THE EVE OF BATTLE.

Busy Scenes at the National Political Headquarters.

Thwarting the Democratic Plan of Capturing Indiana.

Strong Faith of the Republican Leaders in a Great Victory To-day.

Another Democratic Forgery Unearthed in Chicago.

Preparing for the Fight.

Chicago, November 2, 1 a. m.

There is some apprehension of trouble to-day. Mayor Harrison has a thousand special policemen sworn in, said to be all Democrats. About the same number of U. S. marshals have been sworn in, the majority being Republicans. Three hundred special deputy sheriffs had been appointed, but Judge Moran rescinded the order appointing them, on the ground that Sheriff Hoffman had appointed all Republicans, and they were not needed. S. J. Brockway, candidate for clerk of the House, and a Republican, was charged with criminal libel in publishing that he keeps a house in which he "reigns as supreme master and Sultan." He was fined $10,000 bonds each until Friday.

How They Propose to Carry Indiana.

Chicago, November 2, 1 a. m.

Nothing was done in the city yesterday by political leaders except getting ready for the election to-day, until about midnight, when they were joined by the Republicans, who had seemed to fill the breasts of members were sending reporters from this city to Indiana in large numbers, among whom were several well known parties, who got away on an afternoon train, but those who were to start on an evening train were less successful. The fact that a gang had been supplied with tickets to become known to the Republicans, who soon obtained a squad of police and succeeded in frisking them so that only ten or fifteen got away on the evening train. The Republican party was immediately set to work on several points in Indiana, and the details are being watched here. It is believed that the Democrats have been obtained, and their headquarters have been found.

Democratic Tactics.

Chicago, November 2-1 a. m.

President Hancock of the Wheaton college, leader of the movement against secret societies, publishes the following:

79 DEARBORN STREET, CHICAGO, November 1, 1880.

A letter dated No. 13 Wabash avenue, Chicago, and signed C. L. Blanchard, urging all members of secret societies to vote for Hancock, has just been handed me. It is by this morning's dispatch that copies of it are being widely circulated among the Indiana within the last few days. The letter is a forgery, a fraud, and a lie. I have private copies of the original, and have seen the original in the hands of several persons who have seen it in the hands of the forger. I have also seen the original in the hands of the forger. I have also seen the original in the hands of the forger.

There is an understanding among the various companies about the cut and regular rates are charged when they can get them. Limited tickets sell for $20, and stop over tickets for $23, which is the old rate.
