The regular monthly meeting of the Nobraska Academy of Sciences was held at their new rooms in William's block last evening and was unusually well attended. Among those from abroad were Prof. Aughey, Prof. C. D. Wilber and Prof. Nicholson of the normal school.

Mr. Joshua Budd reported that the new rooms had been secured at $25 per month, and presented bills for furnishing; he also reported, as curator of the museum, the receipt from Prof. have a right to walk on every foot of Blodgert, of Illinois, of a large number of valuable specimens, and a large and rich collection of mineral specimens from New Mexico-these, in addition to those collected for the society WASHINGTON, D.
