BUSHMAN'S FALL AND WINTER ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MOST ELEGANT, BEST and most desirable stock we have ever bought, is now arriving and we are pleased to inform our patrons and friends that we have just received a large quantity of the same.

The rain which began Tuesday and continued through yesterday was unpleasant, but did not prevent the crowd from thronging the streets and visiting every part of the city.

Two colored men who came over the river Thursday were arrested on suspicion of being plunderers. They had with them hats and several other articles with them, supposed to have been stolen. They are locked up for safe keeping.

The board of directors of the Omaha Board of Trade request that all stores and other places of business be closed today (Thursday) between the hours of 1 p. m. and 6 p. m., to enable their employees to attend the State Fair.

The members of Engine Company No. 1 desire to offer their acknowledgments to the ladies who kindly contributed flowers for decorating the apparatus Tuesday, and to Mrs. Clark Woodman, particularly, for a rare and beautiful bouquet.

It is generally understood among railroad men that the R. & M. will push their road west from Indiana this fall and winter, should the weather prove favorable. The large piles of iron and ties that have been accumulating at Lincoln for some months will soon begin to move.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather yesterday the attendance at the Fair grounds was quite large. Every train in from the interior has brought crowds of people who were neither sugar nor salt to be scared out by a little rain or mud. The hotel's small crowd to overflowing.

The firemen's hall at Creighton hall Tuesday was a grand affair. The attendance was good, the music excellent and dancing continued until late in the night. A great many of the Council Buffs firemen remained until yesterday. There will be a beautiful decorated with flags and paraphernalia according to custom.

A couple of clock thieves went through the safe at the harness store of G. H. and J. S. Collins, during the firemen's parade Tuesday morning, getting about $50 and a lot of drafts. Toss about 10 o'clock a young man was arrested on suspicion of being the guilty party but on appearing in police court yesterday they were discharged for want of identification.

A back-driver was arrested yesterday on complaint of Clinton P. Rice, charged with stealing a silver watch and 15. The two slept in the same room at the kind on Oliver house Tuesday, and the driver got up before his companion and left, and the latter afterwards missed his property. The accused was searched, but failed to locate the watch.

Herman Cronwell was sent to jail yesterday by Judge Hawes for five days for disturbing the peace. He threw a brick through a neighbor's window, dressed himself up in female attire and was unapproachable either in quantity of goods, quality of goods, style in trimming or reasonableness in prices.

Our fine goods are nearly as low as goods of an inferior grade, as sold by some other houses.

Call and see us, and then go around to the other stores and judge for yourself.

H. & C. F. BUSHMAN, Millinery at Wholesale and Retail.

John Dillon.

Of the performance of this famous comedian and his new play, supported by the Gulick-Blaisdell Guaranteed Attraction "No. 1," the Burlington Hawkeye says:

"Union Hall was packed last night to welcome Mr. John Dillon in his new piece, the 'Electric Light.' The comedy is all they claim for it. John Dillon was in his happiest vein. The company supporting him was fully armed, and the fun produced by the star and his troupe was of a kind to make to make old men and women scream, while the younger people laughed until they forgot their appointments next Sunday evening."

Mr. Dillon appears here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee.

WILL CLOSE.

On Thursday and Friday afternoons between the hours of one and six o'clock our store will be closed to enable ourselves and employees to attend the state fair.
