Orange Blossoms.

The matrimonial market still continues firm. On Tuesday evening, October 19th, a very delightful wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. Daniel Burr, the parties thus joining in a life partnership being Mr. George Burr and Miss Stella Shaw, both of this city. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock, and was followed by a magnificent wedding feast. But few friends were invited, it being the wish of both parties that there should be no ostentatious display. A number of elegant presents were received. Late in the evening the happy couple went to their own home which the groom had fitted up for his bride. Additional interest was lent to the occasion by the fact that the day was the anniversary of Daniel Burr's birth.

H. W. Young, Esq., of Carroll, Iowa, and Miss Etta Smith, of Florence, were married on the evening of the 29th, at the residence of the bride's mother, in Florence precinct, the Rev. J. B. Maxfield officiating.

The Mysterious Arrest.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

CHICAGO, October 22—4 p. m.—The mysterious arrest yesterday by detectives Hall and Simms, of a man in possession of $207,000 in gold, which caused a decided sensation, not only in this city, but in Washington and other parts.

All who were in any way connected with the arrest were last night besieged by a army of anxious newsgatherers, but the name, position and crime of the prisoner were successfully suppressed. In point of fact, the officials, here, were unable to learn at night, but little more than the mere fact that he had been arrested on a description telegraphed Wednesday from Washington, and the several hundreds of thousands of dollars in government bonds had been found in his possession.

The railroad conference, which had been adjourned to a special train from Astabula, there would have been many in the party had not the day been overcast. Ger. Garfield and Arthur, principal operators, and willard, Wadsworth, Dunham, Stetson, in three congressional districts, and will have a good majority in the legislature, which will choose a United States senator. A Davenport, Iowa, dispatch is equally exultant for the day, as far as the news of the arrest are concerned.
