An Unpartisan Meeting in In dianapolis Re olves to Favor an Honest and Peaceable Election.

Indiana Democrats and Re publicans Charge Each Other with Fraud and Corruption.

Preparations for the Great Struggle That is to Take Place To-day.

The Eve of Battle.

Special disputch to The Box. CINCINNATI, Oct. 11, 4 p. m .- The campaign in this state practically ended with the meeting and great demonstrations of Saturday, and the workers are now doing quiet service, preparatory to the contest to-morrow in the congressional fight. The greatest interest centers in the first, second, third, fourth, sixth, ninth, tenth and fifteenth districts. These are the contested districts, the others being either democratic or republican by large majorities. The state has been redistricted since the last congressional election, and the present districts in most cases do not correspond in number with those in last congress. Both parties have labored with a desperation and energy unparalled in Ohiopolitics, and demcrats and republicans express great confidence in the success of their respective tickets. The cry of fraud is heard on all sides, but watch will be so close and risk so great that little illegal voting seems possible. There is every indication of a full vote and it is probable that the vote of this county will reach 58,000 or more. At the last election, the republicans had over 56,000. There is in all parts of the state a quiet determination on the part of both parties to see every vote polled and the vote of Ohio will reach 675,000. The Hoosier Hurrah oscial Dispatch to The Bee.

Indianapolis, October 11-4 p. m The lull which usually precedes done, is not perceptible. The excitement, wrangling and earnest political work which characterize the campaign, is continued and will be carried to election, and on through till the last ballot is counted. Indiana has not seen such a campaign within the memory of anyone now active in politics. The state has been filled with orators, camp-fires have burned from the Ohio river to the been wanting on either side. Disturbances have been frequent in varty and a democrat, was killed by Ed. caped and has not been captured for his arrest. A bitter partisan feeling prevails here, and there is intense excitement. Ex-Governor Hendricks addresses the democrats this evening, and the crowd is very great. McConkle's body lies in state in the court house, which is draped in mourning, and flags are flying at half mast. There is a bitter feeling between the parties, and the excitement is greater than during the war. Each party lays the blame of yesteroccasion of a Republican rally, given

To the E liter of the Ber. CHICAGO, October 11-10 a. m .-Gen. C. H. Howard, who was Adjutant-General of the left wing of the Army of the Potomac, under his brother, O. C. Howard at the battle of Gettysburg denies the statement of Gen. Slocum, that Gen. Hancock selected the battle-field. Gen. Howard stated to a reporter that he went upon Cemetary Ridge with his brother, O. O. Howard, on the morning of July 13th. The latter said, "Here is the military position," and there located the troops. Gen. Bancock did not arrive until 4:30 p. m., and soon retired to his own command, twenty miles distant. Gen. Slocum did not come until sunset. Gen. Howard's statement corroborates Gen. Grant's assertions about Gettysburg.

The Situation in Indiana New York, October 12 .- 1 a m .-At the headquarters of both democratic and republican national committees is expressed great confidence of the results in Ohio and Indiana, to-morrow. Ex-governor Jewell recelved last night the following dispatch from state committee of In-

He in consultation with some democratic felt as confident of the issue as if he leaders here to-day, but returned to had already received dispatches an-nouncing the result. He displayed Indiana this evening. the following dispatch from the demcratic committee:

Indianapolis, October 11. The republican state committee completed their work last night. They have distributed their repeaters in both light republican and democratic towns. The purpose of this is to reduce the democratic majorities and increase republican majorities where they think districts are close. These repeaters are from Philadelphia, Pittsburg and New York. They are NYC. 1297 C C & 1C. 118 reckless and blatant, and do not hositate to resort to violence upon every R I. 115 Hudson Canal S2 occasion. doing their best to provoke a collision to-day. Each charges the other with the importation of voters under the direction of professional scoundrels from the seaboard and the south. A election after active campaign work is meeting of citizens, irsespective of party, was called at the court house last night. The object of the meeting was to take steps to a fair and peaceable election to-day. Senator Mc-Donald, Judge Claypool and others, besides Wm. H.
