which the Union Pacific managers and their organ are making to defeat this reform is the best proof of its utility in the interest of the people. Every republican who wants an honest expression of our party through the delegates to the state convention and the candidates who are to represent us in the next legislature, should have himself enrolled on the registration list. Nobody can be registered unless he makes a personal application to the registrars. For the convenience of all classes of republicans four registration offices have been opened, viz: At Ferguson's drug store, corner Twelfth and Douglas; Parr's drug store, Tenth and Howard; Rooder's drug store, corner Webster and Sixteenth; and Titus' drug store, Thirtieth street. The hours of registration at these places will be from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., 3 p. m. to 5 p. m., and 7 to 9 p. m.

THE DEADLY FLASH.

Yesterday's Storm and the Thunderbolt's Aim. Striking All Around. About four o'clock Monday afternoon the rain storm of the day recommenced with great fury, the rain falling in torrents and a most violent display of electricity accompanying it. The lightning was very vivid and as each flash of thunder rolled overhead with deafening distinctness, it became evident that it was getting into work. One thunderbolt struck a brick chimney on the northern section of the smelting works, taking off one corner of the stack, running down through the roof, and thence into the ground. Four men were knocked down by the shock, one of whom was Mr. Chase, one of the foremen. These men were all quite severely shocked, and there was not a man in or around the works that was not more or less affected. A few moments later a terrible shock was felt by all those who were in the stores in the vicinity of the A. & P. telegraph office. This time the lightning struck the wires on the corner of Fifteenth and Farnham, passed into the telegraph office, where it caused reports "like a 24 pound Parrot gun," and scared the lady operators half to death. The stroke then reversed its course and went to the Western Union office, and from thence to the Omaha elevators, where it melted the heavy telegraph coil. Parties living near the A. & P. office said that the thunder seemed to roll right up the street past the doors, while the electricity filled the rooms and in one instance paralyzed the arm of a lady who stood leaning on the counter. In the suburbs considerable damage was done to trees, houses, etc. At the poor farm one of the men, Morten Rasmussen, was coming out of the door of an out-house when a bolt struck him on the cheek. It passed down his side and into the ground, leaving his face and side as black as ebony. The same bolt struck another inmate named Coffman and knocked him down. At the close of the storm the air was of a peculiar color, resembling the effect of an eclipse, and was observed by everybody. The following is from The Lincoln Journal: There is no disguising the fact that the corn crop of the state, particularly in this latitude and the Republican valley, has suffered more or less for the want of rain. Much of it, particularly that planted late, was dried up, and many of our farmers have been busily engaged in cutting it up for feed. But the rains of last Sunday and yesterday will put a stop to cutting it up. From parties who arrived from all parts of the state on yesterday's trains we learn that the rain has been general throughout the state. North of us a heavy rain fall occurred Sunday morning and night. At Oret, only twenty miles from Lincoln, the rain came down in torrents during Sunday afternoon. Even Milford, twenty miles west of us, was blessed with a shower that not only laid the dust, but covered the roads with mud but three inches deep. From what we can learn, we judge that almost every section of the state has had more rain during the past two days than we have had.
