

B. ROSEWATER EDITOR
The whole community will sympathize with Hon. John M. Thurston in his bereavement.

The open cars are to be withdrawn from the street on the 16th as soon as the thermometer touches 16 below zero.

The Northern Pacific company has secured the early completion of their road by the successful placing of $4,000,000 of six per cent bonds on the eastern market.

Mr. Gould is said to have contributed $25,000 to the presidential campaign fund.

The Russian nihilists have issued an appeal to France and America for aid, asserting that they are fighting for national sovereignty.

It is reported on good authority that the Burlington & Quincy road, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road, and the B. & M. will consolidate on the first of January.

We are reliably informed that the Omaha Republican is to be rejuvenated within a few weeks.

The appointment of E. L. Bierbower, of Omaha, as United States marshal for Nebraska, succeeds Hon. Wm. Daily, the appointee of Justice Miller, is not pleasing in the eyes of the Omaha Republican.

The friends of Benjamin Harris Brewer of Philadelphia, will press a name for appointment as associate justice of the United States supreme court, in case of the retirement of Mr. Justice Strong, which is probable.

Ex-Governor Poynter, the representative of the Fifth Wisconsin district, will try to carry the party during the winter of the revolution introduced by him last spring, providing a constitutional amendment to extend the presidential term to six years.

Bob Toombs is not all-powerful in his own state. He made a bitter war against Joseph E. Brown as a candidate for the United States senate, but to which he had been appointed by Gov. Colquhoun, accusing him of all sorts of offenses against law and morality, and yet Brown was elected without any opposition worth speaking of.

It is announced that "Galusha A. Grov will probably be beaten for the senate in Pennsylvania, though he claims for the appointment of 164 votes. There are two main candidates for the senate—Oliver, of Pittsburg, and Morrill, of Johnston.

Chicago Tribune. The construction of the new iron war yacht Livadia, recently built for the Czar of Russia, and which has been so successfully attended in its experimental trials, would seem to indicate that we are on the verge of a thorough revolution in naval architecture.

Why don't the Sioux City editor join the Omaha U. P. organ in clamoring for a battle scared veteran for the Nebraska marshaling? That office has always been filled by brave veterans, you know.

The Republican reiterates the story that Senator Saunders violated the instructions of the Nebraska legislature when he voted to confirm President Hayes' appointments in the New York custom house.

The German state department has yielded its claims on American naturalized citizens residing in Alaska and Louisiana.

The Ohio memorial fight is attracting great attention among politicians. Strong pressure will be brought to bear upon Secretary Sherman to remain in the cabinet, but if his wishes are towards the senate it seems difficult to see how Ohio can afford to lose such a valuable public servant.

Mr. Garfield's majority in Maine is 4169. Neal Dow got 92 votes in the state.

Neal Dow ran well in his own state, getting no less than sixty-six votes, in all, for president.

Who is to be port laureate of congress, now that Delaware Downey, of Wyoming, has retired from public life? Mahone and Davis do not control the balance of power in the senate, but they control the balance of weight.

H. C. Bruce, one of the republican members of the next Kansas legislature, is a brother of Senator Bruce, of Mississippi.

The Hon. Frederick M. Holloway, democratic candidate for governor, received 6000 more votes than Gen. Hancock in Michigan.

The official count gives Garfield a majority of 20,923 in New York state. Hancock carried the city of New York by a majority of 41,285.

THE NAVY REPORT.
The reports of the operations of the various bureaus of the navy department for the past fiscal year have been compiled under the direction of Secretary Thompson and handed in to the president.

Garfield's majority in Maine is 4169. Neal Dow got 92 votes in the state. Ex-Senator W. M. Morrill, of Maine, is very ill at his home in Portland.

Neal Dow ran well in his own state, getting no less than sixty-six votes, in all, for president.

Mr. John A. Cutbert, of Alabama, is living in Mobile, remembering that he was a graduate of Princeton in 1855 and a member of congress as long ago as 1819.

Representative Loring has built a handsome home in Washington, and it is said that the architect, who was a graduate of Princeton in 1855 and a member of congress as long ago as 1819.

It is intimated that the desperate democrats will attempt to keep the Hon. Madison E. Cutts out of his seat in congress as successor of Mr. Weaver. His official majority is 106 votes.

The legislature of South Carolina has organized, there being two colored senators and eight negro representatives. A strong movement is being made to hold state elections at a different date from the presidential.

Ex-Senator Edmund G. Ross, who was the democratic candidate for governor of Kansas, ran ahead of the rest of the state ticket some 3800 votes, and received 3740 more than Gen. Hancock.

The friends of Benjamin Harris Brewer of Philadelphia, will press a name for appointment as associate justice of the United States supreme court, in case of the retirement of Mr. Justice Strong, which is probable.

Ex-Governor Poynter, the representative of the Fifth Wisconsin district, will try to carry the party during the winter of the revolution introduced by him last spring, providing a constitutional amendment to extend the presidential term to six years.

PERSONALITIES.
General Grant is fond of pork and beans. McCullough, the actor, likes oyster sauce.

Alice Oates has debauched her opera company. Her last husband was in bad and sent home some weeks ago.

Gail Hamilton, it is said, is about to write the reminiscences of her girlhood. She must have a long-range memory.

"The Post of Colorado, has five wives living in different parts of the state." A very good hitching-post, we should say.

The only thing urged against Richard Grant White is his mutton-chop whiskers and the terribly bad English that he uses.

"Give the wicked Bernhardt wide berth," says an exchange. What for? She can get along with a narrow eye. Give the wide berth to David Davis.

Bjornstjerne Bjornson, the Norwegian poet, is in Boston, and several people who attempted to call him by name are trying to discover the best remedy for a sprained jaw.

John Mace, the once well-known English pianist, is keeping a large hotel in Melbourne. He is said to have become a "model moral man," and is, moreover, making money fast.

The wife of Tony Pastor, the variety actor, is described as having the face of a blended Marguerite and Madonna—so gentle, refined and sweet—the kind of a face women fall in love with.

Mr. Henry Bergh was among the audience that witnessed Sara Bernhardt's last appearance in New York. Did he go out of curiosity to see the woman that cruelly cremated her pet poodle alive?

After the death of Conrad Selig, at Monroe, Alabama, this telegram was received from Ella Dancy, his affianced wife: "Delay funeral two days. I will be ready for burial with him." She kept her word by committing suicide.

Lady Dudley is now the belle of the English ball, 30 years old, has blue eyes, delicate features, an ethereal figure, takes gloves at 5 and carries at 4.
