THE CITIZENS TICKET.

The mass convention held in Clark's hall Saturday was by all odds the finest representative body of the people of Douglas county that ever assembled in Omaha.

Among the very first things that came before the last legislature was a resolution of inquiry directing the governor to report why it was that criminals imported from Wyoming and Colorado into Nebraska by Mr. Stout, contractor of penitentiary labor, were lost upon our people when their sentence expired instead of being shipped back to the points from whence they came.

STATE JOTTINGS. Lincoln has organized a county medical society. Deer are reported as being unusually plentiful at the head of Maple and Union creeks.

W. A. Paxton is one of the Omaha's leading citizens identified with her growth, and largely interested in her prosperity. He is a man who is trusted and respected by all with whom he comes in contact.

Mr. John Bloom is a German farmer who has a host of friends among the people of his nationality as well as among Americans. He is a man of firm character, who will always vote right, although he don't pretend to be an orator.

Mr. John McShane is a young man of acknowledged ability and unexceptional character. He represents a large interest in real estate in this city and county, and will, of course, see to it that taxation is made equitable, and that the railroads bear their due share of public burdens.
