THE predictions of southern republicans that with "a fair count" republican success in Louisiana and Florida is a certainty, awakens no response from the national committee. They, with all republicans north and south, know too well that "a fair count" in the gulf state is a sheer impossibility. Republicans make no calculations on electoral votes from the "solid south."

THE Louisville Courier-Journal appeals to Kentucky to "do her duty sries and conventions have been run and there is no danger about the result in Indiana." "This," says the Inter-Ocean, "is about the broadest and most significant suggestion that has yet been made by a democratic leader. Kentucky usually does 'her duty' when elections are held in Indiana. She always sends thousands of voters into the border counties to swell the democratic majority."

On Monday General Garfield will extend the hospitalities of his home, at Mentor, to Gen Grant, Senator Conkling and Gen. Arthur, together with a few prominent members of the republican national committee who will be in attendance at the great mass meeting to be held in Warren, Ohio, on the 25th inst. It is understood that the meeting of many of so many distinguished men at Mentor is both out of courtesy to the participants and also to hold a consultation relative to to the campaign. The great meeting at Warren will excel any yet seen in northern Ohio, one wigwam alone eeating twenty thousand people.

THE FRENCH CRISIS The recent crisis in the French cabinet'which has just culminated in the disolution of the De Freycinet ministry had its origin in thedefeat of the famous Article No. 7 of the educational bill, Jules Ferry. This article it will be remembered forbade unauthorized congregations from engaging in teaching and on its rejection by the senate the government proceeded to revive against the religious orders the decree directed against the Jesuits forty years ago and Constans the minister, of the Intertos and of Pub-
