MAUD S.
 HISTORY OF THE PASTEST TROTTER ON EARTH.
 Chicago Letter to Louisville Courier-Journal.
 Maud S. was brought to the surface, but as thousands are unacquainted with the general facts, and several minor details have come to us from an authoritative source, they are sufficiently interesting to bear repetition.

In July, 1876, William Bair, Maud's driver, whose handling of the animal had been greatly distinguished, came from Pennsylvania to Cincinnati. In the fortune of things, and which here without employment, and which he would not do, without the simple truth, he was in hard luck, though he had good letters of recommendation. He applied to Capt. Stone as president of the Chester Park association, requesting that he should assist him to secure a member of the association the handling of his horse over to the track.
